Sharing Knowledge Making a Difference World Association for Sustainable Development. International Conference, 2011 Information communications technologies ICTs are generally viewed as the new vehicle to redress developmental problems The book assesses the value of such claims by analyzing the structure and workings of the global political economy GPE and its impact on and prospects for developing countries in the current techno economic context The book uses a case study of the Caribbean to illustrate the challenges and opportunities faced by small island developing states SIDS in the new techno economic paradigm The question must be asked can small island developing states such as those of the Caribbean leverage modern ICTs for growth and development against the backdrop of a yawning global digital divide Hence the book addresses the central problem of the digital divide and whether emerging ICTs offer any real economic opportunities for the Caribbean region

Narratives of Organisational Change and Learning Stefanie Reissner, 2008-01-01 Narratives of Organisational Change and Learning investigates change and learning through the comparative and contextual analysis of organisational stories It focuses on how organisational actors make sense of and learn from profound change as exemplified by three manufacturing firms from Britain South Africa and Russia The interaction between organisational change and wider social economic and political changes in the organisations environments and their impact on the organisational actors identity is examined The book also explores the complex responses to organisational change epitomised by patterns of stories prevalent in each of the three organisations as well as the important insights into often unacknowledged narrative processes of learning which result from profound change

Proceedings of the 25th European Conference on Knowledge Management Dr. Nora Obermayer, Dr Andrea Bencsik, Organisational Change: Development and Transformation Dianne Waddell, Andrew Creed, Thomas G.

Cummings, Christopher G. Worley, 2019-08-01 Change Management is a crucial process for gaining the competitive advantage that is the goal of many organisations. Leaders and change agents are often faced with conflicting challenges of motivating and understanding increasingly diverse workforces, accounting to stakeholders and planning for the future in a chaotic environment. Organisation Change Development and Transformation 7e takes both an organisational development and transformational approach to change to reflect the environment of change faced by organisations today. With the field of organisational change continuing to evolve especially in an international context, future directions of change management are also discussed. To emphasise the relationship between theory to practice, this text provides 10 local and international case studies, practitioner vignettes and a suite of online cases supported by a case matrix.

ECKM2015-16th European Conference on Knowledge Management Maurizzio Massaro and Andrea Garlatti, 2015-09-02 These proceedings represent the work of researchers presenting at the 16th European Conference on Knowledge Management ECKM 2015. We are delighted to be hosting ECKM at the University of Udine, Italy, on the 3-4 September 2015. The conference will be opened with a keynote from Dr Madelyn Blair from Pelerei Inc, USA, on the topic 'The Role of KM in Building Resilience'. On the afternoon of the first day, Dr Daniela Santarelli from Lundbeck, Italy, will deliver a second keynote speech. The second day will be opened by Dr John Dumay from Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia. ECKM is an established platform for academics concerned with current research and for those from the wider community involved in Knowledge Management to present their findings and ideas to peers from the KM and associated fields. ECKM is also a valuable opportunity for face-to-face interaction with colleagues from similar areas of interests. The conference has a well-established history of helping attendees advance their understanding of how people, organisations, regions and even countries generate and exploit knowledge to achieve a competitive advantage and drive their innovations forward. The range of issues and mix of approaches followed will ensure an interesting two days. 260 abstracts were initially received for this conference. However, the academic rigor of ECKM means that after the double-blind peer review process, there are 102 academic papers, 15 PhD research papers, 1 Masters research paper and 7 Work in Progress papers published in these Conference Proceedings. These papers reflect the continuing interest and diversity in the field of Knowledge Management and they represent truly global research from many different countries including Algeria, Austria, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Cuba, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Hungary, India, Indonesia, Iran, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Jordan, Kenya, Lithuania, Mexico, Nigeria, Norway, Pakistan, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Russia, Slovakia, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Sri Lanka, Sultanate of Oman, Sweden, Switzerland, Thailand, The Netherlands, UK, United Arab Emirates, USA and Venezuela.
