This Side of Heaven Robert J. Priest, Alvaro L. Nieves, 2007. Publisher description

The Last Stand Michelle Davis, MEd, 2025-01-21. The Last Stand unveils a critical examination of the shift in public education from fostering diverse social backgrounds and academic achievement to the indoctrination of far left ideologies. Long time educator and advocate Michelle Davis delivers a call to action for parents, grandparents, education leaders, and teachers to reclaim control over their local schools and challenge the encroachment of secular influences. In this eye-opening exploration, concerned Christians are urged to engage with their communities, conduct independent research, and organize for change. Davis emphasizes the need for a litmus test to evaluate the alignment of churches and private schools with Biblically based values as pop culture increasingly erodes them. As Christians become the counter culture, it is imperative for parents to shed their blinders and critically analyze the foundational policies of local school districts, discerning the presence of indoctrination and grooming. The Last Stand empowers traditionalists who are committed to safeguarding core Christian values for the sake of our children and the future of this great nation.

Racism Thomas Schirrmacher, 2014-01-28. Are white people more intelligent than black people? Are Jews devious and grabby? Intolerance and violence through racism includes slavery, national socialism in Germany, apartheid in South Africa, or the genocides in Rwanda and Bosnia. But racism is not only wrong theologically; it is not only against the dignity of humans that guarantees their human rights, but newer genetic research also proves that the whole classification into races is without foundation. Biologically speaking, all humans belong to one race. E.g., when you need a blood transfusion, you should not look for a blood donor from your race but someone with the same blood group transcending all races.

Joshua in 3-D L. Daniel Hawk, 2010-04-02. This unique commentary generates a conversation between the biblical narrative of conquest-related biblical themes and the American master narrative of Manifest Destiny. Writing in an accessible style and format, Hawk offers an exegesis of the biblical text with special emphasis on the ways the narrative of conquest shaped ancient Israel's identity as a people. A second level of commentary lifts key themes from the text, e.g., the land as divine gift and promise, mass killing, Israel's distinctive attributes, the construction of the Indigenous Other, and sets them within their broader biblical context. A third dimension reflects on corresponding elements in America's narrative of westward expansion, e.g., the conviction of America's unique character and destiny, total war, and ethnic cleansing, the dehumanization of Native peoples, patriotism, and homeland the idea of the American Dream As a whole this book offers Joshua as a biblical resource for reading the American experience challenging readers to reflect on how conquest shaped America s identity and how it continues to influence American attitudes and actions
