Points Of Departure Aspects Of The Tao:

Points of Departure James Klee,1982 The Oxford Handbook of Reciprocal Adult Development and Learning

Carol Hoare,2011-09-06 This second edition of The Oxford Handbook of Reciprocal Adult Development and Learning explores how advances in one dimension so often lead to positive changes in the other This is new terrain in psychology and learning Implications for research practice and policy emanate from review of empirical literature and theoretical perspectives

The New-Old Andrew Bland,Sandrine M. Arons,2020-06-22 Dr Myron Milford Mike Arons 1929 2008 is recognized internationally as one of the founders of humanistic psychology This volume serves as both a tribute to his memory and a gateway to reflection and scholarship by future generations of humanistic psychologists who did not have the privilege to know Arons Edited by his mentee Dr Andrew Bland and daughter Sandrine Arons The New Old traces Arons thought as it evolved over about three decades from the 1970s to the 2000s Following Sandrine Arons preface and Bland s overview of Mike Arons life and scholarship 13 of Arons papers some of which are rare out of print or unpublished are presented thematically in four sections a his inspiration and influences b creativity consciousness and culture c humanistic education and d two of Arons hermeneutic explorations on the topics of intuition and the nature of self The book concludes with a discussion about the contemporary implications and applications of Arons thinking as well as the accuracy of his predictions about the future of both psychology and society Finally an annotated bibliography of Arons complete writings is included as an appendix Being-In, Being-For, Being-With Clark E. Moustakas,1995-01-01 This text examines a series of pervasive themes of human existence and the challenges of being and relating Areas investigated include the nature and meaning of being different possessiveness and being possessed and dimensions of loneliness mystery and self disclosure Mao

Tse-Tung's Theory of Dialectic F.Y.K. Soo,2012-12-06 The year 1979 ushered in a new phase in China s long and continuous revolution Currently this new phase is being symbolically referred to by the Chinese leaders themselves as the New Long March a continuation of the legendary and historical Long March in terms of modernization which comprises the Four Modernizations Agriculture Industry Science and Technology and Military Defense Such an all encompassing attempt at modernization may appear to some at least to be something new or may indicate a radical shift in her policy But upon closer examination this decision seems only to reflect an historical continuity in terms of the two major long term goals of the Chinese Revolution national independence and modernization or industrialization The former would make China strong the latter wealthy For ever since the Opium War in 1840 and throughout the Revolutions of 1911 and 1949 China has always pursued these two revolutionary goals though with different emphases at different times This has been especially true during the past three decades as this twofold goal has dictated all of China s important policies both domestic and foreign In other words while the concrete policies may have appeared to be lacking in unity at times they have been formulated with the specific intent of achieving national independence and modernization From this perspective the New Long March marks the passage of post Mao China beyond the transition of succession toward the continued pursuit of the same revolutionary goals

Meditation and Piety in the Far East Karl Ludvig Reichelt, 2004 The result of more than forty years of intimate contact with the religious elite of the Far East Dr Reichelt's book is a study of a too often remote and unknown world For the western reader this study reveals the life of the East Asia religious communities their sanctuaries sacred writings and daily discipline These non Christian religions present a massive front of tradition and dogma which so far the Christian faith has rarely penetrated This engaging book is comprehensive in its scope The author examines the meditation traditions of Taoism Confucianism Buddhism and Yoga in detail drawing on his first hand experiences Karl Ludvig Reichelt was one of the few gifted interpreters of the East to the West who knew the mind of the East Asia religions and had the respect of their leaders

The Journal of Transpersonal Psychology, 1983 Enemies from the East? Vladimir Sergeevich Solovyov, 2007-11-06 In various contexts V S Soloviev 1853 1900 the most distinguished representative of nineteenth century Russian religious philosophy anticipated our current global dilemma by more than a hundred years These essays presented together for the first time in English consider from a number of perspectives how a future clash of cultures between East and West threatens human progress toward the harmonic unity that for Soloviev represented the ultimate human telos

Information America Tracy Davis, Patricia A. Young, 1985 The Sound of Bells Norah Moore, 2013 This book brings together the teachings of Meher Baba and the teachings of Carl Gustav Jung for the first time Many people would wish to bring together their inner experience of spirituality and psychological development Meher Baba did not come to bring a new religion but a philosophy that brought all religions together In this first book The Sound of Bells and Eastern Mysticism I looked at C G Jung's Analytical Psychology in the light of Meher Baba's book God Speaks In the second book of the trilogy Glowing Embers for the New Humanity God can only be Lived I brought a more detailed account of how this might be accomplished In the final book of the trilogy I turned to a more personal account of how I followed this path myself and summed up how the path has been followed throughout all the avataric ages Intellectual Discourse in Reform Era China Giorgio Strafella, 2016-11-18 This book explores intellectual discourse in reform era China by analysing the so called debate on the spirit of the Humanities which occurred in the years 1993 95 and which is recognised by scholars as one of the most interesting influential and important debates of the 1990s This debate in which Chinese intellectuals reflected on reform era mass culture and on their role in society was the first debate in China after the crackdown of 1989 and the launch of new economic reforms after Deng Xiaoping's 1992 southern tour The book drawing on a large corpus of texts and a wide range of individual positions demonstrates how Chinese intellectuals having to face the combination of political repression and economic liberalisation conceptualised and reacted to both The book reveals the scale and complexity of the debate the nature of intellectual life in China the status and relevance of intellectual voices in society the divisions within the intellectual sphere as well as shared concepts and ideals and how the key factors of political repression and economic liberalisation which remain central in China today were defined and articulated

New Horizons in Chinese Linguistics C-T James Huang, Audrey Li Yen Hui, 2012-12-06 The past decade and a half has witnessed a great deal of renewed interest in the study of Chinese linguistics not only in the traditional areas of philological studies and in theoretically oriented areas of synchronic grammar and language change but also in the cultivation of new frontiers in related areas of the cognitive sciences There is a significant increase in the number of students studying one area or another of the linguistic structure of Chinese in various linguistic programs in the United States Europe Australia and in China Hong Kong Singapore Taiwan and other parts of Asia Several new academic departments devoted to the study of linguistics have been established in Taiwan and Hong Kong in the past few years The increasing research and study activities have also resulted in a number of national and international conferences including the North American Conference on Chinese Linguistics NACCL which has been held annually in the United States the International Symposium on Chinese Languages and Linguistics IsCLL which has had its fourth meeting since it was launched by Academia Sinica in Taiwan in 1990 the International Association of Chinese Linguistics IACL created in Singapore in 1992 and now incorporated in Irvine California which has held its annual meetings at major institutions in Asia Europe and the US

Charity with Chinese Characteristics Katja Levy, Knut B. Pissler, 2020-06-26 This thought provoking book explores the functions of charitable foundations in the People's Republic of China Using both empirical fieldwork and extensive textual analysis it examines the role of foundations in Chinese society and their relationship with the Chinese government and provides a new functional perspective on the role of foundations complementing mainstream civil society and corporatist perspectives

Proust, China and Intertextual Engagement Shuangyi Li, 2017-08-25 The book traces the literary journey that Proust's work made to China and back by means of translation intertextual engagement and the creation of a transcultural dialogue through migrant literature It begins with a translation history of Proust's work in China and studies the different re translations and editions of La Recherche highlighting their culturally conditioned thematic emphases and negligence such as time and memory over anti-Semitism and homosexuality The book then moves on to explore three contemporary mainland Chinese writers creative intertextual engagement with Proust against the backdrop of China's explosive development from modernity to post modernity in the 1990s Finally back to France the book examines the multifarious literary relations between Proust and the Franco-Chinese migrant writer Fran ois Cheng It demonstrates how the cultural heritages of China and the West can be re negotiated and put into dialogue through the fictional and creative medium of literature as well as providing a means of understanding the economic political and cultural exchanges in our current global context

Constructions in Spanish Inga Hennecke, Evelyn Wiesinger, 2023-07-15 Constructions in Spanish is the first book length English language volume in the field of usage based and Cognitive Construction Grammar dedicated exclusively to Spanish The contributions investigate a wide range of constructions from both a synchronic and a diachronic perspective cutting across morphology syntax semantics and pragmatics The constructionist perspective is also linked to comparative and typological research to language learning and teaching and to multi modal discourse analysis The volume aims both at increasing the visibility of constructionist approaches to Spanish and at offering data and analyses of Spanish for scholars working on constructional analyses of other languages The volume thus addresses both scholars in Spanish and Romance linguistics as it builds connections between more traditional approaches and constructionist approaches and construction grammarians generally especially scholars interested in comparative work

Borders of Chinese Civilization Douglas Howland, 1996-04-25 D R Howland explores China's representations of Japan in the changing world of the late nineteenth century and in so doing examines the cultural and social borders between the two neighbors Looking at Chinese accounts of Japan written during the 1870s and 1880s he undertakes an unprecedented analysis of the main genres the Chinese used to portray Japan the travel diary poetry and the geographical treatise In his discussion of the practice of brustalk in which Chinese scholars communicated with the Japanese by exchanging ideographs Howland further shows how the Chinese viewed the communication of their language and its dominant modes history and poetry as the textual and cultural basis of a shared civilization between the two societies With Japan's decision in the 1870s to modernize and westernize China's relationship with Japan underwent a crucial change one that resulted in its decisive separation from Chinese civilization and according to Howland a destabilization of China's worldview His examination of the ways in which Chinese perceptions of Japan altered in the 1880s reveals the crucial choice faced by the Chinese of whether to interact with Japan as kin based on geographical proximity and the existence of common cultural threads or as a barbarian an alien force molded by European influence By probing China's poetic and expository modes of portraying Japan Borders of Chinese Civilization exposes the changing world of the nineteenth century and China's comprehension of it This broadly appealing work will engage scholars in the fields of Asian studies Chinese literature history and geography as well as those interested in theoretical reflections on travel or modernism

Global Ethics on Climate Change Martin Schonfeld, 2013-08-15 The volatility of climate change is increasing It is bad news and many climatologists policy analysts and environmental groups regard the West as the largest contributor to the problems caused by climate change This book raises questions concerning the systemic and cultural reasons for Western countries unwillingness to bear full responsibility for their carbon emissions Is the Western paradigm failing Can other cultures offer solutions Are there alternatives for designing a better future Just as the roots of the problem of climate change are cultural the solution must be too The contributors to Global Ethics on Climate Change explore cultural alternatives This differs from conventional climate ethics which tends to address the crisis with utilitarian legalistic and analytic tools The authors in this volume doubt whether such paradigm patches will work It may be time to think outside the box and consider non Western insights about the good life indigenous wisdom on being in the world and new ideas for civil evolution This book is an examination of candidates for a Plan B This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Global Ethics

of Chinese treatises on the use and practice of sexual intercourse Overcoming the Two Cultures Richard E Lee Jr, Immanuel Wallerstein, 2015-12-03 This book tells the story of how the very idea of two cultures the so called divorce between science and the humanities was a creation of the modern world system The contributors working from a common research framework trace the divorce of facts and values as part of the transition from feudalism to capitalism This led to a polarization between universalist science and the particularist humanities and finally to the creation of the social sciences as an uneasy intermediary in this epistemological debate The book addresses the contemporary attempts to overcome the division between the two cultures that emerge from science feminism race and ethnic studies cultural studies and ecology ending with an analysis of the culture wars and the science wars Contributors Volkan Aytar Ay se Betul Celik Mauro Di Meglio Mark Frezzo Ho fung Hung Biray Kolloupglu K3 4rl3 4 Agustin Lao Montes Eric Mielants Boris Stremlin Sunaryo Norihisa Yamashita Deniz Yukeseker Culture and Modernity Eliot Deutsch, 1991-01-01 The crisis of modernity Incommensurability Relativism Language and non Western cultural traditions Culture and the ethical Culture and the aesthetic Culture and the religious Culture and the political Cultural identity Scientific progress
