The Lost Manuscript of Frédéric Cailliaud Frédéric Cailliaud, 2014 The travel accounts of Frédéric Cailliaud were an important early contribution to the birth of Egyptology in the first half of the nineteenth century But one of his major works was never published For the first time here his exquisite color plates are presented alongside a translation of his original French text Arriving in Egypt in 1815 Cailliaud made copious notes on the flora and fauna people and antiquities and took a collection of over two thousand objects back to France His beautifully rendered watercolors of scenes on ancient Egyptian tombs and temples show animated scenes of ancient daily life

Personal Manuscripts: Copying, Drafting, Taking Notes David Durand-Guédy, Jürgen Paul, 2023-04-27 Some manuscripts have been produced for the personal use of their scribe only whereas a number of them are valued as autographs most have been ephemeral and were discarded Personal manuscripts were not written for a patron commissioner or client They are personal copies anthologies florilegia personal notes excerpts drafts and notebooks as well as family books accountancy notebooks and many others these forms often being mixed with one another This volume introduces a number of such manuscripts in a comparative perspective from Japan to Europe through the Middle East with a focus on the Near and Middle East The main concern is the possibility of identifying typical features of such manuscripts in terms of materials visual organization and content In attempting this both the conditions of production and traces of the manuscripts use are taken into consideration with particular attention to their material aspects

Islamic Manuscripts of Late Medieval Rum, 1270s-1370s Jackson Cailah Jackson, 2020-09-04 Between the Mongol invasions in the mid 13th century and the rise of the Ottomans in the late 14th century the Lands of Rum were marked by instability and conflict Despite this a rich body of illuminated manuscripts from the period survives explored here in this extensively illustrated volume Meticulously analysing 15 beautifully decorated Arabic and Persian manuscripts including Qur'ans mirrors for princes historical chronicles and Sufi works Cailah Jackson traces the development of calligraphy and illumination in late medieval Anatolia She shows that the central Anatolian city of Konya in particular was a dynamic centre of artistic activity and that local Turcoman princes Seljuk bureaucrats and Mevlevi dervishes all played important roles in manuscript production and patronage

Palimpsests and Related Phenomena across Languages and Cultures Jost Gippert, José Maksimczuk, Hasmik Sargsyan, 2024-12-02 Palimpsests

are manuscripts whose original content has been erased scraped away washed off and later overwritten In their lower layers they often contain unique versions of texts including those otherwise lost from Antiquity and the Middle Ages The volume addresses palimpsesting across languages cultures and times as well as up to date research and imaging practices applied to them and results achieved in reconstituting removed layers “Buyurdum ki...” – The Whole World of Ottomanica and Beyond ,2023-09-04 This book is dedicated to Claudia R mer and brings together 33 contributions spanning a period from the 15th to the 20th century and covering the wide range of topics with which the honouree is engaged The volume is divided into six parts that present current research on language literature and style as well as newer approaches and perspectives in dealing with sources and terminologies Aspects such as conquest administration and financing of provinces are found as well as problems of endowments and the circulation of goods in the Arab provinces of the Ottoman Empire Another main topic is dedicated to minorities and their role and situation in various provinces and cities of the Ottoman Empire as represented by various sources But also topics like conversion morality and control are illuminated Finally the volume provides an insight into the late Ottoman and early republican period in which some previously unpublished sources such as travel letters memoirs are presented and re discussed The book is not only aimed at scholars and students of the Ottoman Empire the thematic range is also of interest to linguists historians and cultural historians Commentary on the Gospel of John Frédéric Louis Godet,1886 Proceedings (American Oriental Society). 1874-1893 ,1852 Journal of the American Oriental Society ,1889 List of members in each volume Silent Teachers Nil Ö. Palabıyık,2023-03-17 Silent Teachers considers for the first time the influence of Ottoman scholarly practices and reference tools on oriental learning in early modern Europe Telling the story of oriental studies through the annotations study notes and correspondence of European scholars it demonstrates the central but often overlooked role that Turkish language manuscripts played in the achievements of early orientalist Dispersing the myths and misunderstandings found in previous scholarship this book offers a fresh history of Turkish studies in Europe and new insights into how Renaissance intellectuals studied Arabic and Persian through contemporaneous Turkish sources This story hardly has any dull moments the reader will encounter many larger than life figures including an armchair expert who turned his alleged captivity under the Ottomans into bestselling books a drunken dragoman who preferred enjoying the fruits of the vine to his duties at the Sublime Porte and a curmudgeonly German physician whose pugnacious pamphlets led to the erasure of his name from history Taking its title from the celebrated humanist Joseph Scaliger s comment that books from the Muslim world are silent teachers and need to be explained orally to be understood this study gives voice to the many and varied Turkish language books that circulated in early modern Europe and proposes a paradigm shift in our understanding of early modern erudite culture Jesus Through Middle Eastern Eyes Kenneth E. Bailey,2009-08-20 Beginning with Jesus birth Ken Bailey leads you on a kaleidoscopic study of Jesus throughout the four Gospels examining the life and ministry of Jesus with attention to the Lord s Prayer the Beatitudes Jesus relationship to women and especially Jesus parables The work dispels the obscurity of Western interpretations with a stark vision of Jesus in his original context Exploring Written Artefacts Jörg B. Quenzer, 2021-10-25 This collection presented to Michael Friedrich in honour of his academic career at the Centre for the Study of Manuscript Cultures traces key concepts that scholars associated with the Centre have developed and refined for the systematic study of manuscript cultures At the same time the contributions showcase the possibilities of expanding the traditional subject of manuscripts to the larger perspective of written artefacts The Robert Lehman Collection John Pope-Hennessy, 1987 Early Mapping of the Pacific Thomas Suarez, 2013-01-29 Take a journey back to the uncharted oceans with the most celebrated European explorers Interest in Southeast Asian history and culture is higher than ever before Ancient cartography of Oceania holds mysteries as old as time were these early ocean maps molded as much by fantasy as fact Early Mapping of the Pacific bravely delves into all the questions surrounding the history of maps The Pacific Ocean remained a mystery to mapmakers until the latter part of the eighteenth century This book traces the European exploration and charting of the vast ocean through a cornucopia of beautiful maps stretching from Japan on the northwest through Juan Fernandez Island on the southeast with the various islands of Oceania the primary focus It follows the history of mapmaking from Classical times up to the turn of the twentieth century The ancient seafarers who ventured eastward from Asia and were the Pacific's true pioneers left no maps They still helped make cartography history thanks to the navigational genius their descendants passed to European visitors Thus the Pacific as we now know it was formally born when the colonization of America partitioned the seas between Europe and Asia into two This gorgeous edition presents nearly 300 rare Asia maps and early prints compiled by expert Thomas Suarez Topics addressed include The Pacific Islands and Their People Mariners Mapmakers and the Great Ocean The Pacific Evolves after Magellan In the Wake of the Solomon Islands Earliest Mapping of Australia and New Zealand The Age of Enlightenment The Three Voyages of James Cook The Discovery of Tahiti and Hawaii Micronesia the Elusive Isles Surveyors Whalers and Missionaries You too can share in the wonder of these explorers vast geographical and cultural discoveries and the voyages that led to them in this comprehensive cartography book Harlot or Holy Woman? Phyllis A. Bird, 2020-01-16 Harlot or Holy Woman presents an exhaustive study of qede ah a Hebrew word meaning consecrated woman but rendered prostitute or sacred prostitute in Bible translations Reexamining biblical and extrabiblical texts Phyllis A Bird questions how qede ah came to be associated with prostitution and offers an alternative explanation of the term one that suggests a wider participation for women as religious specialists in Israel's early cultic practice Bird's study reviews all the texts from classical antiquity cited as sources for an institution of sacred prostitution alongside a comprehensive analysis of the cuneiform texts from Mesopotamia containing the cognate qadi tu and Ugaritic texts containing the masculine cognate qd Through these texts Bird presents a portrait of women dedicated to a deity engaged in a variety of activities from cultic ritual to wet nursing and sharing a common generic name with the qede ah of ancient Israel In the final chapter she returns to biblical texts reexamining them in light of the new evidence from the ancient Near East Considering alternative models for constructing women's religious roles in ancient Israel this wholly original study offers new interpretations of key texts and raises questions about the nature of Israelite religion as practiced outside the royal cult and central sanctuary The London Quarterly Review William Lonsdale Watkinson, William Theophilus Davison, 1892
