Preparing for Baptism in the Episcopal Church Anne E. Kitch, 2015-07-01 A primer or refresher on the sacrament of Baptism for new parents new members and godparents This book is about preparing for Christian baptism in the Episcopal Church While we may hear people say I was baptized a Methodist or I was baptized Catholic or I was baptized Episcopalian people are not baptized into a denomination they are baptized into the Christian faith While various Christian denominations differ both their theology of baptism as it is understood and practiced in the Episcopal Church following the rite found in the Book of Common Prayer 1979 This short book is full of helpful information solid history sound theology and thoughtful reflection It is the perfect book to give to adults or to parents of young children seeking baptism through the Episcopal Church I am happy that I will be able to offer this book to my students for their future use when guiding baptismal candidates A truly welcome resource The Reverend Dr Nathan Jennings associate professor of liturgics and Anglican studies Seminary of the Southwest

Christian Worship and Its Cultural Setting Frank C. Senn, 2004-01-20 This serious inquiry into the relationship between worship and its cultural setting can help pastors seminarians and other worship leaders steer a path between cultural capitulation on the one hand and cultural irrelevancy on the other in the ordering and doing of Christian liturgy Senn suggests that the interplay between cult and culture should be a transformation of culture as it is appropriated in Christian worship leading to an experience which is both a human activity and a transcendental event

The Witness of the Worshipping Community Frank C. Senn, 1993 Contends that the church growth movement runs the risk of losing its roots in return for gaining members He shows how churches should evangelize through authentic worship that puts people in touch with the source of Christian life Especially pertinent for Protestant congregations The Rites of Christian Initiation Maxwell E. Johnson, 2016-03-24 Originally published in 1999 The Rites of Christian Initiation was hailed for its clarity and comprehensiveness Kieran McDonnell OSB called it the best overall treatment of Christian initiation available and Paul Bradshaw predicted it would be the standard textbook on the subject for very many years to come The current edition draws on new translations of early texts on baptism as well as recent scholarship on the early traditions in the East and West It is sure to replace itself as the new standard reference on the rites of Christian initiation Maxwell E Johnson's expanded and revised text provides a more complete view of the history and interpretation of the rites in the Eastern Church including two chapters that explore the pre Nicene Eastern and Western traditions in detail Revisiting the theology of baptism this edition also provides more nuanced positions on the Eastern and Western traditions Finally recent liturgical developments in American Protestant churches particularly Lutheran as well as the ongoing development of the RCIA and confirmation practices of Catholics made it necessary to revisit the place and meaning of these rites in the church today Maxwell E Johnson PhD is professor of liturgy at the University of Notre Dame and an ordained minister of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America He has published in Worship and is the editor of and contributor to Living Water Sealing Spirit Readings on Christian Initiation Liturgical Press 1995 and the revised and expanded edition of E C Whitaker Documents of the Baptismal Liturgy Liturgical Press and S P C K 2003 to which this study serves as a companion volume Religious Diversity in Late Antiquity David Morton Gwynn, Susanne Bangert, 2010 This volume in the ongoing Late Antique Archaeology series draws on material and textual evidence to explore the diverse religious world of Late Antiquity Subjects include Jews and Samaritans orthodoxy and heresy pilgrimage stylites magic the sacred and the secular A Companion to the Archaeology of Religion in the Ancient World Rubina Raja, Jörg Rüpke, 2020-01-09 A Companion to the Archaeology of Religion in the Ancient World presents a comprehensive overview of a wide range of topics relating to the practices expressions and interactions of religion in antiquity primarily in the Greco Roman world Features readings that focus on religious experience and expression in the ancient world rather than solely on religious belief Places a strong emphasis on domestic and individual religious practice Represents the first time that the concept of lived religion is applied to the ancient history of religion and archaeology of religion Includes cutting edge data taken from top contemporary researchers and theorists in the field Examines a large variety of themes and religious traditions across a wide geographical area and chronological span Written to appeal equally to archaeologists and historians of religion Anamnesis as Dangerous Memory Bruce T. Morrill, 2000 Anamnesis as Dangerous Memory explores the political theology of Johann Baptist Metz to discover how Christian memory is prophetic both in its revelation of extraordinary circumstances of injustice and the challenge and hope it poses to those who join in solidarity with the oppressed Liturgical theologian Alexander Schmemmann

then elaborates how the liturgy reveals the kingdom of God and empowers believers to witness to it The meeting of these theologies results in a rich eschatology a life shaped y the vision of a future that fulfills the promises of the past

Liturgy for Living Charles P. Price,Louis Weil,2000-12-01 A classic and accessible guide in the field of Episcopal liturgy Originally published in 1979 Liturgy for Living remains a time tested classic exploration of history theology and spirituality that shapes Anglican liturgy and specifically The Book of Common Prayer Writing for all Episcopalians pastors seminarians and laity Professor Charles Price and Louise Weil uncover the riches of various liturgy including Holy Baptism Confirmation the Daily Office the Holy Eucharist and the various pastoral offices This edition contains an extensive and updated bibliography a glossary of liturgical terms and a list of internet website addresses that contain documents further bibliographic information and links to other websites all related to liturgical studies The worship of the Christian community properly understood and done leads worshipers to act out in their lives the love of God which is at the heart of our worship Worship also provides the power and the sustenance which makes this style of living possible This Christian style of living moreover drives those who are committed to it back to the worship of God to find forgiveness and strength When this interdependent relationship is understood the power of worship is illuminated and the power to live increased From the Preface

Baptism and the Unity of the Church Michael Root,Risto Saarinen,1998

What does a common baptism mean for the unity of the churches Do the churches in fact share in a common baptism This volume is the first comprehensive study of the meaning of baptism for church unity to be written by an ecumenical group of theologians Orthodox Catholic Lutheran Reformed Anglican and Baptist These essays explore such themes as how baptism relates to the communion shared by the churches and the relationship of baptism and church unity as found in the New Testament in the ecumenical dialogues and in the liturgies of the churches Praying Shapes Believing Ruth A. Meyers, Leonel L. Mitchell, 2016-08-01 2015 marks the 30th anniversary of Lee Mitchell's great standard work on the 1979 Book of Common Prayer As his student protégé and colleague Ruth Meyers takes this classic work and updates it for the Church in its current era and for the future

Liturgical Inculturation Anscar J. Chupungco, 1992 Perhaps nothing is as important to the future of the Church as continuing to make the liturgy meaningful to those who celebrate it Inculturation the dynamic translation of the typical editions into the cultures of local Churches is the key Inculturation as a branch of liturgical study has a dauntingly wide scope It covers the areas of history and theology liturgical and cultural principles process and methods sacraments and sacramentals Liturgy of the Hours liturgical year liturgical music liturgical arts and furnishings and such related topics as popular religiosity and catechesis So where does the average pastor liturgist or student begin With this volume the reader is introduced to the different technical terms expressing the relationship between liturgy and culture indigenization incarnation contextualization adaptation acculturation The subsequent discussion on the question of sacramentals popular religiosity and liturgical catechesis explains how these disparate topics share the same basic concern of inculturation Throughout the book the focus is on method Method encompasses both how one may remain true to the liturgy while also considering what culture offers the liturgy or requires of it The question of how creativity relates to inculturation is also answered For the serious student of the liturgy whether or not you serve a culturally diverse community this work provides foundations principles and methods for creating a liturgy of the people and for the people

Christian Identity Borght, 2008-07-31 In this age of globalization a need for a communicative explanation of personal and group positions also motivates Christians to describe more precisely their identity in relation to other actors in society What makes a Christian a Christian What is specifically Christian in social actions or political calling Is there a difference between Christian justice and justice in general and the way Christians deal with justice What is our calling as Christians The contributions in this volume are the result of the 6th biannual IRTI conference in Seoul 2005 on this theme

Reformation and Modern Rituals and Theologies of Baptism Bryan D. Spinks, 2017-03-02 Presenting a comprehensive survey of the historical underpinnings of baptismal liturgies and theologies Bryan Spinks presents an ecumenically and geographically wide ranging survey and discussion of contemporary baptismal rites practice and reflection and sacramental theology Writing within a clear chronological framework Bryan Spinks presents two simultaneous volumes on Baptismal Liturgy and Theology Early and Medieval Rituals and Theologies of Baptism summarizes the understandings of baptism in the New Testament and the development of baptismal reflection and liturgical rites throughout Syrian Egyptian Roman and African regions In this second volume Reformation and Modern Rituals and Theologies of Baptism Spinks traces developments through the Reformation liturgies in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and explores important new ecumenical perspectives on developments of twentieth century sacramental discussion Present practices of Baptist Amish as well as Methodist Roman Catholic Lutheran Reformed and Anglican denominations are also examined

Historical Foundations of Worship (Worship Foundations) Melanie C. Ross, Mark A. Lamport, 2022-04-12 This volume brings together an ecumenical team of scholars to offer a historical overview of how worship developed The book first orients readers to the common core elements the global church shares in the history and development of worship theology and historical practice It then introduces the major streams of worship practice Catholic Orthodox and Protestant including Reformation traditions evangelicalism and Pentecostalism The book includes introductions by John Witvliet and Nicholas Wolterstorff A previous volume addressed the theological foundations of worship

Marks of the Body of Christ Carl E. Braaten, Robert W. Jenson, 1999 Martin Luther once listed seven marks of the church those defining ecclesial features that show where the true church is to be found This insightful volume brings together essays by ten leading Catholic Episcopal Lutheran Methodist and Orthodox theologians each analyzing one of the seven traditional marks of the church and discussing how it is found or not found in today's churches Writing about each mark of the church are these scholars Gerhard O Forde and Richard Lischer on proclamation Susan K Wood and John H Erickson on baptism K Paul Wesche and Richard A Norris Jr on the eucharist David S Yeago on the office of the Keys Carl E Braaten on ordination Robert W Jenson on catechesis and William J Abraham on discipleship The picture of contemporary church life that is developed by these authors is grim but their analyses and practical suggestions are both constructive and necessary
