

The background of the book cover is a historical illustration of a battle scene. In the foreground, two large, black silhouettes of men in Revolutionary War-era clothing stand facing each other, holding long rifles that cross in an 'X' shape. Behind them, the scene opens up to show a battlefield with soldiers, some on horseback, and a distant figure on a hill. The overall color palette is warm, with shades of orange, yellow, and brown, suggesting a sunset or a dusty battlefield.

Begay and the Navajo Code Talkers Alysa Landry,2023-03-07 The life story of this World War II Navajo Code Talker introduces middle grade readers to an unforgettable person and offers a close perspective on aspects of Navajo or Din history and culture Thomas H Begay was one of the young Navajo men who during World War II invented and used a secret unbreakable communications code based on their native Din language to help win the war in the Pacific Although the book includes anecdotes from other code talkers its central narrative revolves around Begay. It tells his story from his birth near the Navajo reservation, his childhood spent herding sheep, his adolescence in federally mandated boarding schools, and ultimately his decision to enlist in the US Marine Corps. Alysa Landry relies heavily on interviews with Begay, who as of this writing is in his late nineties and one of only three surviving code talkers. Begay's own voice and sense of humor make this book particularly significant in that it is the only Code Talker biography for young readers told from a soldier's perspective. Begay was involved with the book every step of the way, granting Landry unlimited access to his military documents, personal photos, and oral history. Additionally, Begay's family contributed by reading and fact-checking the manuscript. This truly is a unique collaborative project. Nathan Hale Rachel A. Koestler-Grack, 2013.
