Shashibiya Staging Shakespeare In China:

Shashibiya Ruru Li, 2003 Discussing the levels of filtering that any Shakespeare performance in China undergoes this work examines how these filters reflect the continually changing political social and cultural practices The study also traces the history of Shakespeare performance in China over the last century Chinese Shakespeares Alexander Cheng-Yuan Huang, 2009 This work concentrates on both Shakespearean performance and Shakespeare's appearance in Sinophone culture in relation to the postcolonial question Women in Chinese Martial Arts Films of the New Millennium Ya-chen Chen, 2012-04-12 Women and Gender in Chinese Martial Arts Films of the New Millennium by Ya-chen Chen is an excavation of underexposed gender issues focusing mainly on contradictory and troubled feminism in the film narratives In the cinematic world of martial arts films one can easily find representations of women of Ancient China released from the constraints of patriarchal social order to revel in a dreamlike space of their own They can develop themselves protect themselves and even defeat or conquer men This world not only frees women from the convention of foot binding but it also unbinds them in terms of education critical thinking talent ambition opportunities to socialize with different men and the freedom or right to both choose their spouse and decide their own fate Chen calls this phenomenon Chinese cinematic martial arts feminism The liberation is never sustaining or complete however Chen reveals the presence of a glass ceiling marking the maximal exercise of feminism and women's rights which the patriarchal order is willing to accept As such these films are not to be seen as celebrations of feminist liberation but as enunciations of the patriarchal authority that suffuses Chinese cinematic martial arts feminism The film narratives under examination include Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon directed by Ang Lee Hero Zhang Yimou House of the Flying Daggers Zhang Yimou Seven Swords Tsui Hark The Promise Chen Kaige The Banquet Feng Xiaogang and Curse of the Golden Flower Zhang Yimou Chen also touches upon the plots of two of the earliest award winning Chinese martial arts films A Touch of Zen and Legend of the Mountain both directed by King Hu Memorialising Shakespeare Edmund G. C. King, Monika Smialkowska, 2022-01-01 This book is the first comprehensive account of global Shakespeare commemoration in the period between 1916 and 2016 Combining historical analysis with insights into current practice Memorialising Shakespeare covers Shakespeare commemoration in China Ukraine Egypt and France as well as Great Britain and the United States Chapter authors discuss a broad range of commemorative activities from pageants dance dramatic performances and sculpture to conferences exhibitions and more private acts of engagement such as reading and diary writing Themes covered include Shakespeare's role in the formation of cultural memory and national and global identities as well as Shakespeare's relationship to decolonisation and race A significant feature of the book is the inclusion of chapters from organisers of recent Shakespeare commemoration events reflecting on their own practice Together the chapters in Memorialising Shakespeare show what has been at stake when communities identity groups and institutions have come together to commemorate Shakespeare World-Wide

Shakespeares Sonia Massai,2007-05-07 Drawing on debates around the global local dimensions of cultural production an international team of contributors explore the appropriation of Shakespeare s plays in film and performance around the world In particular the book examines the ways in which adapters and directors have put Shakespeare into dialogue with local traditions and contexts The contributors look in turn at local Shakespeares for local national and international audiences covering a range of English and foreign appropriations that challenge geographical and cultural oppositions between centre and periphery and big time and small time Shakespeares Responding to a surge of critical interest in the poetics and politics of appropriation World Wide Shakespeares is a valuable resource for those interested in the afterlife of Shakespeare in film and performance globally

theme and topic and save and bookmark their results The English Renaissance and the Far East Adele Lee, 2017-10-25

The English Renaissance and the Far East Cross Cultural Encounters is an original and timely examination of cultural encounters between Britain China and Japan It challenges accepted Anglocentric models of East West relations and offers a radical reconceptualization of the English Renaissance suggesting it was not so different from current developments in an increasingly Sinocentric world and that as China in particular returns to a global center stage that it last occupied pre 1800 a curious and overlooked synergy exists between the early modern and the present Prompted by the current eastward tilt in global power in particular towards China Adele Lee examines cultural interactions between Britain and the Far East in both the early modern and postmodern periods She explores how key encounters with and representations of the Far East are described in early modern writing and demonstrates how work of that period particularly Shakespeare has a special power today to facilitate encounters between Britain and East Asia Readers will find the past illuminating the present and vice versa in a book that has at its heart resonances between Renaissance and present day cultural exchanges and which takes a cyclical long view of history to offer a new innovative approach to a subject of contemporary importance Special Section, Updating Shakespeare Graham Bradshaw, Tom Bishop, Tetsuo Kishi, 2008 The Shakespearean International Yearbook continues to provide an annual survey of important issues and developments in contemporary Shakespeare studies This year the volume includes a special section on Updating Shakespeare looking at Shakespearean adaptation in several countries Contributors to the volume come from the US and the UK Poland Japan and Brazil The Shakespearean International Yearbook Graham Bradshaw, Tom Bishop, 2017-05-15 This eighth volume of The Shakespearean International Yearbook presents a special section on European Shakespeares proceeding from the claim that Shakespeare's literary craft was not just native English or British but was filtered and fashioned through a Renaissance awareness that needs to be recognized as European and that has had effects and afterlives across the Continent Guest editors Ton Hoenselaars and Clara Calvo have constructed this section to highlight both how the spread of Shakespeare throughout Europe has brought together the energies of a wide variety of European cultures across several centuries and how the inclusion of Shakespeare in European culture has been not only a European but also a world affair The Shakespearean International Yearbook continues to provide an annual survey of important issues and developments in contemporary Shakespeare studies Contributors to this issue come from the US and the UK Spain Switzerland and South Africa Canada The Netherlands India Portugal Greece France and Hungary In addition to the section on European Shakespeares this volume includes essays on the genre of romance issues of character and other topics
