Minor Histories Mike Kelley,2004-02-06 The second volume of writings by Los Angeles artist Mike Kelley focusing on his own work What John C Welchman calls the blazing network of focused confluents from which Mike Kelley s styles are generated is on display in all its diversity in this second volume of the artist s writings The first volume Foul Perfection contained thematic essays and writings about other artists this collection concentrates on

Kelley's own work ranging from texts in voices that grew out of scripts for performance pieces to expository critical and autobiographical writings. Minor Histories organizes Kelley's writings into five sections. Statements consists of twenty pieces produced between 1984 and 2002, most of which were written to accompany exhibitions including Ajax which draws on Homer, Colgate Palmolive and Longinus to present its eponymous hero. Some Aesthetic High Points an exercise in autobiography that counters the standard artist bio included in catalogs and press releases and a sequence of creative writings that use mass cultural tropes in concert with high art mannerisms approximating in prose the visual styles that characterize Kelley's artwork. Video Statements and Proposals are introductions to videos made by Kelley and other artists including Paul McCarthy and Bob Flanagan and Sheree Rose. Image Texts offers writings that accompany or are part of artworks and installations. This section includes A Stopgap Measure, Kelley's zestful millennial essay in social satire and Meet John Doe, a collage of appropriated texts. Architecture features an discussion of Kelley's Educational Complex 1995 and an interview in which he reflects on the role of architecture in his work. Finally Ufology considers the aesthetics and sexuality of space as manifested by UFO sightings and abduction scenarios.

Consuming Bodies Jackie Hogan, Sarah Whetstone, 2024-12-24
Our bodies reveal the values, priorities, anxieties and material realities of the society in which we are situated and in contemporary consumer societies human bodies both reflect the defining characteristics of our time and carry the markers of social hierarchies based on categories such as gender, race and class. Consuming Bodies: Body Commodification and Embodiment in Late Capitalist Societies explores the ways our bodies are increasingly commodified from before birth to after death through both long standing forms of commodification: captive labor, sex work and spectator sports and newer forms: commercial surrogacy, the thriving trade in human biomaterials, female genital rejuvenation surgery, global romance tourism and green burial practices among others. As this diverse range of topics demonstrates, body commodification reaches increasingly into every realm of our lives from our most intimate experiences to encounters with pop culture, the beauty industries, the medical industrial complex and the state. This volume takes a critical perspective on body commodification and embodiment both in the US and across the globe, making an important contribution to social scientific understandings of the body both by going beyond the Eurocentric approach that typifies much of the extant scholarly literature and by addressing newly emerging practices that are growing out of techno-scientific and social changes.
