Point Of Peril:

Conflict Amid Consensus in American Trade Policy Martha Liebler Gibson, 2000 Americans have witnessed inconsistent and seemingly dramatic turnabouts in legislators attitudes toward trade with strong bipartisan support for free trade and the Uruguay Round in one instant and heated debate over participation in the World Trade Organization the next Martha L Gibson systematically traces the competing forces that interject conflict into an overall consensus on the value of a liberalized trade policy Cutting through the tangled web of congressional politics Gibson shows why it is impossible to understand trade legislation without first understanding how electoral politics and the institutional rules of Congress distort legislators interests incentives and policy goals Gibson s book clearly shows that trade legislation is not made in a vacuum but is just one in a series of simultaneous games with competing goals in which legislators engage to satisfy the conflicting demands of constituents Great Thoughts from Master Minds ,1909 Tidal Current Tables, Pacific Coast of North
