Cline, 1979-05-01 Alternative Views of the New International Economic Order Jorge Lozoya, Jaime Estevez, Rosario Green, 2013-10-22 Alternative Views of the New International Economic Order A Survey and Analysis of Major Academic Research Reports focuses on research on the principles and objectives of the New International Economic Order including concerns on nutrition self reliance information technology global security and energy resources The manuscript first discusses development as a global concept as well as global security nutrition development and energy and natural resources The book then takes a look at international monetary and financial issues and international trade Topics include reform of the international monetary system collapse of the general agreement on tariffs and trade and proposals in global projects The publication examines transnational enterprises and technology transfer and food program including transnational corporations and self reliance national sovereignty technology transfer and transnational enterprises The book is a vital reference for readers interested in the study of the New International Economic Order The Politics of International Economic Relations Jeffrey A. Hart, Joan Edelman Spero, 2013-06-17 The first and definitive book of its kind Joan Spero's The Politics of International Economic Relations has been fully updated to reflect the sweeping changes in the international arena With the expertise of co author Jeffrey Hart the fifth edition strengthens the coverage of political and economic relations since the end of the Cold War economic polarization in developing nations and the roots of economic decline in centrally planned economies A new chapter on industrial policy and competitiveness debates further illustrates the changing dynamics of International Political Economy Ideal as a supplement to the International Relations course or as the core text in International Political Economy Spero and Hart's The Politics of International Economic Relations continues to give students the breadth and depth of scholarship needed to understand the politics of world economy New International Economic Order Pradip K. Ghosh, 1984-09-25 Financial resources of the magnitude form and character necessary to support changes in the structure of production in developing countries are essential for progress toward a new more equitable international economic order Inadequacies in the current monetary and financial system contribute to the underutilization of resources productive to developing countries and to the maintenance of economic imbalance This volume demonstrates the need for a systematic attack on the acute problems of poverty and underdevelopment It provides background information and data for those directly involved in the formulation of development theory and the implementation of development policy The theory developed and practical experience discussed in these essays provide valuable perspectives on the continuing efforts to realign the international economic order International Economic Disorder Gerald K. Helleiner, 1983-09-29 Economic Analysis and Political Ideology Karl Brunner, 1996-10-17 Every economist would benefit from reading this book It contains the papers of an imaginative rigorous and generous scholar

Geoffrey Wood The Economic Journal These volumes provide insight into a man absorbed and preoccupied by economic scholarship Economic Analysis and Political Ideology the first volume with a foreword by Nobel Laureate James Buchanan reproduces articles dealing with Professor Brunner's socioeconomic analysis The second volume Monetary Theory and Monetary Policy with a foreword by Alan Meltzer deals with macroeconomic issues Dealing with the Debt Crisis Ishrat Husain, Ishac Diwan, 1989 The debt crisis in perspective Debt management in the late 1980s Debt reduction and recontracting Assisting the Developing Countries United States. Congressional Budget Office, 1980 Recueil Des Cours, 1989-IV Académie de droit international de La Haye, 1990-11-01 The Academy is an institution for the study teaching of public private international law related subjects Its purpose is to encourage a thorough impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law The courses deal with the theoretical practical aspects of the subject including legislation case law All courses at the Academy are in principle published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law This volume contains Reform but not Revolution General Course on Private International Law by Peter M NORTH Questions de droit international prive et dommages catastrophiques par Tito BALLARINO Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis, 1988 International Economic Policy Research, 1980 International Labour Documentation International Labour Office. Central Library and Documentation Branch, International Labour Organization. Central Library and Documentation Branch, 1983 The New Economics Of The Less Developed Countries Nake Kamrany, 2019-07-11 After a quarter century of experimentation with economic development in the poorer countries the disarray and in some cases the calamitous results are so obvious that a fresh look at and reexamination of traditional assumptions methodologies theories and policies is needed The contributors to this volume explore with supporting theoretical frameworks and empirical evidence the new perceptions concerning the development of the poor countries providing clear and sophisticated treatments of North South bargaining commodity power indexation the theory of power and the international distribution of rights and resources and the effectiveness of international organizations as vehicles for conflict resolution The authors discuss the position and prospects of the non oil producing less developed countries focusing on measurements of the quality of life in these countries growth and income distribution policies and the effectiveness of public expenditures to enhance social welfare The Rush to Policy Peter William House, Roger Roger Don Shull, Rush to Policy explores the appropriate role of technical analysis in policy formulation The authors ask when and how the use of sophisticated analytic techniques in decision making benefits the nation They argue that these techniques are too often used in situations where they may not be needed or understood by the decision maker where they may not be to answer the questions raised but are nonetheless required by law House and Shull provide an excellent empirical base for describing the impact of politics on policies policy analysis and policy analysts They examine cost benefit analysis risk analysis and decision analysis and assess their ability to substitute for the current decision making process in the public sector They examine the political basis of public sector decision making how individuals and organizations make decisions and the ways decisions are made in the federal sector Also they discuss the mandate to use these methods in the policy formulation process The book is written by two practicing federal policy analysts who in a decade of service as policy researchers developed sophisticated quantitative analytic and decision making techniques They then spent several years trying to use them in the real world Success and failures are described in illuminating detail providing insight not commonly found in such critiques The authors delineate the interaction of politics and technical issues Their book describes policy analysis as it is not how it ought to be Peter W House is the director of policy research and analysis at the National Science Foundation He is the author of ten books on multidisciplinary science and technology policy research and analyses in government private and university sectors including The Art of Public Policy Analysis and with Roger D Shull Regulatory Reform Politics and the Environment and Regulations and Science Management of Research on Demand Roger D Shull is a senior analyst at the Division of Policy Research and Analysis National Science Foundation

International Law: Politics and Values Louis Henkin, 2023-11-27 This volume derives from a series of lectures delivered as the general course at the Hague Academy of International law in July 1989 Like those lectures this volume does not pretend to provide a complete treatise covering all international law Rather it offers a particular perspective on the principal subjects of traditional international law elaborates new developments and dares reexamine assumptions and premises The book is built on three themes The first addresses law as politics and international law as the law of a political system now comprised of more than 180 separate independent states The essential autonomy of states accounts for the political as well as economic and cultural heterogeneity in a pluralist and fragmented system and international law as its common denominator of normative expression A second theme explores change in international law as reflecting change in the values and purposes of the international political system It traces the pursuit through law of the traditional ideal of the state system to secure every state s right to realize its own agenda through its own institutions and the superimposed contemporary purpose to promote individual human rights and welfare in every society The third theme perceives a movement in the law from conceptualism to functionalism from logical deduction out of abstract principles to pragmatic attention to practical needs and solutions to new and old human problems Each of these themes dominates in several chapters but the other themes are not absent from any of them Each will add a fresh perspective and contribute to understanding the nature and operation of international law in the international political system at the turn of a new century
