Poirot The French Collection:

Poirot Agatha Christie, 2003 A brand new three in one Poirot omnibus featuring the world renowned detective e t m s adventures in France Includes Murder on the Links Mystery of The Blue Train and Death in The Clouds It seems Hercule Poirot can never escape murder Crimes motives and killers followed him across the Orient and now they have found him again e but this time much closer to home e MURDER ON THE LINKS An urgent cry for help brings Poirot to France But he arrives too late to save his client whose brutally stabbed body now lies face downwards in a shallow grave on a golf course But whay is the dead man wearing his son e t m s overcoat And who was the impassioned love letter in the pocket for Before Poirot can answer these questions the case is turned upside down by the discovery of a second identically murdered corpse e THE MYSTERY OF THE BLUE TRAIN When the luxurious Blue Train arrives at Nice a guard attempts to wake serene Ruth Kettering from her slumbers But she will never wake again e for a heavy blow has killed her disfiguring her features almost beyond recognition What is more her priceless rubies are missing The prime suspect is Ruth e t m s estranged husband Derek Yet Poirot is not convinced so he stages an eerie re enactment of the journey complete with the murderer e DEATH IN THE CLOUDS From seat No 9 Hercule Poirot was ideally placed to observe his fellow air passengers Over to his right sat a pretty young woman clearly infatuated with the man opposite ahead in seat No 13 sat a Countess with poorly concealed cocaine habit across the gangway in seat No 8 a detective writer was being troubled by an aggressive wasp What Poirot did not yet realise was that behind him in seat No 2 sat the slumped lifeless body of a woman The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco, 2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism The Detective Novels of Agatha Christie James Zemboy, 2016-03-15 The most popular mystery writer of all time concocted a rich recipe of intrigue character and setting All of Agatha Christie s 66 detective novels are covered here in great detail Each chapter begins with general comments on a

novel's geographical and historical setting identifying current events fashions fads and popular interests that relate to the story A concise plot summary and comprehensive character listing follow and each novel is discussed within Christie's overall body of work with an emphasis on the development of themes narrative technique and characters over the course of her prolific career An appendix translates Poirot's French and defines the British idiomatic words and phrases that give Christie's novels so much of their flavor

Minor Mythologies as Popular Literature Richard Pine, 2018-10-01 This is the first single author study of the genres and roots of popular literature in its relation to film and television exploring the effects of academic snobbery on the teaching of popular literature Designed for classroom use by students of literature and film and their teachers it offers case studies in quest literature detective fiction the status of the outlaw and outsider and the interdependence of self other and the uncanny It challenges perceived notions of and prejudices against popular literature and affirms its connection with the deepest human experiences

Voices in the Media Gaëlle Planchenault, 2015-10-22 Verbal performances are often encountered in the media where they are used to embody characters or social archetypes Performed voices define the norm as well as the linguistic Others and by doing so circulate associated values and linguistic ideologies This book explores the idea that far from simply being exercises in verbal skill and flair performances of social ethnic or gendered voices in the media not only have the power to accomplish ideological work they are also sites of linguistic tension and negotiation Critically examining performances of French voices in the media this book raises the following questions How are repertoires of voices constructed and subsequently perpetuated in the media How do the stereotypic personae these voices contribute to build become familiar to national as well as transnational audiences How do such performed voices reproduce hegemonic ideologies of standard and non standard languages and participate in the perpetuation of social discriminations How are these performed voices commodified into cultural products of otherness that may later be reclaimed by stigmatized communities Following an innovative framework which allows for analysis of performances of varied voices and their impact in the media sphere Voices in the Media offers a new approach to the linguistics of media performance

Mostly French Alistair Rolls, 2009 This book which was inspired by a conference on plural conjugations of Frenchness La France au pluriel held in 2007 at the Universities of Technology Sydney and Newcastle focuses on the concept of national belonging as it pertains to detective fiction with particular emphasis on French and Australian detective fictions and the encounter and crossing over between them The objective is not only to use the concepts of French and Australian detective fiction productively via the analysis of French and Australian detective fiction novels but also to challenge and undermine the very notion of national detective fictions which are so often assumed to be transparently meaningful The contributors to this volume focus variously on the following areas comparative analysis of the genesis of French and Australian detective fiction translation of Australian and other novels into French translation as a genre Frenchness as a stereotype its role in individual novels and its spectre in all detective fiction and readings of individual

French and Australian detective novels Overall this book aims to challenge assumptions about French detective fiction its influence on other national fictions and its explicit and implicit presence in all detective fiction Spink & Son's Monthly Numismatic Circular ,1908 The Numismatic Circular and Catalogue of Coins, Tokens, Commemorative & War Medals, Books & Cabinets Spink & Son,1909 The Ageless Agatha Christie J.C.
