Monitoring the EU Accession Process EU Accession Monitoring Program,Open Society Institute (Budapest, Hungary),2002 Eumpa has published monitoring reports highlighting specific areas in which state performance conforms to or falls short of broadly accepted international standards These two volumes monitor access to education and employment for people with intellectual disabilities in 15 European countries and make recommendations on how people with intellectual disabilities can be more fully integrated into community life The summary report is a condensed version of the two full volumes Monitoring the EU Accession Process ,2002 Gender equality permeates all areas of action in the European Union enlargement process Although in principle gender equality has been achieved in all EU candidate countries women have not yet practically benefited from this equality since institutional mechanisms for implementation are missing This book contains the findings of the extensive investigation conducted in the frames of the EU Accession Program of the Open Society Institute Budapest in eight candidate countries to the EU The survey was focussed on the national legal and institutional framework on equal rights and equal treatment for women and men Independent experts and non governmental organisations prepared the country studies on Bulgaria Czech Republic Estonia Hungary Lithuania Poland Romania and Slovakia The country reports are introduced by a summary report that provides an overall assessment of progress in meeting the relevant criteria and of the impact of the accession process in this area The study concludes with succinct recommendations to the EU and to the governments of the candidate states Monitoring the EU Accession Process: Assessment of selected policies in candidate states EU Accession Monitoring Program,2002 Monitoring the EU Accession Process EU Accession Monitoring Program,2001 Minority protection in Latvia The System Made Me Do it Rasma Karklins,2016-07-01 Strike up a conversation with a citizen from the post communist region and invariably the talk will turn to the topic of corruption the misuse of public power for private gain People are sure that corruption is widespread whether from their own experiences or stories they have heard from others They feel frustrated that there seems to be nothing they can do about it that they are helpless and that they are being played for fools And many are cynical they feel that they too have to play the game because the system compels them to do so But what system exactly What are the structures and mechanisms of corruption in post communist societies The System Made Me Do It is the first comprehensive study of the origin nature and consequences of corruption in post communist societies While international actors decry corruption as a major impediment to democracy building and economic development the problem is not well understood This book fills that gap and suggests innovative and practical institutional strategies for containing corruption It achieves a rare and perfect balance of disciplined analysis practicality and passion Monitoring the EU accession process ,2002 European Yearbook of Minority Issues European Centre for Minority Issues Staff,2004 The European Yearbook of Minority Issues provides a critical and timely review of contemporary developments in minority majority relations in Europe It combines analysis commentary and documentation in relation to conflict management international legal developments and domestic legislation affecting minorities in Europe Part I contains scholarly articles and in 2002 3 features two special focus sections Belgium and New Minorities accompanied by a miscellaneous articles section Part II reviews the implementation of minority legislation and international standards at the universal and regional levels as well as new developments in relation to them and contains a list of international norms Apart from providing a unique annual overview of minority issues for both scholars and practitioners in this field the Yearbook will be an indispensable reference tool for libraries research institutes as well as governments and international organisations The Impact of EU Law on Minority Rights Tawhida Ahmed,2011-01-12 This book provides a critical evaluation of the ways in which EU law engages with minority rights protection at its core is an analysis of EU law and minority rights Unlike the UN or ECHR the EU has no competence to set standards on minority protection and this has been a point of disappointment for minority rights advocates Indeed this book will demonstrate that in EU law binding standards really only exist in the sphere of non discrimination and are at their strongest in the field of employment As such binding standards within EU law affect only a small proportion of the canon of minority rights However the EU does have competence to promote diversity and facilitate redistribution of power and resources across the EU According to a broad understanding of minority rights protection acts of promotion and facilitation alongside those of standard setting constitute essential underpinnings for minority protection The EU s existing competences do therefore play a key role in minority protection In order to support these conclusions the book undertakes a comprehensive examination of the impact of EU law on minority rights protection The book examines a broad range of the EU s legal provisions and principles which may affect minority protection before undertaking in depth analyses of the examples of minority cultural rights and minority linguistic rights In addition the final substantive chapter of the book contextualises the impact of EU law within the perspective of the overall needs of a specific group the Roma minority The concluding chapter draws together the EU s contribution to minority rights In short the EU can be seen as a promoter but not a protector of minority rights Although not ideal especially from the perspective of minorities it is worth at least exploring such a view Such an exploration would enable the EU most easily to build upon its existing competences and regulatory capacities This book will be of interest to lawyers and activists concerned with minority rights and Roma rights protection within the EU It will also be of relevance to those interested in understanding the dynamics between the EU and the international law community in overlapping areas of rights protection and exploring how this informs our perception of the capacity of the EU to be a central actor in the field of rights protection Roma in Europe Ioana Bunesu,2016-04-08 This path breaking book explains the processes through which the heterogeneous population of Roma in Europe constitutes itself into a transnational collective identity through the practices and discourses of everyday life as well as through those of identity politics. It illustrates how the collective identity formation of the Roma in Europe is constituted simultaneously in the local national and European contexts drawing attention to the mismatches and gaps between these levels as well as the creative opportunities for achieving this political aim. Bunescu demonstrates that the differences and stereotypes between the Roma and the non Roma as well as those among different groups of Roma fulfil a politically creative function for the constitution of a unified transnational collective identity for the Roma in Europe. The book is unique comprising chapters ranging from local ethnographic accounts of inter ethnic relations of rural Roma in a Transylvanian village to interviews with international Roma political activists controversial Roma kings and an extensive chapter on their role of bridging the local and the higher levels of identity politics visual depictions of a diversity of Roma living spaces and interpretations of the politics of space in private dwellings as well as in public venues such as at Roma international festivals.

Institutions for the Management of Ethnopolitical Conflict in Central and Eastern Europe European Centre for Minority Issues, Council of Europe, 2008-01-01. Once considered an exclusively internal affair international organisations have over the last few decades become increasingly involved in the management of ethnopolitical conflicts and have been active in attempts to prevent and or resolve them. This book presents a series of studies covering the work of eight different organisations active in central and eastern Europe the Organization for Security and Co operation in Europe its High Commissioner on National Minorities the North Atlantic Treaty Organization the United Nations Development Programme and Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs the Council of Europe the European Union the Stability Pact for South Eastern Europe and the World Bank. A further chapter considers the role of non governmental organisations. The studies consider the varying approaches adopted by these institutions and illustrate the ways in which these differ from and complement one another. The assessment covers both the preventive and reactive sides of conflict management and provides valuable lessons for similar activities in the future both in the region and beyond.

The State of Democracy in Central and Eastern Europe Ramona Coman, Luca Tomini, 2017-10-02. The State of Democracy in Central and Eastern Europe brings together scholars specialising in the study of Central and Eastern Europe and provides a comprehensive analysis of some of the major issues in the democratic make up of the EU's new member states. The book covers the main dimensions of the state and contributors discuss questions about the development of democracy in Central and Eastern Europe over the past twenty years. What is the present state of democracy in Central and Eastern Europe more than twenty years since the end of communist regimes? What is the actual functioning of the political institutions of these countries? How is political participation structured and what role do political parties play in these democracies? What guarantees are provided to limit governmental powers and abuse? What is the role of the judicial system and the relationship between justice and politics? How can we evaluate the EU's influence regarding democratic consolidation What is the role of the public opinion This book was originally published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies EU Anti-corruption Efforts in the Eastern Neighbourhood Mihai-Razvan Corman, 2024-12-02 In EU Anti Corruption Efforts in the Eastern Neighbourhood Mihai Razvan Corman provides a fresh and original legal analysis of the EU s capability to tackle this complex and multi faceted phenomenon beyond its borders Key legal instruments and mechanisms from the external dimension are examined and contrasted to the EU s anti corruption arsenal towards Member States Special attention is dedicated to the EU s anti corruption capability in the areas of organized and cross border crime public procurement and political party financing In particular this book focuses on the implications of the EU s internal capability for its external efforts It also explores to what extent there is a gap between the EU s high ambitions of tackling corruption in the Eastern Neighbourhood and its actual legal capability While EU anti corruption efforts in Moldova serve as a crucial case study its engagement in the other candidate countries from the EaP is also incorporated in the analysis

International Influence Beyond Conditionality Rachel A. Epstein, Ulrich Sedelmeier, 2013-09-13 The European Union s EU membership conditionality has been perceived as a highly effective means of influence on non member states in the run up to the 2004 and 2007 enlargements According to the incentive based explanation that dominates the literature conditionality has been particularly effective when the EU offered a credible membership incentive and when governments did not consider the domestic costs of compliance threatening to their hold on power This volume challenges much of the existing work on EU enlargement and postcommunist transition however by testing the conditionality thesis in the post accession setting Whereas a conditionality hypothesis would predict deteriorating compliance among the newest member states several contributions here actually find the opposite Enduring compliance among postcommunist states with the acquis as well as with less formally institutionalized EU preferences for economic liberalization and minority protection calls into question the role that conditionality plays in eliciting conformity Simultaneously support for the conditionality hypothesis in areas such as political party development and EU relations with Turkey and the western Balkans suggests conditionality s effects vary across countries and issues As the first study to systematically examine the relationship between international institutions and postcommunist states after enlargement this volume provides new insights into how external actors exercise their power in domestic politics This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of European Public Policy Representing Race John D H Downing, Charles Husband, 2005-02-01 Well informed thoughtful and transnational in its perspectives Downing and Husband s work is likely to become the key text in the field The book is essential reading for anyone interested in the politics of race and representation Professor Daya K Thussu University of Westminster The media play a diverse and significant role in the practical expression of racism and in the everyday politics of ethnicity Written by two veterans of research on media and race this book offers a fresh comparative analyses of the issues and sets out the key agendas for future study Representing Race Racisms Ethnicities and Media Provides a conceptual framework for understanding the role of the media

Addresses a number of pressing political concerns including racial justice and the drift to the Right Includes a wide range of examples from Britain the USA Europe and Australia Analyzes the growth of indigenous people s media Assesses current strategies for reforming professional media practice in this sphere Drawing on years of research this book provides both a major intervention in the debate as well as a comprehensive introduction to the area It will be required reading for anyone interested in race representation and the media Law and Governance in an Enlarged European Union George A.

Bermann,Katharina Pistor,2004-11-10 This book s principal aim is to critically address the institutional and substantive legal issues resulting from European enlargement chiefly those relating to the legal foundations on which the enlarged Union is being built The accession of new Member States creates the potential for a stronger and more powerful Europe Realising this potential however will depend on the ability of the EU to develop functional and effective governance structures both at the European level and at the level of the individual Member States While the acquis communautaire will ensure that formal laws in the new Member States will be aligned with those of existing members the question remains as to how effective institutions will be in implementing changes and what effects the imposed changes will have on the legitimacy of the new legal framework This book containing the work of leading scholars in law and social sciences examines the current and future legal framework for EU governance and the role that new members will or will not play in the creation of that framework paying particular attention to the specific challenges membership in the EU poses to the acceding states of Central and Eastern Europe It is a book which will contribute to and influence debates over constitutionalism and legal harmonisation in the EU Social Equity in the Public Administration Classroom Michaela E. Abbott,Bruce D.

McDonald III,William Hatcher,2023-05-22 This compelling book explores the dimensions of social equity by asking the leading equity scholars to reflect on the responsibility for social equity and how equity can be achieved Social equity is concerned with fairness in the development and administration of public policies Despite its importance there has always been an uneasiness in how equity is discussed and obtained While we acknowledge that social equity is important we have struggled in our efforts to achieve it The inequities in our society and the lack of a concerted effort to address the problems have only become prominent due to the COVID 19 Pandemic and the Black Lives Matter Movement Each of the chapters in this volume pays particular attention to how social equity can be effectively incorporated into the classroom This book is a rare opportunity to shape the conversation about social equity and provide a venue for dialogue around the questions of what why and how we teach about equity This book is an insightful resource for researchers and scholars of Politics and Public Administration The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Public Affairs Education Minority Rights in Europe Patrick Thornberry,María Amor Martín Estébanez,Council of Europe,2004-01-01 This publication discusses the main standards and mechanisms created by the Council of Europe and other international organisations to protect the rights of minorities in Europe including key legal instruments such as the European Convention on Human Rights the Framework Convention for the Protection of National Minorities and the European Charter for Regional and Minority Languages It reviews the monitoring activities in various Council of Europe member and non member states both prior to their accession and in their post accession phase The publication also includes a detailed examination of the case of the Roma Gypsies a specific minority without a kin state
