Making Cents Of It All

1776
Americans create their own currency — the Continental Currency — but the notes failed.

1862
The Bureau of Engraving and Printing (BEP) creates the first currency issued by the government.

1863
Fractional currency notes are issued in denominations of 1-, 10-, 25 and 50 cents.

1877
The BEP becomes the sole producer of all U.S. currency.

1886
Martha Washington appears on the $1 silver certificate, the first woman to do so.

1929
Paper money reduces in size from 3.4x6.5 inches to 2.4x6.5 inches.

1934
The largest bill ever issued, the $10,000 Federal Reserve Note, is never circulated.

1991
BEP adds micro printing and transverse security threads to counterfeiting.

1996
BEP rolls out the biggest redesign since 1929. New watermark, a universal Federal Reserve seal, and new security.

2013
The $100 note gets a redesign and introduces two advanced security features: the 3-D Security Ribbon and the Bell in the Inkwell.

1792
The United States Mint opens its doors. Original gold coins included $10-, $5 and $2.50.

1793
The Mint's first delivery of coins consists of 11,778 copper cents.

1793-1857
The Mint produces half-cent coins.

1796
The motto "E Pluribus Unum" meaning "One Out of Many" and a reference to the unity of states, is first used on U.S. coinage.

1864
The motto "In God We Trust" is minted. The motto has been required by law for paper money since 1893.

1875-1878
The second piece appears in circulation.

1892
The first U.S. commemorative coin is the half dollar featuring Christopher Columbus.

1909
The Lincoln cent is issued to commemorate the 100th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth. It is the only circulating coin with a right-facing portrait.

1932
George Washington is chosen to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the first president's birth.

1938
Ted Sullag wins a $1,000 prize for designing the portrait of Thomas Jefferson and Monticello on the front and back of the nickel.

1943
Due to a WWII shortage, zinc-coated steel replaces copper in pennies.

1946
Just a year after his death, Franklin D. Roosevelt makes it onto the dime.

1946-1951
George Washington is the first African American to appear on a memorial half dollar.

1964
Kennedy half-dollars are minted, less than a month after his assassination.

1979, 2000, 2009
Susan B. Anthony (1979), Sacagawea (2000) and Helen Keller (2009) are the only women ever featured on a circulating coin.

with such naked short term ambition and a ruthlessness to succeed that sent shockwaves through the previously stagnant world of English football The new owner s ruthless streak was personified by his first major move sacking the popular Johnny Carey in the back of a London taxi in April 1961 Everton would finish that 1960 61 season in fifth place their highest position since World War Two but the Irishman s affable nature cost him his job In his place Moores wanted a man in his own image to lead the club forward and he soon found him Harry Catterick Catterick was little over 40 years old and had been an Everton player himself only ten years before But as a boss he exuded an aura that demanded respect and obedience from his players It was a characteristic that won him few fans but plenty of trophies and across the decade Everton reasserted themselves as one of English football s powerhouses winning two league titles and an FA Cup Catterick s ability to nurture young products of the club s youth set up such as Colin Harvey and Joe Royle was trumped only by his mastery of the transfer market allowing him to sign the great Howard Kendall from Preston North End and World Cup winner Alan Ball from under his rivals noses Harvey Kendall and Ball would soon form the club s greatest midfield trio and their brilliance would underpin the 1969 70 title win a victory for free flowing football in an era of cynicism That trophy would be Everton s last major honour for 14 years In Money Can t Buy Us Love Everton s official statistician Gavin Buckland tells the tale of how Moores and manager Harry Catterick took the so called Mersey Millionaires to the summit of English football in the context of the major cultural changes of the time The book provides a forensic character study of both Catterick and Moores and also delves into the archives to provide a definitive account of the incidents that rocked the club in a fruitful but turbulent decade including allegations of doping in the 1962 63 campaign the 1964 match fixing scandal which signalled the end of Tony Kay s career and the shock sale of Alan Ball Money Can t Buy Us Love offers fascinating insight into how strong personalities can take a team to the very top but can also cause in its ultimate downfall
