Celestial Sleuth Donald W. Olson, 2013-10-02 For a general audience interested in solving mysteries in art history and literature using the methods of science forensic astronomy is a thrilling new field of exploration Astronomical calculations are the basis of the studies which have the advantage of bringing to readers both evocative images and a better understanding of the skies Weather facts volcano studies topography tides historical letters and diaries famous paintings military records and the friendly assistance of experts in related fields add variety depth and interest to the work The chosen topics are selected for their wide public recognition and intrigue involving artists such as Vincent van Gogh Claude Monet Edvard Munch and Ansel Adams historical events such as the Battle of Marathon the death of Julius Caesar the American Revolution and World War II and literary authors such as Chaucer Shakespeare Joyce and Mary Shelley This book sets out to answer these mysteries indicated with the means and expertise of astronomy opening the door to a richer experience of human culture and its relationship with nature Each subject is carefully analyzed As an example using the study of sky paintings by Vincent van Gogh the analytical method would include computer calculations of historical skies above France in the 19th century finding and quoting the clues found in translations of original letters by Van Gogh making site visits to France to determine the precise locations when Van Gogh set up his easel and what celestial objects are depicted For each historical event influenced by astronomy there would be a different kind of mystery to be solved As an example How can the phase of the Moon and time of moonrise help to explain a turning point of the American Civil War the fatal wounding of Stonewall Jackson at Chancellorsville in 1863 For each literary reference to astronomy it was determined which celestial objects were being described and making an argument that the author is describing an actual event For example what was the date of the moonlit scene when Mary Shelley first had the idea for her novel Frankenstein These and more fun riddles will enchant and delight the fan of art and astronomy

OLD SNOW Ross Wilson, 2016-02-08 Detective Inspector Harker is a man on a mission to find the serial killer of innocent young girls before yet another victim is discovered The killer is also a man on a mission to add to the macabre tally of sacrifices to his celestial lord Uriel A religious maniac is loose in society and it s Harker s job to find him The trouble is the mad killer is clever very clever and in this darkly disturbing thriller the reader is taken on an unforgettable journey through the twists and turns of an investigation which seems to be getting nowhere until a vital telephone call to a taxi company leads to a violent climax URIEL ARCHANGEL OF PURITY The world is corruptible flawed and discordant We must scour it of its imperfections returning it to its former state of glory Dyslexia-Successful

Inclusion in the Secondary School Lindsay Peer, Gavin Reid, 2012-10-12 Increasingly dyslexia is becoming a whole school issue The responsibility for addressing the needs of dyslexic students no longer rests with one individual but is the responsibility of all school staff subject specialists and school management This timely book addresses this need by providing specific guidance to secondary school staff on how to support dyslexic students within different subject areas and within the principles and practices of inclusion The Red House Mark Haddon, 2012-06-12 The novel's pleasure there in spades lies in Haddon's caustic wit, his pitch-perfect nailing of each of his characters and in his absurdly concise descriptions of the most banal activities. In providing it, Haddon proves himself once again to be a brilliant modern observer and cataloguer of human vice and frailty. National Post The setup of Mark Haddon's brilliant new novel is simple: Richard, a wealthy doctor, invites his estranged sister Angela and her family to join his for a week at a vacation home in the English countryside. Richard has just remarried and acquired a willful stepdaughter in the process. Angela has a feckless husband and three children who sometimes seem alien to her. All eight arrive with low expectations for a pleasant holiday. But because of Haddon's extraordinary narrative technique, the stories of these eight people are anything but familiar. Told through the alternating viewpoints of each character, The Red House becomes a symphony of long-held grudges, fading dreams, and rising hopes, tightly guarded secrets, and illicit desires, all adding up to a portrait of contemporary family life that is bittersweet, comic, and deeply felt.

Further Adventures of the Celestial Sleuth Donald W. Olson, 2018-01-31 From the author of Celestial Sleuth 2014, yet more mysteries in art history and literature are solved by calculating phases of the Moon, determining the positions of the planets and stars, and identifying celestial objects in paintings. In addition to helping to crack difficult cases, these studies spark our imagination and provide a better understanding of the skies. Weather archives, vintage maps, tides, historical letters and diaries, military records, and the assistance of experts in related fields help with this work. For each historical event influenced by astronomy, there is a different kind of mystery to be solved: How did the changing tides affect an army's battle plans? How did the phases of the moon affect how an artist painted a landscape? Follow these exciting investigations with a master celestial sleuth as he tracks down the truth and helps unravel mysteries as far back as the Middle Ages and as recent as the iconic 1945 photograph of a kiss in Times Square on VJ Day. Topics or cases pursued were chosen for their wide public recognition and intrigue and involve artists such as Vincent van Gogh and Claude Monet, historical events such as the campaigns of Braveheart in Scotland and battles in World War II and the Korean War, and literary authors such as Chaucer, Cervantes, Shakespeare, Byron, and Edgar Allan Poe.
