Monsieur Teste:

Collected Works of Paul Valéry, Volume 6 Paul Valéry, 1989-07-21 Although not autobiographical in any usual sense Valéry's novel is profoundly personal Monsieur Teste reflects Valéry's preoccupation with the phenomenon of a mind detached from sensibility yet he is also an ordinary fictional character This volume includes Snapshots of Monsieur Teste excerpts from Valéry's Cahiers The Collected Works of Paul Valéry Paul Valéry, 1973 Mimesis and Theory René Girard, Robert Doran, 2008 Mimesis and Theory brings together twenty previously uncollected essays on literature and literary theory by one of the most important thinkers of the past thirty years Skepticism and Impersonality in Modern Poetry V. Joshua Adams, 2025-06-12 Modern literature is often described in terms of its impersonality What is the significance of this fact In Skepticism and Impersonality V Joshua Adams follows the history of impersonality in modern poetry from Mallarmé and Eliot through to the present engaging with work by major poets and critics but also contemporary philosophers Rather than seeing impersonality exclusively as a literary historical phenomenon Adams argues that we should understand it as an attempt to address skeptical problems arising from the limitations of first person experience Defending impersonality as a response to skeptical problems including doubts about the publicity of our experiences our knowledge of other minds the capacity of our language to describe the world the relationship between mind and body and the fictionality and continuity of our sense of self Adams analyzes what he calls experiments in impersonality as means of working through skeptical doubt The writers discussed transform this doubt into art whilst also ironizing it as corrosive and self defeating Ultimately this leads Adams to reinterpret literary impersonality as a therapeutic philosophical project Skepticism and Impersonality promises a new theoretical justification for our practical interest in literary texts to renovate our conception of how those texts might do philosophical work and to expand our sense of what a philosophical poem can be An Evening with Monsieur Teste Paul Valéry, 1936 Unselfing Michaela Hulstyn, 2022-08-31 Altered states of consciousness including experiences of deprivation pain hallucination fear desire alienation and spiritual transcendence can transform the ordinary experience of selfhood Unselfing explores the nature of disruptive self experiences and the different shapes they have taken in literary writing The book focuses on the tension between rival conceptions of unselfing as either a form of productive self transcendence or a form of alienating self loss Michaela Hulstyn explores the shapes and meanings of unselfing through the framework of the global French literary world encompassing texts by modernist figures in France and Belgium alongside writers from Algeria Rwanda and Morocco Together these diverse texts prompt a re evaluation of the consequences of the loss or the transcendence of the self Through a series of close readings Hulstyn offers a new account of the ethical questions raised by altered states and shows how philosophies of empathy can be tested against and often challenged by literary works Drawing on cognitive science and phenomenology Unselfing provides a new methodology for approaching texts that give shape to the fringes of conscious experience Death in Quotation Marks Svetlana Boym, 1991 Preface to Monsieur

Teste by Paul Valéry Marianne Moore,1985 The Beast and the Sovereign, Volume I Jacques Derrida,2010-12-15 When he died in 2004 Jacques Derrida left behind a vast legacy of unpublished material much of it in the form of written lectures With The Beast and the Sovereign Volume 1 the University of Chicago Press inaugurates an ambitious series edited by Geoffrey Bennington and Peggy Kamuf translating these important works into English The Beast and the Sovereign Volume 1 launches the series with Derrida's exploration of the persistent association of bestiality or animality with sovereignty In this seminar from 2001-2002 Derrida continues his deconstruction of the traditional determinations of the human The beast and the sovereign are connected he contends because neither animals nor kings are subject to the law the sovereign stands above it while the beast falls outside the law from below He then traces this association through an astonishing array of texts including La Fontaine's fable The Wolf and the Lamb Hobbes's biblical sea monster in Leviathan D.H. Lawrence's poem Snake Machiavelli's Prince with its elaborate comparison of princes and foxes a historical account of Louis XIV attending an elephant autopsy and Rousseau's evocation of werewolves in The Social Contract Deleuze, Lacan and Agamben also come into critical play as Derrida focuses in on questions of force, right, justice and philosophical interpretations of the limits between man and animal

Disarming Intelligence Zakir Paul,2024-08-13 A critical account of the idea of intelligence in modern French literature and thought In the late nineteenth century psychologists and philosophers became intensely interested in the possibility of quantifying, measuring and evaluating intelligence and using it to separate and compare individuals Disarming Intelligence analyzes how this polyvalent term was consolidated and contested in competing discourses from fin de siècle psychology and philosophy to literature criticism and cultural polemics around the First World War Zakir Paul examines how Marcel Proust, Henri Bergson, Paul Valéry and the critics of the influential Nouvelle revue française registered, negotiated and subtly countered the ways intelligence was invoked across the political and aesthetic spectrum For these writers intelligence fluctuates between an individual sovereign faculty for analyzing the world and something collective, accidental and contingent Disarming Intelligence shows how literary and critical styles questioned, suspended and reimagined what intelligence could be by bringing elements of uncertainty and potentiality into its horizon The book also explores interwar political tensions from the extreme right to Walter Benjamin's engaged essays on contemporary French writers Finally a brief coda recasts current debates about artificial intelligence by comparing them to these earlier crises of intelligence By drawing together and untangling competing conceptions of intelligence Disarming Intelligence exposes its mercurial but influential and urgent role in literary and cultural politics

Literary History, Modernism, and Postmodernism Douwe Wessel Fokkema,1984-01-01 In these lectures delivered at Harvard University in March 1983 the differences between Modernism and Postmodernism are discussed in semiotic terms based on a contrastive analysis of semantic and syntactical compositional features They present the major results of research into the literary conventions of Modernism Gide, Larbaud, Woolf, du Perron, Thomas Mann and the innovations of Postmodernism Borges, Fuentes, Barthelme

Calvino Hermans The investigation of innovation in literary history is based on a concept of literary evolution launched by the Russian Formalists and elaborated by reception theory and semioticians such as Lotman and Eco The author argues for further corroboration by means of empirical textual as well as psychological research Liquidation World Alexi

Kukuljevic,2017-09-15 An examination of the disoriented subject of modernity a dissolute figure who makes an makes an object of its absence from Baudelaire to Broodthaers In Liquidation World Alexi Kukuljevic examines a distinctive form of subjectivity animating the avant garde that of the darkly humorous and utterly disoriented subject of modernity a dissolute figure that makes an art of its own vacancy an object of its absence Shorn of the truly rotten illusion that the world is a fulfilling and meaningful place these subjects identify themselves by a paradoxical disidentification through the objects that take their places They have mastered the art of living absently of making something with nothing Traversing their own morbid obsessions they substitute the nonsensical for sense the ridiculous for the meaningful Kukuljevic analyzes a series of artistic practices that illuminate this subjectivity ranging from Marcel Duchamp's Three Standard Stoppages to Charles Baudelaire's melancholia He considers the paradox of Duchamp's apparatus in the Stoppages and the strange comedy of Marcel Broodthaers's relation to the readymade the comic subject in Jacques Vach and the ridiculous subject in Alfred Jarry the nihilist in Paul Valéry's Monsieur Teste Oswald Wiener's interpretation of the dandy and Charles Baudelaire as a happy melancholic Along the way he also touches on the work of Thomas Bernhard Andy Kaufman Buster Keaton and others Finally he offers an extended analysis of Danny's escape from his demented father in Stanley Kubrick's The Shining Each of these subjects is in Freud's terms sick sick in the specific sense that they assume the absence of meaning and the liquidation of value in the world They concern themselves with art without assuming its value or meaning Utterly debased fundamentally disoriented they take the void as their medium Merleau-Ponty's Poetic of the World Galen A. Johnson, Mauro

Carbone, Emmanuel de Saint Aubert,2020-08-04 Merleau Ponty has long been known as one of the most important philosophers of aesthetics yet most discussions of his aesthetics focus on visual art This book corrects that balance by turning to Merleau Ponty's extensive engagement with literature From Proust Merleau Ponty developed his conception of sensible ideas from Claudel his conjoining of birth and knowledge as co naissance from Valéry came implex or the animal of words and the chiasma of two destinies Literature also provokes the questions of expression metaphor and truth and the meaning of a Merleau Pontian poetics The poetic of Merleau Ponty is the book argues a poetic of the flesh a poetic of mystery and a poetic of the visible in its relation to the invisible Ultimately theoretical figures or figuratives that appear at the threshold between philosophy and literature enable the possibility of a new ontology What is at stake is the very meaning of philosophy itself and its mode of expression Monsieur Teste in America & Other Instances of Realism Andrei Codrescu,1987 Selected

Thomas Bernhard Gitta Honegger, 2001-01-01 Thomas Bernhard 1931 1989 a literary figure of international acclaim and arguably Austria's greatest post World War II writer became the first of his generation to expose unrelentingly his country's pathological denial of complicity in the Holocaust Bernhard's writings and indeed his own biography reflect Austria's fraught efforts to define itself as a nation following the collapse of the Habsburg monarchy and the trauma of World War II Repeatedly he scandalized the nation with novels plays and public statements that exposed the convoluted ways Austrians were attempting to come to terms with their Nazi past or defiantly avoiding doing so This book the first comprehensive biography of Thomas Bernhard in English examines his life and work and their intricate relationship to Austria's geographical political and cultural transformations in the twentieth century While Bernhard was the scourge of his native culture Honegger explains he was also a product of that same culture Appreciation of his controversial impact on his society is possible only through an understanding of the contradictions the shame and the achievements that mark Austrians self perception in the postwar years Honegger shows that for Bernhard the theater was not only a profession but also a paradigm for his life and that performance was the primary force animating his writing and self construction Even after his death Bernhard's carefully constructed biography continues to fascinate shock and expose the Austrian culture at large

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
