Detzner, 2004-01-05 Forty life histories of Southeast Asian elders are gathered in this volume Collectively they reveal insider personal perspectives on new immigrant family adaptation to American life at the end of the 20th century Analyzing Narrative Reality Jaber F. Gubrium, James A. Holstein, 2009 Considers both the texts and everyday contexts of the storytelling process with accompanying guidelines for analysis and illustrations from empirical material Featherless Chickens, Laughing Women, and Serious Stories Jeannie B. Thomas, 1997 Interested in preserving her family folklore Jeannie B Thomas recorded detailed oral histories from her mother and two grandmothers While analyzing the tapes of these sessions she notices the inappropriate laughter often accompanied the retelling of painful stories In this book Thomas combines these personal narratives with original scholarship drawing on the work of Mikhail Bakhtin and Julia Kristeva to uncover meaning behind the startling presence of unconventional laughter in women s histories Tracing Family Lines Amy M. Smith, 2012-01-01 Family genealogy research has grown exponentially over the past decade making it an area worthy of scholarly inquest Tracing Family Lines The Impact of Genealogy Research on Family Communication by Amy M Smith explores the connection between women and genealogy by examining the ways inherited familial narratives and data work to position women within American culture Although studies of women s lives are on the rise the standpoint s of women has historically been marginalized particularly as women continue to be relegated to domestic and family care Through researching these standpoints we are better able to see the political constructions of sexist oppression as well as the ways genealogy offers a possible site for resistance Interviewing women who are engaged in the act of researching their own family genealogy provides insight into their motivation for doing so In documenting the family communication that surrounds the genealogical data as well as studying the family organizational structure this study contributes to the existing research regarding family history and family narrative As many of these women are members of local genealogical societies they are also able to address aspects of community membership and the positioning of women within these organizations As women and genealogy are both under researched Tracing Family Lines illuminates the experiences of women genealogists to understand the impact of genealogical data upon family communication and to explore family genealogy as a site of feminist resistance to the socio political marginalization of women
