Shedding The Veil:

Shedding The Veil: Mapping The European Discovery Of America And The World Thomas Suarez, 1994-04-29 Shedding the Veil is a highly original overview of Europe's exploration and discovery beyond her own confines. It tackles the subject via an analysis of maps dating from circa 1434 to 1865 with an emphasis on the period before 1600. The book begins with an appraisal of the peculiar circumstances which led late medieval Europe to pursue long distance travel both overland and by sea, introduces cosmographic traditions inherited from classical times and investigates pre-Columbian excursions into the western ocean. Finally, the great voyages and mappamundi of the early sixteenth century are described in depth. After 1600, the focus begins to narrow to North America and particularly to the colonization of the American Northeast. All maps discussed in detail are illustrated. 40 full page b/w plates, 25 full page color plates.

Transition, Infinity, and Ecstasy Suresh Hariramsait, 2016-01-15 Though modern astronomers and astrophysicists like Stephen Hawking have their doubts about interstellar travel, there are countless references to interdimensional travel in mostly ancient Indian texts. The Kandha Puranam, nearly 17 million years old, mentions that the Asura Titan King Sooran ruled over 1008 universes and had vimanas or flying crafts that could in an instant travel all over space, cutting across dimensions at tremendous speed that could hover in mid-air, over water, disappear and reappear all of a sudden, and had a host of stealth weapons, even nuclear. Winter is mentioned for it is said that the entire world was enveloped in darkness caused by Sooran during the war. Lord Muruga possessed the Peacock Craft that could circumvent the 14 worlds and fly beyond in a microsecond, and his missile with the lengthy flame, Nedunchudar Vel, was voice-activated and reusable and was so powerful that it blew up into smithereens the Kraunja mountain, which even our modern-day nuclear weapons cannot do, according to scientists. The Ramayana, 17 million years old, mentions that Emperor Ravana's Pushpaka vimana, which he captured from Kubera, the Lord of riches in heaven, could host as many passengers as it takes, there were stun weapons and stealth technology. In the Mahabharata war, 3500 b.c., nuclear weapons like the brahmastra were used, and there is mention of numerous flying crafts of the Lords, Angels of Asuras, Titans, and Rakshasas, Demons who all travelled to and fro from the upper and lower worlds. The Sri Linga Purana mentions that Lord Brahma's Swan Craft flew and transcended the seven upper worlds while Lord Vishnu's Boar Craft tunneled through the seven lower worlds and went even beyond Baathala, the lowest plane, which all reminds us of blackholes being portals and shortcuts to parallel universes, which is being theoretically proved today. More than 2500 years ago, the Japanese Royal Family's ancestors met with the Sun God who landed on Mount Fuji and were presented with a sword and an orb, which are still in the Imperial Palace in Japan. The native Indians' forefathers living on Sun Island on Lake Titicaca in South America were visited by the Sun God. The Dogon tribes of Mali have a tradition that their forefathers had sailed on a great ship that flew down from Sirius, the star, but what is interesting is that they don't wear spacesuit-like gear and celebrate their homecoming.

Mike Graves,2015-03-02 Forty years ago the one thing that could be said about sermons was they were biblical Unfortunately they were sometimes tedious too Narrative preaching aimed to fix that advocating for a dynamic experience of the text over against a static lecture Preaching could be like the parables of Jesus intriguing and compelling The Story of Narrative Preaching is the story of seven students who are enrolled in Professor Freeman s preaching course Once a new trend narrative preaching is now older than most of them As Professor Freeman notes two things went wrong with narrative styles over time the church became biblically and theologically illiterate and the promised stress on experience didn t always measure up to the weight of the gospel Readers are invited to sit in on the class to reflect on the expository nature of preaching and to experience the stories of some modern storytellers Flannery O Connor Alice Walker and others to see what they might teach us about narratives of depth In the end we discover what may be the most important word in preaching Virginia Woolf - Mrs Dalloway

Michael Whitworth,2015-09-29 Virginia Woolf s Mrs Dalloway 1925 has long been recognised as one of her outstanding achievements and one of the canonical works of modernist fiction Each generation of readers has found something new within its pages which is reflected in its varying critical reception over the last ninety years As the novel concerns itself with women s place in society war and madness it was naturally interpreted differently in the ages of second wave feminism the Vietnam War and the anti psychiatry movement This has of course created a rather daunting number of different readings
