18th April 1874 It is reported that Chuma and Susi whom Livingstone rescued from a slave trader and worked for him longest were later sent for by James Young in 1874 to visit the United Kingdom three months after the funeral mainly to assist with compiling Livingstone's last part of his expedition The remaining 79 porters who endeavored the Great Epic Journey including Mulutula were paid off and summarily dismissed by the Acting Consul at Zanzibar Captain W F Prideaux who discriminated against female porters and were not paid their final wages A warship HMS Vulture collected the corpse from Bagamoyo for delivery at Zanzibar from where the body was repacked and shipped to Aden on the first mail ship and thereafter got transferred to the P O Liner Malwa still watched over by Wainright and from Alexandria also accompanied by Livingstone's son Tom They arrived at Southampton on 15th April 1874 The dismissed 79 unsung heroes then embarked on a disastrous torturous return journey back home without medical facilities nor equipment for navigation as they were taken away from them at Unyanyembe by Lieutenant Verney Lovett Cameron which were not returned as he continued across Africa leaving the corpse at Bagamoyo In his own words Mulutula said Most porters died on their return trek from starvation natural fatigue malaria diarrhea snake crocodile bites and occasional attacks from wild animals and villagers who mistook them for Arab slave traders However wandering through unknown territories resulted in fortune and fame to Mulutula who for example accidentally wandered off into Mulala kingdom where he met and married the chief's granddaughter Lucie Mulala Chief Mulala could not give consent to Mulutula's first proposal to his granddaughter because he considered him as a commoner a wandering traveler and foreigner known in the local dialect as abena fyalo and a man of no fixed abode Unperturbed Mulutula returned after securing documents introducing him as a descendant of Chiefs and a son of a respected village headman Armed with those documents presents and accompanied by a number of elders as per his tribe's tradition when seeking a woman in marriage Mulutula headed back to Mulala Kingdom to officially ask for Lucie Mulala's hand in marriage traditional marriage proposal As a way to welcome Mulutula and his entourage into his royal family Chief Mulala gave his new son-in-law massive pieces of land It is out of his courage desire to prosper and fighting spirit that Mulutula later established Katobole village which resonates to the author's mind unspeakable memories of bravery love and true understanding of how Dr Livingstone's death resulted in a marriage that outlived the test of time bringing forth offspring who among them is the author of this book Thanks to Livingstone's Great Epic journey in our area for without his death in our country my grandfather would have never met and married grandma Princess Lucie Mulala oooooOOOOOooooo How Gertrude Teaches Her Children Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi, 1898
