Montgomery Ward Co Fall Winter 189495:

"Women and the Material Culture of Needlework and Textiles, 1750?950 " MaureenDaly Goggin,2017-07-05 Rejecting traditional notions of what constitutes art this book brings together essays on a variety of fiber arts to recoup women s artistic practices by redefining what counts as art Although scholars over the last twenty years have turned their attention to fiber arts redefining the conditions practices and products as art there is still much work to be done to deconstruct the stubborn patriarchal art craft binary With essays on a range of fiber art practices including embroidery knitting crocheting machine stitching rug making weaving and quilting this collection contributes to the ongoing scholarly redefinition of women s relationship to creative activity Focusing on women as producers of cultural products and creators of social value the contributors treat women as active subjects and problematize their material practices and artifacts in the complex world of textiles Each essay also examines the ways in which needlework both performs gender and in turn constructs gender Moreover in concentrating on and theorizing material practices of textiles these essays reorient the study of fiber arts towards a focus on process the making of the object including the conditions under which it was made by whom and for what purpose as a way to rethink the fiber arts as social praxis

Gender and Generation on the Far Western Frontier Cynthia Culver Prescott,2022-05-10 As her family traveled the Oregon Trail in 1852 Mary Ellen Todd taught herself to crack the ox whip Though gender roles often blurred on the trail families quickly tried to re establish separate roles for men and women once they had staked their claims For Mary Ellen Todd who found a secret joy in having the power to set things moving this meant trading in the ox whip for the more feminine butter churn In Gender and Generation on the Far Western Frontier Cynthia Culver Prescott expertly explores the shifting gender roles and ideologies that countless Anglo American settlers struggled with in Oregon s Willamette Valley between 1845 and 1900 Drawing on traditional social history sources as well as divorce records married women s property records period photographs and material culture Prescott reveals that Oregon settlers pursued a moving target of middle class identity in the second half of the nineteenth century Prescott traces long term ideological changes arguing that favorable farming conditions enabled Oregon families to progress from accepting flexible frontier roles to participating in a national consumer culture in only one generation As settlers children came of age participation in this new culture of consumption and refined leisure became the marker of the middle class Middle class culture shifted from the first generation s emphasis on genteel behavior to a newer genteel consumption This absorbing volume reveals the shifting boundaries of traditional women s spheres the complicated relationships between fathers and sons and the second generation s struggle to balance their parents ideology with a changing national sense of class consciousness

The Hammered Dulcimer Paul M. Gifford,2001-06-13 The last quarter of the twentieth century saw a renewed interest in the hammered dulcimer in the United States at the grassroots level as well as from elements of the Folk Revival This book offers the reader a discussion of the medieval origins of the dulcimer and its subsequent spread under many different names to other parts of the world Drawing on articles the author has written in English as well as articles by specialists in their own languages Gifford explains the history and evolution of the instrument Special attention is paid to the North American tradition from the early 18th century to the 1970s revival Drawing from local histories news clippings photographs and interviews the book examines the playing of the dulcimer and its associated social meanings Love Entwined Helen Sheumaker,2007-05-29 Using a wide array of evidence drawn from poetry fiction diaries letters and examples of hairwork Love Entwined traces the widespread popularity of the craft from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century Blacksmith Shop: Lyndon B. Johnson National Historic Site Edwin C. Bearss,1973

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED REV PB Strasser S,2004-10-17 This sweeping history provides the reader with a better understanding of America s consumer society obsession with shopping and devotion to brands Focusing on the advertising campaigns of Coca Cola Kellogg s Wrigley s Gillette and Kodak Strasser shows how companies created both national brands and national markets These new brands eventually displaced generic manufacturers and created a new desire for brand name goods The book also details the rise and development of department stores such as Macy s grocery store chains such as A P and Piggly Wiggly and mail order companies like Sears Roebuck and Montgomery Ward The Lawman Lynne Stonier-Newman,2011-07-06 Keeping the peace in turn of the century B C Murderers thieves and drunks tested the will of Superintendent Fred Hussey the B C Provincial Police officer appointed to keep the peace in rough and tumble turn of the century B C But in his action packed and often risky career he always relied on the power of reason rather than force to set things right Even his prisoners seemed to like him it was said Hussey s work took him from formal dinners in elegant mansions to chilly breakfasts around campfires In a 20 year period that saw the province s population mushroom by 100 000 he knew the famous and the infamous from Judge Matthew Baillie Begbie to train robber Bill Miner and everyone in between Inspecting his vast territory on horseback by steamer and canoe this remarkable man set the tone for the peaceful development of the young province A glimpse into the ambience of a bygone era The Lawman is an engaging look at the life and adventures of a self possessed hero in turbulent times Catalogue & Buyers Guide, 1894-95 Montgomery Ward,1977 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1979 Culture and Comfort Katherine Grier,2013-09-03 In Culture and Comfort Katherine C Grier shows how the design and furnishings of the mid nineteenth century parlor reflected the self image of the Victorian middle class Parlors provided public facades for formal occasions and represented an attempt to resolve the often opposing ideals of gentility and sincerity to which American culture aspired The book traces the fortunes of the parlor and its upholstery from its early incarnations in palace hotels railroad cars steamships and photographers studios through its mid century heyday when even remote frontier homes could boast suites of red plush sofas and chairs to its slow uneven metamorphosis into the more versatile living room The author argues that even as the home increasingly was seen as a haven from industrialization and commercialization its ties to industry and commerce in the form of more affordable machine made furniture and drapery became stronger By the 1920s the parlor s decline signaled both a blurring of the Victorian distinctions between public and private manners and the transfer of middle class identity from the home to the automobile Describing the deportment a parlor required the activities it sheltered and the marketing and manufacturing breakthroughs that made it available to all Culture and Comfort reveals the full range of cultural messages conveyed by nineteenth century parlor materials Zoo Studies Tracy McDonald, Daniel Vandermommers, 2019-06-19 Do both the zoo and the mental hospital induce psychosis as humans are treated as animals and animals are treated as humans How have we looked at animals in the past and how do we look at them today How have zoos presented themselves and their purpose over time In response to the emergence of environmental and animal studies anthropologists sociologists philosophers theorists literature scholars and historians around the world have begun to explore the significance of zoological parks past and present Zoo Studies considers the modern zoo from a range of approaches and disciplines united in a desire to blur the boundaries between human and nonhuman animals The volume begins with an account of the first modern mental hospital La Salpêtrière established in 1656 and the first panoptical zoo the menagerie at Versailles created in 1662 by the same royal architect the final chapter presents a choreographic performance that imagines the Toronto Zoo as a place where the human body can be inspired by animal bodies From beginning to end through interdisciplinary collaboration this volume decentres the human subject and offers alternative ways of thinking about zoos and their inhabitants This collection immerses readers in the lives of animals and their experiences of captivity and asks us to reflect on our own assumptions about both humans and animals An original and groundbreaking work Zoo Studies will change the way readers see nonhuman animals and themselves The Carriage Trade Thomas A. Kinney, 2004-10-13 Co Winner of the 2005 Hagley Business History Book Prize given by the Business History Conference In 1926 the Carriage Builders National Association met for the last time signaling the automobile s final triumph over the horse drawn carriage Only a decade earlier carriages and wagons were still a common sight on every Main Street in America In the previous century carriage building had been one of the largest and most dynamic industries in the country In this sweeping study of a forgotten trade Thomas A Kinney extends our understanding of nineteenth century American industrialization far beyond the steel mill and railroad The legendary Studebaker Brothers Manufacturing Company in 1880 produced a hundred wagons a day one every six minutes Across the country smaller factories fashioned vast quantities of buggies farm wagons and luxury carriages Today if we think of carriage and wagon at all we assume it merely foreshadowed the automobile industry Yet the carriage industry epitomized a batch work approach to production that flourished for decades Contradicting the model of industrial development in which hand tools small firms and individual craftsmanship simply gave way to mechanized factories the carriage industry successfully employed small scale business and manufacturing practices throughout its history The Carriage Trade traces the rise and fall of this heterogeneous industry from the pre industrial shop system to the coming of the automobile using as case studies Studebaker the New York based luxury carriage maker Brewsters and dozens of smaller firms from around the country Kinney also explores the experiences of the carriage and wagon worker over the life of the industry Deeply researched and strikingly original this study contributes a vivid chapter to the story of America's industrial revolution Primary Department of the West Branch School and Jesse Hoover's Blacksmith and Wagon Shop, Herbert Hoover National Historic Site Edwin C. Bearss, 1973 Montgomery Ward & Co. Catalogue & Buyers Guide, Fall & Winter 1894-95 Montgomery Ward, 1970 Images of the Recent Past Charles E. Orser Jr., 1996-08-15 Historical archaeology has been without a definitive up to date collection that reflects the breadth of the field until now Orser's book brings together classic and contemporary articles that demonstrate the development of the field over the last twenty years both in North America and throughout the world Orser's selections represent a wide variety of locales and perspectives and include works by many of the leading figures in the field Engaging articles make it accessible to any interested reader and superb for historical archaeology classes The National Union Catalog, 1968-1972, 1973 A Field Guide to American Windmills T. Lindsay Baker, 1985-01-01 Traces the history of the use of windmills in the United States and surveys the various types of American windmills South of Market, 2009 An Illustrated History of Needlework Tools Gay Ann Rogers, 1983 The Kovel's Antiques & Collectibles Price List Ralph M.
