Policing The National Body Race Gender And Criminalization:

Policing the National Body Jael Silliman, Jael Miriam Silliman, Anannya Bhattacharjee, 2002 This anthology explores the ways in which women of color are monitored criminalized and regulated      Nine Degrees of Justice Bishakha Datta, 2012-12-31 From an early focus on rape dowry and sati feminist struggles against violence on women in India have traversed a wide terrain to include issues that were invisible in the 1980s In Nine Degrees of Justice second and third generation feminists share their perspectives on violence against women through a series of thought provoking essays Published by Zubaan      Race, Class, and Gender in the United States Paula S. Rothenberg, 2004 Race Class and Gender in the United States An Integrated Study presents students with a compelling clear study of issues of race gender and sexuality within the context of class Rothenberg offers students 126 readings each providing different perspectives and examining the ways in which race gender class and sexuality are socially constructed Rothenberg deftly and consistently helps students analyze each phenomena as well as the relationships among them thereby deepening their understanding of each issue surrounding race and ethnicity      From Black Power to Hip Hop Patricia Hill Collins, 2006-02-15 In this her groundbreaking book Patricia Hill Collins examines the new forms of racism in American life and the political responses to them Using the experiences of African American men and women as her touchstone she covers a wide range of issues that connect questions of race to American identity She follows the long arc of African American responses to racism in the US from Black Nationalism to Black feminism to hip hop Using this genealogy she then investigates how nationalism has operated and reemerged in the wake of contemporary globalization and the unexpected resurgence of nationalism She then offers an interpretation of how Black nationalism works today in the wake of changing Black youth identity and the continuing need to draw on nationalism and feminism to formulate both a response to racism and a concrete platform of political action      Right to Be Hostile Erica R. Meiners, 2010-11 Offers examples and insights into the school to prison pipeline phenomenon showing how disciplinary regulations pedagogy pop culture and more not only implicitly advance but actually normalize an expectation of incarceration for urban youth      Philosophy in Multiple Voices George Yancy, 2007-08-05 Philosophy in Multiple Voices invites transactional dialogue critical imagination and the desire to travel to enter those discursive spaces where the love of wisdom gets inflected through both lived embodiment and situational history The text raises significant meta philosophical questions around the issue of who constitutes the philosophical we through a delineation and valorization of multiple philosophical voices African American Afro Caribbean Asian American Feminist Latin American Lesbian Native American and Queer that set forth complex concerns around canon formation the relationship between philosophical discursive configurations and issues of gendered sexed racial and ethnic identities the dynamic of shifting philosophical historical trajectories differential philosophical visions sensibilities and philosophical praxes that are still largely underrepresented within the institutional confines of mainstream philosophy The text encourages philosophical heterogeneity as a value that ought to be nurtured

Going Stealth Toby Beauchamp, 2019-01-17 In Going Stealth Toby Beauchamp demonstrates how the enforcement of gender conformity is linked to state surveillance practices that identify threats based on racial gender national and ableist categories of difference Positioning surveillance as central to our understanding of transgender politics Beauchamp examines a range of issues from bathroom bills and TSA screening practices to Chelsea Manning's trial to show how security practices extend into the everyday aspects of our gendered lives He brings the fields of disability science and technology and surveillance studies into conversation with transgender studies to show how the scrutinizing of gender nonconformity is motivated less by explicit transgender identities than by the perceived threat that gender nonconformity poses to the U S racial and security state Beauchamp uses instances of gender surveillance to demonstrate how disciplinary power attempts to produce conformist citizens and regulate difference through discourses of security At the same time he contends that greater visibility and recognition for gender nonconformity while sometimes beneficial might actually enable the surveillance state to more effectively track measure and control trans bodies and identities

Pedagogies of Crossing M. Jacqui Alexander, 2006-01-18 A collection of essays by Alexander addressing the implications of transnational thinking for our understanding of gender sex sexuality and race

The Contemporary African American Novel E. Lâle Demirtürk, 2012-07-20 This book examines how African American novels explore instances of racialization that are generated through discursive practices of whiteness in the interracial social encounters of everyday life African American fictional representations of the city have political significance

Branded Bodies, Rhetoric, and the Neoliberal Nation-State Jennifer Wingard, 2013 Branded Bodies Rhetoric and the Neoliberal Nation State by Dr Jennifer Wingard explores how neoliberal economics has affected the rhetoric of the media and politics and how in very direct material ways it harms the bodies of some of the United States most vulnerable occupants Wingard explains how the state uses certain bodies that will never be accepted as citizens as an underclass in service of capital and explores how those underclassed bodies are identified through branding By showing how brands are assembled to create affective threats this book articulates how dangerous the branding of bodies has become and offers rhetorical strategies that can repair the damage to bodies caused by political branding

Race and Epistemologies of Ignorance Shannon Sullivan, Nancy Tuana, 2012-02-01 Offering a wide variety of philosophical approaches to the neglected philosophical problem of ignorance this groundbreaking collection builds on Charles Mills's claim that racism involves an inverted epistemology an epistemology of ignorance Contributors explore how different forms of ignorance linked to race are produced and sustained and what role they play in promoting racism and white privilege They argue that the ignorance that underpins racism is not a simple gap in knowledge the accidental result of an epistemological oversight In the case of racial oppression ignorance often is actively produced for purposes of domination and exploitation But as these essays demonstrate ignorance is not simply a tool of oppression wielded by the powerful It can also be a strategy for survival an important tool for people of color to wield against white privilege and white supremacy The book concludes that understanding ignorance and the politics of such ignorance should be a key element of epistemological and social political analyses for it has the potential to reveal the role of power in the construction of what is known and provide a lens for the political values at work in knowledge practices

Making Threats Betsy Hartmann, Banu Subramaniam, Charles Zerner, 2005 Today we live in times of proliferating fears The daily updates on the ongoing war on terror amplify fear and anxiety as if they were necessary and important aspects of our reality Concerns about the environment increasingly take center stage as stories and images abound about deadly viruses alien species invasions scarcity of oil water food safety of GMOs biological weapons and fears of overpopulation Making Threats Biofears and Environmental Anxieties addresses how such environmental and biological fears are used to manufacture threats to individual national and global security Contributors from environmental studies political science international security biology sociology and anthropology discuss what they share in common the view that fears should be critically examined to avoid unnecessary alarm and scapegoating of people and nations as the enemy Other In these highly original and thought provoking essays Making Threats focuses on five themes security scarcity purity circulation and terror No other book has systematically examined the proliferation of fear in the context of current world events and from such a multidisciplinary perspective It consolidates in one place cutting edge research and reflection on how the contemporary landscape of fear shapes and is shaped by environmental and biological discourses By uncovering the linguistic tools that make fear resonate in the public consciousness by identifying the interests that create or are sustained by fears in short by giving fears histories Making Threats Biofears and Environmental Anxieties engages with some of the most potent and disturbing political and cultural aspects of the contemporary scene

The Revolution Will Not Be Funded INCITE! Women of Color Against Violence INCITE!, 2017-03-02 A trillion dollar industry the US non profit sector is one of the world's largest economies From art museums and university hospitals to think tanks and church charities over 1.5 million organizations of staggering diversity share the tax exempt 501 c 3 designation if little else Many social justice organizations have joined this world often blunting political goals to satisfy government and foundation mandates But even as funding shrinks many activists often find it difficult to imagine movement building outside the non profit model The Revolution Will Not Be Funded gathers essays by radical activists educators and non profit staff from around the globe who critically rethink the long term consequences of what they call the non profit industrial complex Drawing on their own experiences the contributors track the history of non profits and provide strategies to transform and work outside them Urgent and visionary The Revolution Will Not Be Funded presents a biting critique of the quietly devastating role the non profit industrial complex plays in managing dissent Contributors Christine E Ahn Robert L Allen Alisa Bierria Nicole Burrowes Communities Against Rape and Abuse CARA William Cordery Morgan Cousins Ruth Wilson Gilmore Stephanie Guilloud Adjoa Florncia Jones de Almeida Tiffany Lethabo King Paul Kivel Soniya Munshi Ewuare Osayande Amara H P rez Project South Institute for the Elimination of

Poverty and Genocide Dylan Rodriguez Paula X Rojas Ana Clarissa Rojas Durazo Sisters in Action for Power Andrea Smith Eric Tang Madonna Thunder Hawk Ije Ude Craig Willse Global Lockdown Julia Sudbury, Julia Chinyere Oparah, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Feminism and War Robin Riley, Chandra Talpade Mohanty, Minnie Bruce Pratt, 2013-04-04 Women across the globe are being dramatically affected by war as currently waged by the USA But there has been little public space for dialogue about the complex relationship between feminism women and war The editors of Feminism and War have brought together a diverse set of leading theorists and activists who examine the questions raised by ongoing American military initiatives such as What are the implications of an imperial nation state laying claim to women's liberation What is the relation between this claim and resulting American foreign policy and military action Did American intervention and invasion in fact result in liberation for women in Afghanistan and Iraq What multiple concepts are embedded in the phrase women's liberation How are these connected to the specifics of religion culture history economics and nation within current conflicts What is the relation between the lives of Afghan and Iraqi women before and after invasion and that of women living in the US How do women who define themselves as feminists resist or acquiesce to this nation state claim in current theory and organizing Feminism and War reveals and critically analyzes the complicated ways in which America uses gender race class nationalism imperialism to justify legitimate and continue war Each chapter builds on the next to develop an anti racist feminist politics that places imperialist power and forms of resistance to it central to its comprehensive analysis

Global Migration, Social Change, and Cultural Transformation E. Elliott, J. Payne, P. Ploesch, 2007-11-26 The essays in this collection work toward a larger goal of separating globalization from strictly economic considerations The authors instead look at globalization as a force that produces profound social and cultural consequences including migration struggles for social change and the transformations of aesthetic practices

Underground Codes Kathryn Russell-Brown, 2004-02 An active sociologist questions deeply seeded racism and codes that influence the US law enforcement

Handbook of Feminist Research Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber, 2012 The second edition of the Handbook of Feminist Research Theory and Praxis presents both a theoretical and practical approach to conducting social science research on for and about women The Handbook enables readers to develop an understanding of feminist research by introducing a range of feminist epistemologies methodologies and methods that have had a significant impact on feminist research practice and women's studies scholarship The Handbook continues to provide a set of clearly defined research concepts that are devoid of as much technical language as possible It continues to engage readers with cutting edge debates in the field as well as the practical applications and issues for those whose research affects social policy and social change It also expands on the wealth of interdisciplinary understanding of feminist research praxis that is grounded in a tight link between epistemology methodology and method The second edition of this Handbook will provide researchers with the tools for excavating subjugated knowledge on women's lives and the lives of other marginalized groups with the goals of empowerment and social change      Workable Sisterhood Michele Tracy Berger, 2010-07-28 Workable Sisterhood is an empirical look at sixteen HIV positive women who have a history of drug use conflict with the law or a history of working in the sex trade What makes their experience with the HIV AIDS virus and their political participation different from their counterparts of people with HIV Michele Tracy Berger argues that it is the influence of a phenomenon she labels intersectional stigma a complex process by which women of color already experiencing race class and gender oppression are also labeled judged and given inferior treatment because of their status as drug users sex workers and HIV positive women The work explores the barriers of stigma in relation to political participation and demonstrates how stigma can be effectively challenged and redirected The majority of the women in Berger's book are women of color in particular African Americans and Latinas The study elaborates the process by which these women have become conscious of their social position as HIV positive and politically active as activists advocates or helpers She builds a picture of community based political participation that challenges popular medical and scholarly representations of crack addicted prostitutes and HIV positive women as social problems or victims rather than as agents of social change Berger argues that the women's development of a political identity is directly related to a process called life reconstruction This process includes substance abuse treatment the recognition of gender as a salient factor in their lives and the use of nontraditional political resources      Fertile Matters Elena R. Gutiérrez, 2009-06-03 While the stereotype of the persistently pregnant Mexican origin woman is longstanding in the past fifteen years her reproduction has been targeted as a major social problem for the United States Due to fear fueled news reports and public perceptions about the changing composition of the nation's racial and ethnic makeup the so called Latinization of America the reproduction of Mexican immigrant women has become a central theme in contemporary U S politics since the early 1990s In this exploration Elena R Guti rrez considers these public stereotypes of Mexican American and Mexican immigrant women as hyper fertile baby machines who breed like rabbits She draws on social constructionist perspectives to examine the historical and sociopolitical evolution of these racial ideologies and the related beliefs that Mexican origin families are unduly large and that Mexican American and Mexican immigrant women do not use birth control Using the coercive sterilization of Mexican origin women in Los Angeles as a case study Guti rrez opens a dialogue on the racial politics of reproduction and how they have developed for women of Mexican origin in the United States She illustrates how the ways we talk and think about reproduction are part of a system of racial domination that shapes social policy and affects individual women's lives
