foremost account of contemporary Arab debates on culture philosophy modernity tradition identity and liberation It is widely used in Middle Eastern studies courses and it has become a classic in the field of Arab intellectual history Contemporary Arab Thought now features an extensive new introduction that reconsiders post 1967 Arab intellectual history in light of the 2011 uprisings and the upheavals that have occurred over the intervening years Kassab critically reflects on the book's arguments and the responses it has provoked and she surveys the new preoccupations that have emerged in Arab debates since 2011 As crises again overtake the Middle East this landmark work continues to offer indispensable insight into the richness of contemporary Arab thought Critical Incidents in Integrating Spirituality into Counseling Tracy E.

Tasnim Qutait, 2021-04-22 This book offers an in depth engagement with the growing body of Anglophone Arab fiction in the context of theoretical debates around memory and identity Against the critical tendency to dismiss nostalgia as a sentimental trope of immigrant narratives Qutait sheds light on the creative uses to which it is put in the works of Rabih Alameddine Ahdaf Soueif Hisham Matar Leila Aboulela Randa Jarrar Rawi Hage and others Arguing for the necessity of theorising cultural memory beyond Eurocentric frameworks the book demonstrates how Arab novelists writing in English draw on nostalgia as a touchstone of Arabic literary tradition from pre Islamic poetry to the present Qutait situates Anglophone Arab fiction within contentious debates about the place of the past in the Arab world tracing how writers have deployed nostalgia as an aesthetic strategy to deal with subject matter ranging from the Islamic golden age the era of anti colonial struggle the failures of the postcolonial state and of pan Arabism and the perennial issue of the diaspora's relationship to the homeland Making a contribution to the transnational turn in memory studies while focusing on a region underrepresented in this field this book will be of interest for researchers interested in cultural memory postcolonial studies and the literatures of the Middle East Perspectives on Arabic Linguistics Mohammad T. Arab and Arab American Feminisms Rabab Abdulhadi, Evelyn Alsultany, Nadine Naber, 2011-04-05 In this collection Arab and Arab American feminists enlist their intimate experiences to challenge simplistic and long held assumptions about gender sexuality and commitments to feminism and justice centered struggles among Arab communities Contributors hail from multiple geographical sites spiritualities occupations sexualities class backgrounds and generations Poets creative writers artists scholars and activists employ a mix of genres to express feminist issues and highlight how Arab and Arab American feminist perspectives simultaneously inhabit multiple overlapping and intersecting spaces within families and communities in anticolonial and antiracist struggles in debates over spirituality and the divine within radical feminist and queer spaces in academia and on the street and among each other Contributors explore themes as diverse as the intersections between gender sexuality Orientalism racism Islamophobia and Zionism and the restoration of Arab Jews to Arab American histories This book asks how members of diasporic communities navigate their sense of belonging when the country in which they live wages wars in the lands of their ancestors Arab and Arab American Feminisms opens up new possibilities for placing grounded Arab and Arab American feminist perspectives at the center of gender studies Middle East studies American studies and ethnic studies

Teenagers, Literacy and School Ken Cruickshank, 2006-09-27 This unique and timely book follows the experiences of four Arabic teenagers their families and their community focusing on the role of literacy in their daily lives and the differences between home and school The author looks at the conflict between expectations and practices at school and in the home arguing that problems are inevitable where class and cultural differences exist Emerging themes include how literacy practices in the community are undergoing rapid change due to global developments in technology how the patterns of written and spoken language in English and Arabic in the home are linked with social practices in logical and coherent ways how many of the family practices that differ from school culture and language become marginalised Built around these insightful case studies yet grounded in theory this book is of immediate relevance to teachers working in multicultural contexts and students and lecturers in language literacy or on TESOL courses

Word Order, Agreement and Pronominalization in Standard and Palestinian Arabic Mohammad A.

Mohammad, 2000-04-15 The two related issues of word order and subject verb agreement have occupied center stage in the study of Arabic syntax since the time of Sibawayhi in the eighth century This book is a contribution to both of these areas It is grounded within the generative grammar framework in one of its most recent versions namely Minimalism as expounded in

Chomsky 1995 In this volume a detailed description is given of word order options in Modern Standard Arabic MSA and Palestinian Arabic PA It is shown that perhaps surprisingly the two varieties allow almost the same range of word orders The important question of whether Arabic has a VP is addressed the author argues extensively that Arabic has a VP category The evidence derives from examining superiority effects ECP effects binding variable interpretations etc Also discussed is the content of Spec TP in VSO sentences It is argued that the position is occupied by an expletive pronoun The author defends the Expletive Hypothesis which states that in VSO sentences the expletive may take part in checking some features of the verb A typology of the expletive pronoun in Modern Standard Arabic Palestinian Arabic Lebanese Arabic and Moroccan Arabic is provided A particularly interesting problem involving pronominal co reference is the following if the subject is the antecedent of a pronominal clitic word order is free if a pronominal is cliticized onto the subject then the antecedent must precede An account that derives these restrictions without recourse to linear order is proposed

Arabs and Muslims in the Media Evelyn Alsultany, 2012-08-20 After 9 11 there was an increase in both the incidence of hate crimes and government policies that targeted Arabs and Muslims and the proliferation of sympathetic portrayals of Arabs and Muslims in the U S media Arabs and Muslims in the Media examines this paradox and investigates the increase of sympathetic images of the enemy during the War on Terror Evelyn Alsultany explains that a new standard in racial and cultural representations emerged out of the multicultural movement of the 1990s that involves balancing a negative representation with a positive one what she refers to as simplified complex representations This has meant that if the storyline of a TV drama or film represents an Arab or Muslim as a terrorist then the storyline also includes a positive representation of an Arab Muslim Arab American or Muslim American to offset the potential stereotype Analyzing how TV dramas such as The Practice 24 Law and Order NYPD Blue and Sleeper Cell news reporting and non profit advertising have represented Arabs Muslims Arab Americans and Muslim Americans during the War on Terror this book demonstrates how more diverse representations do not in themselves solve the problem of racial stereotyping and how even seemingly positive images can produce meanings that can justify exclusion and inequality
