Sharing a Lifetime of Experience Jim Lotz, 1997-01-01

Canada's Global Villagers Ruth Compton

Brouwer, 2013-09-27 Established in 1961 the same year as the US Peace Corps Canadian University Service Overseas CUSO became the first Canadian NGO to undertake development work from a secular stance and in a context of rapid decolonization Over the next twenty five years nine thousand volunteers many of them women travelled to over forty countries and became Canada's face in the Global South Drawing on more than one hundred interviews Brouwer tells the story of how these young Canadians responded to the challenges of underdevelopment Moving beyond their initial naiveté they sought to fit into the host communities that had invited them and to provide social services particularly in education Returning home they brought unique skills to the Canadian International Development Agency CIDA and other development organizations and a new level of global consciousness and cultural diversity to Canadian society At a time when many are concerned about Canada's waning reputation for global humanitarianism this book reminds us of an earlier more hopeful time

Dying to Get There Comrie Palmer, 2011-09-20 At six years of age Comrie Palmer was pronounced dead at the Hotel Dieu Hospital when her heart failed after surgery Thirty six years later she died again for twenty three minutes also from heart failure This is Comrie's account of the latter amazing death journey You will discover a different perspective on how to live your life after reading her detailed experience Her description is so vivid that you can sense it The Cosmic Mind zapped into her brain penetrating it with a deep knowledge and understanding of things that Comrie knew nothing about beforehand The experience transformed her as her intellect level skyrocketed In this incredible recollection of her experience Comrie Palmer delves deep into the Ceremony of Dying while sharing with us a Formula for Living This is a thought provoking testimony that will have you pondering your own life's actions And you will discover that when love manifests you receive the benefits

Pilgrim Souls Jim Lotz, 2013-09-18 This memoir focuses on an experience all of us dread Pat Lotz was an accomplished author and editor active in her community and a loving wife and mother She succumbed to dementia which was later diagnosed as Alzheimer's at the age of 81 Jim Lotz her husband and himself the author of more than 20 books became her primary caregiver and spent six years in this role before her death in 2012 Growing numbers of people are falling victim to dementia and the condition challenges health care professionals and the health care system because there is no cure or treatment Many people unexpectedly find themselves in the same role as Jim caregiver because they don't want to see their loved ones institutionalized before it is necessary But caring for someone suffering from dementia is enormously challenging and there are very few places to look for useful information and guidance Jim's experiences offer insight understanding and hope for others facing the same situation The past is often key to understanding the present for someone caring for a person with dementia A caregiver who has shared a life is often able to understand what others could hardly guess at Time and again in Jim's narrative he is able to bring the perspective of his knowledge of Pat her values her loves her fears and her life experiences to shed a light that makes her words and actions more understandable For many the best approach to coming to grips with dementia has been through the worlds of literature and film To these resources we can now add Jim Lotz s moving and compelling account of his life with his wife Pat before and after the onset of her dementia In Pilgrim Souls Jim has written a clear eyed emotionally honest and tremendously moving love story Against the Grain L. Anders Sandberg, Peter Clancy, 2000 Presenting case studies of professional foresters from 1920 onwards this text reveals a rich tradition of alternative and dissenting practices combined with professional and political orthodoxies The aim is to illustrate the public and environmental challenges that engulf contemporary forestry The Lichen Factor Jim Lotz, 1998

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Sustainable People Jim Lotz, Gertrude Anne MacIntyre, 2003 This book deals with a new role that has emerged as communities all over the world struggle to gain more control over their destinies as globalization accelerates Community entrepreneurs create organizations that encourage people to learn their way out of poverty dependency and marginalization By participating in such innovative ventures individuals become more self sustaining and able to create good lives for themselves and others in their own communities or wherever they choose to settle Sustainable People moves discussion about social and economic change from abstract terms such as community and development by focusing on what individuals and groups are actually doing to encourage personal and community development it documents the background of the role of the entrepreneur the kinds of organizations they create their learning process and the moral basis of their initiatives Where on Earth Are We Going? Maurice Strong, 2010-11-05 A surprising call to action from a key business and environmental player at the dawn of the millenium From the Report to the Shareholders Earth Inc dated January 1 2030 that begins Where on Earth Are We Going world hunger ecological and environmental disaster global warming massive shifts in weather systems the re emergence of diseases long thought controlled and political turmoil in a world where a barrel of water is more expensive than a barrel of oil Hard headed practical impassioned this is a call to action by a key business and environmental leader at the end of the twentieth century that cannot be ignored To explain how he came by his beliefs Maurice Strong chronicles his poverty stricken beginnings as a child in the prairies during the Depression to his appointment as President of Power Corporation at 29 his appointment as Undersecretary of the United Nations at 40 and on the domestic front as Chairman of Ontario Hydro The Canadian Historical Review ,1998 Canadian Book Review Annual ,1998 Canadian Books in Print ,2003 Green Horizons Jim Lotz, 2005 Veteran journalist Jim Lotz tells the history of how the forests of the province have been both ravaged and occasionally preserved over the centuries It begins with the Mi kmaq people who relied on the woods for game and useful products Green Horizons then traces the history of the forests in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries when the ethic of cut and run ran rampant destroying huge numbers of trees as did massive forest fires The story moves on to the time of saw millers who took the best and left the rest In the first decade of the twentieth century concern arose among those in the forest industries that the province would run out of wood to sustain them The first scientific survey by a forester revealed the deplorable state of the province s woodlands because the government s policy towards the forests was one of benign neglect Green Horizons also recounts the history of the past 50 years in Nova Scotia s forests through interviews of those directly involved in forestry Environmentalists add their perspective to the debate that still rages today about fair use of our forests In recent years the woodlands of Nova Scotia have been the scene of conflicts and tensions between those who seek to preserve them and others who simply see trees as sources of wealth to be cut down and made into commercial products Born in Liverpool England in 1929 Jim Lotz has held 25 different jobs ranging from grouse beater in the Scottish Highlands to glacial meteorologist in the Arctic Coming to Canada in 1954 he was fired from his first job for just cause and crashed his car on same day Since 1960 he has been actively engaged in community based development and has taught at the Coady International Institute His travels in search of learning have taken him from Alaska to Slovakia and from the High Arctic to Lesotho He has written 20 books     Index de Périodiques Canadiens ,2001     The Forestry Chronicle ,1998     Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02     The Lancet ,1881     Resources in Education ,1992     Resources in Education ,1992
