

POLICE OPERATIONAL PLANNING

What is a Plan?

A plan is an organized schedule or sequence of methodical activities intended to attain a goal and objectives for the accomplishment of mission or assignment. It is a method or way of doing something in order to attain objectives. Plan provides answer to 5W's and 1 H.

What is Planning?

- Planning is a management function concerned with visualizing future situations, making estimates concerning them, identifying issues, needs and potential danger points, analyzing and evaluating the alternative ways and means for reaching desired goals according to a certain schedule, estimating the necessary funds and resources to do the work, and initiating action in time to prepare what may be needed to cope with the changing conditions and contingent events.
- Planning is also the process of preparing for change and coping with uncertainty; formulating future courses of action; the process of determining the problem of the organization and coming up with proposed resolutions and finding best solutions.
  - The process of combining all aspects of the department and the realistic anticipation of future problems, the analysis of strategy and the correlation of strategy to detail.
  - The conceptual idea of doing something to attain a goal or objective.

What is Police Planning?

Police Planning is an attempt by police administrators in trying to allocate anticipated resources to meet anticipated service demands.

Police Planning:

Police United States. National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals, 1973 This report provides suggestions for overall improvement in delivery of police services for greater protection against crime The National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals considers the patrolman the primary force in reducing and preventing crime and thus directs its report recommendations toward increasing police effectiveness Suggestions for improvements in police functions are presented in the areas of community planning and organization technology and support services fiscal management and coordination with other criminal justice agencies These proposals appear in the form of more than 120 specific standards and recommendations that spell out where why and how these improvements can and should be made in the police segment of the criminal justice system Report on police is a reference work for the practitioner patrolman to police chief as well as for the interested layman Before implementing any of the changes advocated police departments are advised to detail the legal limits of police authority and develop guidelines for the exercise of that authority In order to improve cooperation between the police and the community it is suggested that police agencies establish a specialized unit for maintaining communication with citizens Each police department should encourage and participate in neighborhood security programs and establish procedures to facilitate processing of complaints Suggestions for more effective utilization of manpower include continued consolidation stricter personnel requirements increased employee benefits and the employment of more women minorities and civilians in police work
