Uncanonical Women Wendy Greenberg, 2023-12-14 In English here is presented for the first time an examination of the text and context of five nineteenth century French women poets Elisa Mercoeur 1808 1835 Marceline Desbordes Valmore 1786 1859 Louisa Siefert 1845 1877 Louise Ackermann 1813 1890 and Louise Michel 1830 1905 will demonstrate that in spite of mentoring by various literary historic or even family figures these writers found their own voices A striking example is Louisa Siefert who in spite of bold intertextuality displays an unmistakably feminine persona whose originality poignantly draws the reader's attention These poets had many obstacles to overcome as women identified poets For example Louise Ackermann's own husband did not want her to write and for this reason she remained silent during her whole years of marriage Louise Michel is a different case as an analysis of the short poem Bouche close Le Livre du Baigneur 1873 1880 will demonstrate In short Uncanonical Women explores a crescendo of poetic voice from the initial timid solicitations of Elisa Mercoeur to the bold self-sufficient defiance of Louise Michel The implication of my original findings that uncanonical poets can surpass cultural marginalization is that the book will target both a traditional and modern readership Major themes and clear language and tools that delineate identifiably personal style of true writers and the poetic persona of each is unique Mercoeur in ambition Desbordes Valmore in domesticity Siefert in anguish Ackermann in pessimism and Michel in leadership

Ton aurore boréale Manon Boeglin, 2025-05-26 Il ne sait rien Il ne sait pas que chaque mot ici lui appartient A travers ces vers j'ai découvert les lumières que je n'ai jamais osé lui dire Un amour silencieux immense comme une aurore boréale qui claire sans bruit Ces poèmes sont des fragments d'un cœur qui a aimé dans l'ombre comme une toile qui brille dans la nuit Et une ode pour tous ceux qui ont aimé en silence dès le premier instant comme une évidence THE PRISONER OF

MIGRATION Sam Lingayah, 2015-03-19 The Prisoner of Migration is an autobiographical novel informed by the author's expertise on Mauritian migration The author's researches have trawled deep into the oasis of the respondents' varied colonial cultural heritages striving to explore the factors that have contributed to their paralysis of indecision This pursuit has unavoidably led him to find clarification by delving into the history of Mauritius beginning from the Dutch occupation in 1598 to the French colonisation in 1715 and the surrender of Ile de France to Britain in 1810 The analytical approach is eclectic supported by colonial documents and studies as well as information from books and news media The exposure of African slaves and Indian indentured labourers and their successors to the crucible of the melting pot of the varied cultural legacies seems to have resulted in a Mauritian population that V S Naipaul has defined as a manufactured people Notre-Dame de

Paris Victor Hugo, 1895 Ezra Pound and Poetic Influence, 2021-09-13 This collection of twenty essays investigates a series of different aspects of poetic influence in relation to the major modernist poet Ezra Pound The volume commences with five essays on matters to do with translation and poetic influence which situate Ezra Pound as an important transitional figure between 19th century and 20th century translation strategies The next five essays consider different influences on

Pound's poetry and introduce the reader to new research in a variety of areas including how specific Chinese cultural artefacts inform his poetry The following five essays explore Pound's influence on some of his major contemporaries such as Eugenio Montale and Charles Olson and also through the reading he gave her as a girl on his daughter Mary de Rachewiltz The concluding five essays exemplify different approaches to the thorny issue of Pound and politics and end with two diametrically opposed interpretations of Pound's political poetic thought The collection will be of great interest to scholars of Ezra Pound and of modern to postmodern poetry but it will also serve as a useful and lively introduction to some of the debates within Pound scholarship to students coming to his work for the first time Shadows On The Rock Willa
