Sg Sociology In A Changing World:

The Making of Singapore Sociology Tong Chee-Kiong, Lian Kwen-Fee, 2021-11-08 This book presents a collection of essays of how the city state of Singapore's societal dynamics have evolved from the time of its birth as a nation in 1965 to the present. Key areas of Singapore society are explored contributing to the understanding of the social organisation of the city. This study reveals a shift from the modernisation studies in the 1970s to a more political economic turn as a consequence of the influence of dependency and world systems theories. Topics covered include urban studies, family, education, medical care, class and social stratification, work, language, ethnic groups, religion, and crime and deviance.

Globalization and the Evolving World Society, 2021-11-01 The societies of the present world are experiencing many turbulent changes. New forces of change and modernization are driving people, business, and cultures across borders. The world has become a home to a new generation of homo sapiens who are curious about others but at the same time cherish to preserve their own cultures. What is the nature of this evolving world society? Is the world driving toward a new global civilization, an end of history, or an inevitable civilizational clash? The present volume has brought together leading scholars in the field to examine the concept of globalization, deliberate on the character of its multifaceted nature and expressions, and delineate its impact on the emerging world economy, politics, culture, and science. A number of substantive issues such as the emergence of new global economic inequality, culture, and the role of the trans-nationals, nature of the emerging global environmental regimes, rise of the NICs, and the conflicting role of the nation-states in the face of the advancing forces of globalization are addressed. It is contended that globalization should be perceived neither as an unbounded economic progress nor as an expansion of western domination. Globalization is rather defined as a new development strategy, a process of change that can be planned, guided, and controlled. For national, political, and business leaders of the world, the volume provides a blueprint of the emerging areas of policy concerns and guidance. For the world of social science, it presents a road map of the emerging intellectual issues and challenges. Contributors are Alessandro Bonanno, Stephen W. K. Chiu, Douglas Constance, Richard J. Estes, R. Scott Frey, Archibald O. Haller, George A. Miller, Proshanta K. Nandi, Winifred R. Poster, J. Timmons Roberts, Shahid M. Shahidullah, Bam Dev Sharda, and Alvin Y. So.

Handbook of Sports Studies Jay Coakley, Eric Dunning, 2000-08-29 Now available in paperback, this vital handbook marks the development of sports studies as a major new discipline within the social sciences. Edited by the leading sociologist of sport, Eric Dunning, and Jay Coakley, author of the best-selling textbook on sport in the USA, it both reflects and richly endorses this new-found status. Key aspects of the Handbook include an inventory of the principal achievements in the field, a guide to the chief conflicts and difficulties in the theory and research process, a rallying point for researchers who are established or new to the field, which sets the agenda for future developments, a resource book for teachers who wish to establish new curricula and develop courses and programmes in the area of sports studies. With an international and inter-disciplinary team of contributors, the Handbook of Sports Studies is comprehensive in scope, relevant in content and far reaching in its discussion of future prospect Sociologies in Dialogue Sari Hanafi,Chin-Chun Yi,2020-07-21 Sociologies in Dialogue brings together expert contributions from international scholars who reflect on the importance of collaboration between diverse sociological perspectives to enhance our understanding of the role of sociology as an academic discipline and as a vehicle for social change By exploring the distinctive practices and research of a range of sociologists the book shows how an open dialogue between sociologists is critical to addressing major sociological issues across the globe such as inequality and ethnocentrism and challenging the hierarchies of knowledge production and circulation Contributors also discuss novel strands in theory and methodology such as multicultural sociology cosmopolitanism and multiple modernities An important contribution for researchers and students interested in global sociology sociological theories and methodologies The Contemporary Family in Singapore Eddie C. Y. Kuo,Aline K. Wong,1979 Twelve essays on the sociology of the family in Singapore in the modern period Changing World Economic Order in the Post-Pandemic Period Mahapatra, Sushanta Kumar,Sarin, Vishal,2023-06-02 Post COVID 19 the world will never be the same The pandemic not only shattered many assumptions about economic developments and growth but it also challenged our preparedness to face any unpredictable challenge as a human civilization in an era where science and technology is at its peak To suppress the spread of COVID 19 many countries resorted to partial or full closure of their borders and restricted the movement of people Mandatory quarantine restricted labor mobility and workplace closure which later converted into supply shocks in the economy as these measures impaired the economy s production capacity disrupting supplies This later spilled over to the demand side as people were locked down in their homes and workers were laid off and lost income This disruption posed many new challenges for policymakers to formulate appropriate macroeconomic policy responses and also provided them the opportunity to ponder upon the preparedness of countries in terms of health facilities appropriately compensating human resources how to cushion immediate and severe economic shocks and how to maintain the livelihood of the society as a whole Changing World Economic Order in the Post Pandemic Period provides scientific knowledge of the current economic scenarios across the globe with a comprehensive overview of the pandemic and regional initiatives trends of trade and development and approaches to overcome obstacles of globalization and the impacts on global trade and economic development in light of the pandemic The chapters present tangible solutions and attainable perspectives for fighting a battle against the pandemic while keeping the morale of the people and economy high Highlighted topics include post pandemic economic development public policy in emergency situations socio economic impacts on enterprises risk governance and impacts of COVID 19 This book is ideally intended for university students researchers policymakers economic actors economists practitioners stakeholders government officials academicians and anyone interested in the impact of a pandemic on the global economy and how to deal with such issues in the future

Bangladeshi Migration to Singapore Md Mizanur Rahman,2017-03-07 This book examines international labour migrants in the context of South South migration with a focus on Bangladeshi migration to Singapore Two principal questions in the South South migration are addressed Why and how individuals migrate for work and what impact this temporary form of migration has for migrants and their families The book adopts a relatively new methodological approach to labour migration by linking different phases that migrants undergo in the migration process and by combining migrants in the host country with their families in the origin country This is achieved through identifying and addressing six key areas i migration policy ii social imperatives of migration iii recruitment iv social worlds of the migrants v remittance process and finally vi family development dynamics This book introduces the bari to migration research as a unit of analysis over and above individual and family units The book reveals how social and cultural forces both initiate and perpetuate migration and later on influence bari dynamics

Intercultural Variation in Family Research and Theory Roma S Hanks, Marvin B Sussman, 2014-05-12

Intercultural Variation in Family Research and Theory sets forth 23 critical reviews in a 2 volume set that document the development of family research and theory in various societies around the world Focusing on modern research while drawing on the historical roots of theoretical and methodological approaches employed in the study of family this collection not only increases your knowledge about the status of family research in various countries but also inspires cross national research among researchers and scholars The societies being studied have been grouped by region Volume I contains the set s Introduction and contributions from the Far East the Baltic region Australia and South Africa Volume II covers the Middle East Western Europe Scandinavia and also includes the Index The materials in these two volumes are the result of the charge given to scholars of 23 societies to review the development of family theory and research in their homelands Their obligation was to provide an analytic report telling a story from their perspective of reality The book s editors now present some of the commonality of experiences and trends of the researchers and interpret country differences and similarities from their writings Intercultural Variation in Family Research and Theory holds numerous suggestions for your investigations into the family field You ll find that the set adds to the body of knowledge on comparative family analysis and raises concerns and issues for future research The questions addressed in this book include how gender of the investigator influences choice of research topics how funding sources shape the research agenda what influence a researcher's career trajectory has on research topics methods and procedures why psychological and sociological frameworks and methodologies are commonly used in family research how political policy influences and dictates theory development and research what to do about the multitude of new questions that inevitably arise from such intercultural research Geo Spaces of Communication

Research Laura Robinson, Katia Moles, Sonia Virginia Moreira, Jeremy Schulz, 2024-03-28 The volume brings together scholars from across the Americas to address the complex evolution of political and policy media spaces as they are studied from a range of perspectives Language and Literature in a Glocal World Sandhya Rao Mehta, 2018-06-29 This collection of critical essays investigates the intersections of the global and local in literature and language Exploring the connections that exist between global forms of knowledge and their local regional applications this volume explores multiple ways in which literature is influenced and in turn influences movements and events across the world and how these are articulated in various genres of world literature including the resultant challenges to translation This book also explores the way in which languages especially English transform and continue to be reinvented in its use across the world Using perspectives from sociolinguistics discourse analysis and semiotics this volume focuses on diasporic literature travel literature and literature in translation from different parts of the world to study the ways in which languages change and grow as they are sought to be owned by the communities which use them in different contexts Emphasizing on interdisciplinary studies and methodologies this collection centralizes both research that theorizes the links between the local and the global and that which shows through practical evidence how the local and global interact in new and challenging ways The Perception of Christianity as a Rational Religion in Singapore Clive S. Chin, 2017-03-23 This book evaluates the common criticism that Christianity in Asia is westernized Since the 1980s Asian evangelical theologians and missiologists argue that the intrusion of Western theology is responsible for the Western and hence alien expressions of Christianity in Asia Yet in Singapore the number of Christians has increased over the last few decades Empirical evidence demonstrates that younger Chinese Singaporeans convert from Buddhism or Taoism to Christianity partly because they perceive it as a rational religion over Buddhism or Taoism which are viewed as irrational or superstitious Not only do many converts favor Christianity as a rational religion but they do not regard Christianity as a Western religion at the point of their conversion What accounts for those recent developments This study explores the processes of modernization and globalization as important factors impacting religious change in Singapore Personal contextual and structural elements actually influence one's religion of choice In facilitating effective mission one must qualify the use of the categories Asian and Western because religious and cultural boundaries overlap What matters most in missiology is discerning how the gospel of Jesus Christ engages the self understanding and lived realities of ethnic and religious others in diverse cultural settings
