Jaroszynska-Kirchmann, 2013-12-11 A Corner for Everybody is a unique collection of close to five hundred letters from Polish American readers which were published in the Polish language weekly Ameryka Echo between 1902 and 1969 In these letters Polish immigrants speak in their own words about their American experience and vigorously debate religion organization of their community ethnic identity American politics and society and ties to the homeland The translated letters are annotated and divided into thematic chapters with informative introductions Polish Americans formed one of the largest European immigrant groups in the United States and their community Polonia developed a vibrant Polish language press which tied together networks of readers in the entire Polish immigrant Diaspora Newspaper editors encouraged their readers to write to the press and provided them with public space to exchange their views and opinions and share thoughts and reflections Ameryka Echo a weekly published from Toledo Ohio was one of the most popular and long lasting newspapers with international circulation For seven decades Ameryka Echo sustained a number of sections based on readers correspondence but the most popular of them was a Corner for Everybody which featured thousands of letters on a variety of topics The readers eagerly discussed everything from occurrences in local communities to issues paramount to the formation of their ethnic identity and assimilation church religion gender politics relations with new immigrant waves and other ethnic groups The letter writers debated the American labor movement and strikes described hardships of the Great Depression and World War II and argued about American domestic politics and foreign policy They also keenly followed changes in their homeland and called for work on behalf of the Polish nation The Ameryka Echo letters are a rich source of information on the history of Polish Americans which can serve as primary sources for students and scholars They also provide a new fascinating and lively look into the passions and experiences of individuals who created the larger American historical experience The Kashubian Polish Community of Southeastern Minnesota Polish Cultural Institute, 2001 The Kashubian people in Southeastern Minnesota are a small yet distinct group of people small because in a world view they are few in number emigrated from a small area in Poland and settled in a relatively small area similar to the area they left distinctive because of the cohesiveness of the community and moreover because the Kashubian language is unusual even in Poland This book describes the culture of the Kashubian community illustrated with over 200 vintage images It salvages a history that has almost been amalgamated into the swirling melting pot because of the difficulty of their language the spelling of their names and the lack of recognition of their efforts From the first Polish American fighters who gave their lives to the Civil War to the lumber mills that offered so many new residents means of survival these photographs visually outline the experiences of the earliest Kashubian immigrants and a history nearly lost Minnesota's
