The Pragmatics of Humour across Discourse Domains

Edited by Marta Dynel

University of Lodz

This edited volume brings together a range of contributions solely on the linguistics of humour. Rather than favour one approach, this collection of articles gives a state-of-the-art picture of current directions in pragmatic humour studies. The contributors assume multifarious theoretical perspectives and discuss a wide array of issues germane to different types of humour across discourse domains. Consequently, the whole gamut of humorous forms and mechanisms are elucidated, such as surrealist irony, incongruity in register humour, mechanisms of pun formation, as well as interpersonal functions of conversational humour. In addition, the papers address diversified manifestations of humour, such as puns in Shakespeare's plays, gendered jokes on the Internet, sexuality in anti-proverbs, Woody Allen's prose, humour in "Friends", and parody by Monty Python's Flying Circus. Most importantly, the chapters offer new research findings and advocate novel theoretical conceptualisations of humorous phenomena, drawing on the wealth of existing scholarship. Therefore, the volume is bound to serve as a well of knowledge and inspiration for both seasoned and beginning researchers with interests in the pragmatics of humour.

Beyond Misunderstanding Kristin Bührig, Jan D. ten Thije, 2006-05-09 This book challenges two tacit presumptions in the field of intercultural communication research Firstly misunderstandings can frequently be found in intercultural communication although one could not claim that intercultural communication is constituted by misunderstandings alone This volume shows how new perspectives on linguistic analyses of intercultural communication go beyond the analysis of misunderstanding Secondly intercultural communication is not solely constituted by the fact that individuals from different cultural groups interact Each contribution of this volume analyses to what extent instances of discourse are institutionally and or interculturally determined These linguistic reflections involve different theoretical frameworks e g functional grammar systemic functional linguistics functional pragmatics rhetorical conversation analysis ethno methodological conversation analysis linguistic anthropology and a critical discourse approach As the contributions focus on the discourse of genetic counseling gate keeping discourse international team co operation international business communication workplace discourse internet communication and lamentation discourse the book exemplifies that the analysis of intercultural communication is organized in response to social needs and therefore may contribute to the social justification of linguistics

Grant,2003-01-01 From government eavesdropping to Internet crime reality TV to computer mediated communication and mobile telephones the face of communication has fundamentally changed The contingencies and complexities of communication can be witnessed in old and new media in changing patterns of face to face interactions and the pluralization of the self and blurring of the distinction between the real and virtual To date theories of interaction have been slow to conceptualize communication in terms of its instabilities Social communication models remain heavily indebted to an interaction paradigm which is often intuitive epistemologically conservative and even a critical By contrast an interdisciplinary programme in communication covers a complex field which requires the broadest possible range of approaches beyond current disciplinary confines This collection seeks to examine some of the implications for our understanding of interaction when communication is conceptualized as a complex uncertainty Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 The Post-communist Condition Aleksandra Galasińska,Dariusz Galasiński,2010 This volume offers interdisciplinary perspectives on discourses in one national context of post communist transformation Proposing a macro micro approach to discourse analysis and transformation it examines a spectrum of topics including Polish history with its interpreters changes in political bodies and the media policies of the Catholic Church and the Institute of National Remembrance xenophobia and anti-Semitism with the emergence of unemployment and homelessness experiences of new gender relations and migrations In effect drawing upon unique sets of data the book shows how post communist transformation can be understood through analyses of the changing public and private discourses It shows Polish post communism as a fragile and uneasy transformation with people and institutions struggling to make sense of it and of life within it The volume will be of interest to a broad range of social scientists discourse analysts sociologists modern historians and political scientists as well as to the informed lay public American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1998 R R Bowker Publishing,1999-03 Us and Others Anna Duszak,2002-01-01 It is natural for people to make the distinction between in group Us and out group members Others What is it that brings people together or keeps them apart Ethnicity nationality professional expertise or life style And above all what is the role of language in communicating solidarity and detachment The papers in this volume look at the various cognitive social and linguistic aspects of how social identities are constructed foregrounded and redefined in interaction Concepts and methodologies are taken from studies in language variation and change multilingualism conversation analysis genre analysis sociolinguistics critical discourse analysis as well as translation studies and applied linguistics A wide range of languages is brought into focus in a variety of situational social and discursive environments The book is addressed to scholars and students of linguistics and related areas of social communication studies Pragmatic Markers and Sociolinguistic Variation Gisle Andersen,2001-01-01 This book combines theoretical work in linguistic pragmatics and sociolinguistics with empirical work based on a corpus of London adolescent conversation It makes a general contribution to the study of pragmatic markers as it proposes an analytical model that involves notions such as subjectivity interactional and textual capacity and the distinction between contextual alignment divergence These notions are defined according to how information contained in an utterance interacts with the cognitive environment of the hearer Moreover the model captures the diachronic development of markers from lexical items via processes of grammaticalisation arguing that markerhood may be viewed as a gradient phenomenon The empirical work concerns the use of like as a marker as well as a characteristic use of two originally interrogative forms innit and is it which are used as attitudinal markers throughout the inflectional paradigm despite the fact that they contain a third person singular neuter pronoun The author provides an in depth analysis of these features in terms of pragmatic functions diachronic development and sociolinguistic variation thus adding support to the hypothesis that adolescents play an important role in language variation and change      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001      Bibliographie linguistique de l'année 1998/Linguistic Bibliography for the Year 1998 Mark Janse,Sijmen Tol,2002-11-30 Bibliographie linguistique Linguistic Bibliography is the annual bibliography of linguistics published by the Permanent International Committee of Linguists under the auspices of the International Council of Philosophy and Humanistic Studies of UNESCO With a tradition of more than forty five years the first two volumes covering the years 1939 1947 were published in 1949 1950 Bibliographie linguistique is by far the most comprehensive bibliography in the field It covers all branches of linguistics and related disciplines both theoretical and descriptive from all geographical areas including less known and extinct languages with particular attention to the many endangered languages of the world Up to date information is guaranteed by the collaboration of some fifty contributing specialists from all over the world With over 23 000 titles arranged according to a detailed state of the art classification Bibliographie linguistique remains the standard reference book for every student of language and linguistics      Books in Print, 2006-2007 ,2006      Brinkman's cumulatieve catalogus van boeken ,1999 Voorts een alphabetische lijst van Nederlandsche boeken in Belgi uitgegeven      Brinkman's Cumulatieve catalogus van boeken de in Nederland en vlaanderen zijn uitgegeven of herdrukke ,1998
