others emerge from Narayan's absorbing tales about food and the solemn and quirky customs that surround it Edible Archives: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Food, Culture and Identity. Dr. Mahendran Maniam, Dr. Karthiga SV, 2025-03-27

Edible Archives: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Food Culture and Identity explores the profound connections between food culture and literature across diverse contexts. This anthology brings together scholarly essays that examine how culinary practices shape identity, memory, resistance, and tradition. Covering themes such as food rituals, sustainable practices, diaspora, and mythical recipes, the volume offers a multidisciplinary lens on food narratives. It highlights the role of food in literature, media, and oral traditions, emphasizing its power as a cultural archive. This collection is an essential resource for scholars in food studies, cultural studies, and literary criticism. Through these chapters, readers gain fresh insights into the social, historical, and symbolic significance of food in human experience. Diasporic Tastescapes Paula Torreiro Pazo, 2016

Diasporic Tastescapes seeks to explore the culinary metaphors present in a selection of Asian American narratives written by a variety of contemporary authors. The intricate web of culinary motifs featured in these texts offers a fertile ground for the study of the real and imaginary histories of the Asian American community, an ethnic minority that has been persistently racialized through its eating habits. Thus, this book examines those literary contexts in which the presence of food images becomes especially meaningful as an indicator of the nostalgia of the immigrant, the sense of community of the diasporic family, the clash between generations, and the shocks of arrival and return. The reading of Asian American edible metaphors from these perspectives will prove particularly revealing in relation to the notions of home, identity, and belonging, all of them mainstays of the diasporic consciousness. Series: Contributions to Asian American Literary Studies Vol 8 Subject: Asian American Literature Literary Criticism Salman Rushdie in the Cultural Marketplace Ana Cristina

Mendes, 2016-03-23 Taking up the roles that Salman Rushdie himself has assumed as a cultural broker, gatekeeper, and mediator in various spheres of public production, Ana Cristina Mendes situates his work in terms of the contemporary production, circulation, and consumption of postcolonial texts within the workings of the cultural industries. Mendes pays particular attention to Rushdie as a public performer across various creative platforms, not only as a novelist and short story writer but also as a public intellectual, reviewer, and film critic. Mendes argues that how a postcolonial author becomes personally and professionally enmeshed in the dealings of the cultural industries is of particular relevance at a time when the market is strictly regulated by a few multinational corporations. She contends that marginality should not be construed exclusively as a basis for understanding Rushdie's work, since a critical grounding in marginality will predictably involve a reproduction of the traditional postcolonial binaries of oppressor/oppressed and colonizer/colonized, that the writer subverts. Rather, she seeks to expand existing interpretations of Rushdie's work, itineraries, and frameworks in order to take into account the actual conditions of postcolonial cultural production and circulation within a marketplace that is global in both orientation and effects. Will Write for Food Dianne Jacob, 2015-07-14 The go-to soup-to-nuts guide on how to really make Ethnicity and Kinship in North American and European Literatures Silvia Schultermandl, Klaus Rieser, 2021-03-17 This edited collection applies kinship as an analytical concept to better understand the affective economies discursive practices and aesthetic dimensions through which cultural narratives of belonging establish a sense of intimacy and affiliation In North American and European ethnic literatures kinship has several social functions negotiating diasporic belonging in and outside of the perimeters of bloodlines and genealogy positioning queer feminist interventions to counter ethno nationalist narratives of belonging challenging liberal sentimentalist narratives such as those grafted onto the bodies of transnational adoptees re formulating cultural heterogeneity through interracial and interethnic kinship constellations outside either post racial assumptions about colorblindness or celebrations of racial and ethnic pluralism In all of these cases kinship features as a common theme through which contemporary authors attend to challenges of conscribing individuals into inclusive counter hegemonic cultural narratives of belonging      Culinary Linguistics Cornelia Gerhardt, Maximiliane Frobenius, Susanne Ley, 2013-07-04 Language and food are universal to humankind Language accomplishes more than a pure exchange of information and food caters for more than mere subsistence Both represent crucial sites for socialization identity construction and the everyday fabrication and perception of the world as a meaningful orderly place This volume on Culinary Linguistics contains an introduction to the study of food and an extensive overview of the literature focusing on its role in interplay with language It is the only publication fathoming the field of food and food related studies from a linguistic perspective The research articles assembled here encompass a number of linguistic fields ranging from historical and ethnographic approaches to literary studies the teaching of English as a foreign language psycholinguistics and the study of computer mediated communication making this volume compulsory reading for anyone interested in genres of food discourse and the linguistic connection between food and culture Now Open Access as part of the Knowledge Unlatched 2017 Backlist Collection      Ethnic American Literatures and Critical Race Narratology Alexa Weik von Mossner, Marijana Mikić, Mario Grill, 2022-06-16 Ethnic American Literatures and Critical Race Narratology explores the relationship between narrative race and ethnicity in the United States Situated at the intersection of post classical narratology and context oriented approaches in race ethnic and cultural studies the contributions to this edited volume interrogate the complex and varied ways in which ethnic American authors use narrative form to engage readers in issues related to race and ethnicity along with other important identity markers such as class religion gender and sexuality Importantly the book also explores how paying attention to the formal features of ethnic American literatures changes our understanding of narrative theory and how narrative theories can help us to think about author functions and race The international and diverse group of contributors includes top scholars in narrative theory and in race and ethnic studies and the texts they analyze concern a wide variety of topics from the representation of time and space to the narration of trauma and other deeply emotional memories to the importance of literary paratexts genre structures and author functions      Food in Time and Place Paul Freedman, Joyce E. Chaplin, Ken Albala, 2014-11-24 Food and cuisine are important subjects for historians across many areas of study Food after all is one of the most basic human needs and a foundational part of social and cultural histories Such topics as famines food supply nutrition and public health are addressed by historians specializing in every era and every nation Food in Time and Place delivers an unprecedented review of the state of historical research on food endorsed by the American Historical Association providing readers with a geographically chronologically and topically broad understanding of food cultures from ancient Mediterranean and medieval societies to France and its domination of haute cuisine Teachers students and scholars in food history will appreciate coverage of different thematic concerns such as transfers of crops conquest colonization immigration and modern forms of globalization      Read My Plate Deborah R. Geis, 2019-05-29

Whether perusing a recipe or learning what a literary character eats readers approach a text differently when reading about food. Read My Plate: The Literature of Food explores what narrators and characters in fiction in performance and in the popular genre of the food memoir cook and eat. Beat poet Allen Ginsberg the inmates of the Terezin concentration camp performance artist Karen Finley novelist Jhumpa Lahiri playwright Suzan Lori Parks and the celebrated chef turned travel journalist Anthony Bourdain are just a few examples of the writers whose works are discussed. Close readings of the literal and figurative plates in these texts allow a unique form of intimate access to the speakers feelings and memories and help readers to understand more about how the dynamics of race ethnicity gender religion and social class affect what the narrators characters eat from tourtière to collard greens to a school lunch bento box.

The Penguin Book of Migration Literature Dohra Ahmad, 2019-09-17 Ahmad's introduction is fiery and charismatic. This book encompasses the diversity of experience with beautiful variations and stories that bicker back and forth. Parul Sehgal, The New York Times. The first global anthology of migration literature featuring works by Mohsin Hamid Zadie Smith Marjane Satrapi Salman Rushdie and Warsan Shire with a foreword by Edwidge Danticat author of Everything Inside. A Penguin Classic. Every year three to four million people move to a new country. From war refugees to corporate expats migrants constantly reshape their places of origin and arrival. This selection of works collected together for the first time brings together the most compelling literary depictions of migration. Organized in four parts: Departures Arrivals Generations and Returns. The Penguin Book of Migration Literature conveys the intricacy of worldwide migration patterns the diversity of immigrant experiences and the commonalities among many of those diverse experiences. Ranging widely across the eighteenth through twenty-first centuries across every continent of the earth and across multiple literary genres the anthology gives readers an understanding of our rapidly changing world through the eyes of those at the center of that change. With thirty carefully selected poems short stories and excerpts spanning three hundred years and twenty-five countries the collection brings together luminaries emerging writers and others who have earned a wide following in their home countries but have been less recognized in the Anglophone world. Editor of the volume Dohra Ahmad provides a contextual introduction notes and suggestions for further exploration.

The Culinary Imagination: From Myth to Modernity Sandra M. Gilbert, 2014-08-25. From the recipe novel to the celebrity chef renowned scholar Sandra M. Gilbert explores the poetics and politics of food. In this stunning and important work the prominent critic poet and memoirist Sandra M. Gilbert explores our relationship with food and eating through discussions of literature art and popular culture. Focusing on contemporary practices The Culinary Imagination traces the social aesthetic and political history of food from myth to modernity from ancient sources to our current wave of food mania. What does it mean to transform raw stuff into cooked dishes which then become part of our own bodies to savor festive meals yet resolve to renounce gluttony to act as predators where in another life we might have become prey? Do the rituals of the kitchen have different meanings for men and women for professional chefs and home cooks? Why today do so many of us turn so passionately toward table topics on the page online and on screen What are the philosophical implications of the food chain on which we all find ourselves In The Culinary Imagination Gilbert addresses these powerful questions through meditations on myths and memoirs children s books novels poems food blogs paintings TV shows and movies Discussing figures from Rex Stout to Julia Child and Andy Warhol from M F K Fisher and Sylvia Plath to Alice Waters and Peter Singer she analyzes the politics and poetics of our daily bread investigating our complex self definitions as producers consumers and connoisseurs of food The result is an ambitious lively and learned examination of the ways in which our culture s artists have represented food across a range of genres
