Political Economy Of Adult Education And Development:

The Political Economy of Adult Education and Development Frank Youngman, 2000-06-15 In the formerly colonial world the discourse of development has established an almost unquestioned intellectual and political dominance Adult educators their purposes and their programmes are inevitably deeply shaped by this fact Frank Youngman believes that adult educators need to have an understanding of the various different theories of development and how different development strategies and biases impact on their own work The purpose of his book is to provide a theory of applied political economy to explain the interface between society and adult education in developing countries The author's own approach is broadly influenced by the Marxist tradition but one that seeks to transcend many of the limitations and rigidities often prevalent in the past He introduces adult educators to the main competing theories of development the modernisation dependency neo liberal and various alternative approaches He then demonstrates the power of his analytical tools by examining a variety of specific issues affecting adult education These include the impact of foreign aid social inequalities notably class gender and ethnic inequalities and the relationship between state and civil society in peripheral capitalist societies The book draws on a wealth of empirical information and case studies from various parts of the world but with particular attention to the country which the author knows best Botswana Its signal contribution is its elaboration of a theory of the political economy of adult education in the context of development and its demonstration of the applicability of this theoretical framework including its usefulness in generating appropriate research agendas

Political Economy of Adult Learning Systems Richard Desjardins, 2017-01-12 Based on comparative adult education statistics offered by the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development OECD Survey of Adult Skills PIAAC and country case studies this book analyses the policies and structures that foster adult learning It examines a variety of forms of adult learning ranging from initial forms of post compulsory education such as upper secondary tracks and tertiary education to firm training compensatory adult education and learning for civic and leisure oriented purposes Throughout the book adult learning systems are directly linked to a variety of structural and public policy frameworks using a comparative welfare state approach Themes such as pathways to learning and transition systems participation patterns in higher education and participation patterns in other organized forms of adult learning are covered The countries discussed are the UK the USA Korea Denmark Finland Norway Germany and the Netherlands Situated at the intersection between scholarship and policy and using a mixed methods approach this title contributes fundamental insights into the further study of policies and structures related to alternative post compulsory learning pathways

The Political Economy of Adult Education and Development Frank Youngman, 1995 The Political Economy of Adult Education, 1980 The Social Context of Adult Learning in Africa Sabo Amin Indabawa, Stanley Mpfu, 2006 This book examines how adult education is influenced by and has an influence on the society in which it takes place It presents a clear analysis of the development challenges and sociological realities of the adult education context and explores the potential of adult education to help African countries and communities achieve their developmental goals Issues discussed include adult education social change and development community education race ethnicity and religion social class and gender empowerment democracy health and HIV AIDS poverty and debt globalisation and the environment

Antonio Gramsci: A Pedagogy to Change the World Nicola Pizzolato, John D. Holst, 2017-06-12 This volume provides evidence for the argument of a central place of pedagogy in the interpretation of Gramsci's political theory Gramsci's view that every relationship of hegemony is necessarily a pedagogical relationship makes it imperative to dismiss narrow and formal interpretations of his educational theories as applying to schooling only This book argues that what is required rather is an inquiry into the Italian thinker's broad conceptualisation of pedagogy which he thought of as a quintessential political activity central to understanding and transforming society Preceded by a broad introduction that positions Gramsci in his context and in the literature the essays in this book critically revisit the many passages of the Prison Notebooks and pre-prison writings where Gramsci addresses the nexus between politics and pedagogy Some essays apply those concepts to specific contexts The book for the first time brings to the attention of an English speaking audience voices from the current historiography in Italy and Latin America We are forced at regular intervals to consider how Gramsci might still be useful in particular national territories in an international context How can we carry on with pessimism of the intelligence but find some basis for optimism of the will From the foreword of Anne Showstack Sassoon Visiting Professor of Politics at the Department of Politics at Birkbeck University of London

International Handbook on Education Development in the Asia-Pacific Wing On Lee,Phillip Brown,A. Lin Goodwin,Andy Green,2023-11-20 The Springer

International Handbook of Educational Development in Asia Pacific breaks new ground with a comprehensive fine grained and diverse perspective on research and education development throughout the Asia Pacific region In 13 sections and 127

chapters the Handbook delves into a wide spectrum of contemporary topics including educational equity and quality language education learning and human development workplace learning teacher education and professionalization higher education organisations citizenship and moral education and high performing education systems The Handbook is grounded in specific Asia Pacific contexts and scholarly traditions using unique country specific narratives for example Vietnam and Melanesia and socio cultural investigations through lenses such as language identity or colonisation while offering parallel academic discourse and analyses framed by broader policy commentary from around the world Towards a Transformative Political Economy of Adult Education Paul Wangoola, Frank Youngman, 1996 Foundations of Adult Education in Africa Fredrick Nafukho, Fredrick Muyia Nafukho, Maurice Nyamanga Amutabi, Ruth Nabwala Otunga, 2005 This book presents key concepts information and principles that should underlie the practice of adult education in African contexts It assumes that adult educators should have a historical perspective on the current educational context understand how the colonial experience has impacted on indigenous traditions and be aware of the philosophical underpinnings of adult education activities The chapters introduce the foundations and history of adult education in Africa philosophy and adult education socio cultural political and economic environments opportunities and access for adult learners gender and development in adult education adult education as a developing profession information and communication technology globalization and adult education and policies and structures of lifelong learning The Political Economy of Singapore's Industrialization Garry Rodan, 2016-02-03 A study which challenges the dominant understanding of Singapore as a case where correct policies have made rapid industrialization possible and which raises questions about the possibility and appropriateness of its emulation Resources in Education, 2001 Food Pedagogies Rick Flowers, Elaine Swan, 2016-04-22 In recent years everyone from politicians to celebrity chefs has been proselytizing about how we should grow buy prepare present cook taste eat and dispose of food In light of this contributors to this book argue that food has become the target of intensified pedagogical activity across a range of domains including schools supermarkets families advertising and TV media Illustrated with a range of empirical studies this edited and interdisciplinary volume the first book on food pedagogies develops innovative and theoretical perspectives to problematize the practices of teaching and learning about food While many different pedagogues policy makers churches activists health educators schools tourist agencies chefs think we do not know enough about food and what to do with it the aims effects and politics of these pedagogies has been much less studied Drawing on a range of international studies diverse contexts genres and different methods this book provides new sites of investigation and lines of inquiry As a result of its broad ranging critical evaluation of food as classroom and food as teacher it provides theoretical resources for opening up the concept of pedagogy and assessing the moralities and politics of teaching and learning about food in the classroom and beyond Science Education in Context Richard K. Coll, Neil Taylor, 2019-02-18 This book presents an international perspective of the influence of educational context on science education The focus is on the interactions between curriculum development and implementation particularly in non Western and non English speaking contexts i e outside the UK USA Australia NZ etc An important and distinguishing feature of the book is that it draws upon the experiences and research from local experts from an extremely diverse cohort across the world 26 countries in total The book addresses topics such as curriculum development research or evaluation of an implemented curriculum discussion of pressures driving curriculum reform or implementation of new curricula e g technology or environmental education the influence of political cultural societal or religious mores on education governmental or ministerial drives for curriculum reform economic or other pressures driving curriculum reform the influence of external assessment regimes on curriculum and so on A Political Economy of Adult Education in Nigeria Glen Filson,1991

Political Sociology of Adult Education Carlos Alberto Torres,2013-09-03 Critical Theorist Carlos Alberto Torres offers a political sociology of adult learning and education based on Critical Social Theory and the always inspiring work of Paulo Freire Empirically grounded and theoretically sophisticated this new book follows the footsteps of his classic book published in the early nineties The Politics of Nonformal Education in Latin America Torres book offers comparative and international sociological analyses of adult learning and education an area in which there is an obsession with practice and an aversion to theory with some notable and laudable exceptions but which has the potential to provide avenues for social justice education in ways that no other systems and policies can This book revitalizes social theory in education and provides ample evidence of the power of adult learning and education examining a variety of policy documents connected with the various adult education congresses promoted by the UNESCO which are thoroughly scrutinized for what they bring to or omit from the policy agenda In the context of new developments in adult learning and education particularly the impact of multiple globalizations neoliberalism and the new role of international organizations in reconceptualizing lifelong learning new evidence based research new narratives and the vibrancy of social movements striving for a new and possible world it is clear that new theoretical designs were needed making this is a must read book Historical And Political Economy Of
