Programming For Parks Recreation And Leisure Services A Servant Leadership Approach:

Programming for Parks, Recreation, and Leisure Services Debra Jean Jordan, Donald G. DeGraaf, 2019

Programming for Parks, Recreation, and Leisure Services Donald G. DeGraaf, Debra Jean Jordan, Kathy H. DeGraaf, 2010

Meeting the needs of customers through effective recreation programs is imperative for leisure service organizations to survive and prosper in the 21st century. This new edition of Programming for Parks Recreation and Leisure Services retains its user friendly approach and servant leadership foundation. It includes updated material in all chapters and additional material about social entrepreneurship and strategic planning. In addition, programmer profiles have also been added to each chapter to introduce students to recreation programmers in a variety of positions. Steps to Successful Programming

Donald G. DeGraaf, Debra Jean Jordan, Kathy H. DeGraaf, 1999. Organized on a chapter by chapter basis, this workbook provides reflective exercises designed to help students and professionals apply the knowledge and materials found throughout Programming for Parks Recreation and Leisure Services A Servant Leadership Approach. Programming for Parks, Recreation, and Leisure Services Debra Jean Jordan, Donald G. DeGraaf, Kathy H. DeGraaf, 2005. Practicing Servant-Leadership Larry C. Spears, Michele Lawrence, 2016-10-26. Practicing Servant Leadership brings together a group of exceptional thinkers who offer a compendium of thought on the topic of bringing servant leadership into the daily lives of leaders. Each contributor focuses on his or her area of expertise, exploring how servant leadership works in the real world using examples from a variety of organizations such as businesses, nonprofits, churches, schools, foundations, and leadership organizations. Highlights of the book's twelve essays include information on how the idealistic vision of the servant as leader works even in the competitive world of business, encouraging leaders to begin by looking at what they themselves want to become and then to bring this knowledge into their daily leadership; how the principles of servant leadership can enhance our understanding and practice of philanthropy; examining the board chairperson's especially vital role as a servant leader; exploring what leaders learn from being followers. Leadership for Recreation, Parks, and Leisure Services Christopher R. Edginton, Susan D. Hudson, 2005. This third edition is unique. In the first edition, entitled Leadership in Recreation and Leisure Service Organisations, the authors organised the effort into separate theoretical and practical applications sections that covered a variety of direct service areas. The second edition was split into textbooks, Leadership in Recreation and Leisure Service Organisations and Leadership for Recreation and Leisure Programs and Settings. The current effort focuses on bringing together a number of interrelated elements that influence leadership in recreation parks and leisure service organisations. The first part of the book discusses the work of leaders and includes presentation of theoretical and foundational information. The second part focuses on leaders in groups. Finally, the third part is dedicated to leadership elements in a number of recreation parks and leisure service settings. Leadership in Recreation Parks and Leisure Services also features many distinctive pedagogical elements. The authors have identified learning objectives and key terms at the beginning of each chapter This will be useful in helping students focus their attention to the intent of each chapter In addition each chapter has marginal quotations featuring perspectives from notable individuals These quotations will provide heightened awareness and understanding of the subject matter Also featured in each chapter is an outstanding leader in the recreation parks and leisure service field These vignettes known as A Legacy of Leadership feature historic and current figures in the recreation parks and leisure service field Further leadership perspectives from professionals across the United States are included in the section entitled Leadership A Point of View from the Profession Each chapter is concluded with discussion questions a case study and experiential learning experiences from which students can explore and analyse their own thinking engage in problems solving strategies and reflect upon their own thinking regarding leadership
