have been changed to protect the innocent And the guilty Following My Dreams Garland W. Yarborough MD FACP FACP,2022-01-20 This is a compelling true story of a young boy born and raised in poverty in Oklahoma He struggled in school especially in reading and math It was his mother who helped him learn reading and math not his teachers Fighting in order to protect himself resulted in several paddlings and other disciplinary actions at school Facing the possibility of being sent to a delinquent home for boys he devised a plan where he would catch a train going north with King a dog who he promised would never be a stray dog again He had even practiced jumping a boxcar while the train was moving He would miss his family but he was not going to the place for delinquent boys In the fifth grade with the help of his mother he started turning things around He accelerated to the top of his class in all subjects Not only was he top of his class academically but also he burgeoned in sports He played on the seventh and eighth grade basketball and baseball teams when he was only in the fifth grade He loved reading about medicine rockets math and the universe among other subjects When he told his counselor and teachers that he wanted to become a doctor he was encouraged to go into something else Again it was his mother that encouraged him to follow his dreams With his poor education it was doubtful his dreams would come to fruition Still he never gave up on his dreams Through hard work and perseverance his dreams came true Catalogue of
