Cedar Grove Philip Edward Jaeger,2000 Cedar Grove is situated in the Peckman River Valley between the First and Second Watchung Mountains Located only fifteen miles west of New York City the area remained a farming community until well into the twentieth century While generally focusing on the town in the early 1900s Cedar Grove also chronicles significant events and personalities through the end of the millennium Best known for being the home of the Meadowbrook and its nationwide radio broadcasts Cedar Grove is also the birthplace of other historical events The crossword puzzle a source of pleasure for tens of millions was invented by Cedar Grove resident Arthur Wynne in 1913 Wynne s first puzzle is included for those who would like to solve it Allen B Du Mont an electronics pioneer conducted research on cathode ray tubes

in the garage of his Cedar Grove home during the early 1930s and later created a television network bearing his name Although the Meadowbrook is remembered by many few realize that during World War II enemy propaganda attempted to demoralize our fighting forces by falsely proclaiming that the famous roadhouse had burned down Such was its importance to America's youth in those years

American Holiday Postcards, 1905-1915 Daniel Gifford, 2013-09-05 In the early 20th century postcards were one of the most important and popular expressions of holiday sentiment in American culture Millions of such postcards circulated among networks of community and kin as part of a larger American postcard craze However their uses and meanings were far from universal This book argues that holiday postcards circulated primarily among rural and small town Northern white women with Anglo Saxon and Germanic heritages Through analysis of a broad range of sources Daniel Gifford recreates the history of postcards to account for these specific audiences and reconsiders the postcard phenomenon as an image based conversation among exclusive groups of Americans A variety of narratives are thus revealed the debates generated by the Country Life Movement the empowering manifestations of the New Woman the civic privileges of whiteness and the role of emerging technologies From Santa Claus to Easter bunnies flag waving turkeys to gun toting cupids holiday postcards at first seem to be amusing expressions of a halcyon past Yet with knowledge of audience and historical conflicts this book demonstrates how the postcard images reveal deep divides at the height of the Progressive Era
