Supernaturally John Piper, 2017-04-13 The Bible reveals glorious things And yet we often miss its power because we read it the same way we read any other book In Reading the Bible Supernaturally best selling author John Piper teaches us how to read the Bible in light of its divine author In doing so he highlights the Bible's unique ability to reveal God to humanity in a way that informs our minds transforms our hearts and ignites our love With insights into the biblical text drawn from decades of experience studying preaching and teaching Scripture Piper helps us experience the transformative power of God's Word a power that extends beyond the mere words on the page Ultimately Piper shows us that in the seemingly ordinary act of reading the Bible something supernatural happens we encounter the living God A Year in the Psalms Brenton Cox, 2015-10-20 If you're a Christian who has read the Bible over the course of a year congratulations But what do you do next if you seek a more in depth understanding of Scripture The next logical step is to go back to the Bible this time at a slower pace and study key sections of God's word in greater depth. Author Brenton Cox invites you to spend a year with him studying one of the greatest books of the Bible, Psalms. A Year in the Psalms is a daily devotional book designed to share the message of the psalms over the course of a year, delivered one psalm per week. It is an exploration of life lessons that will show you how to have a fresh start in life, how to better listen to God, and how with God's help to overcome your fears. Training Asians to Reach the World Dave Johnson, 2019-06-07. Everett and Evelyn McKinney have been Assemblies of God Missionaries to the Asia Pacific Region since 1969. Their first assignment as appointed missionaries on the Philippine Field was at Immanuel Bible Institute 1969-1975, where Everett served as president, business manager, and faculty. Evelyn was the Academic Dean and a faculty member. From 1977 to 1984, Everett was the president of Far East Advanced School of Theology (FEAST) and now Asia Pacific Theological Seminary (APTS). From 1977-1984, he also served as a faculty member at the institution. Evelyn was a faculty member and served as the Interim Academic Dean and Dean of Students for one year during their time at FEAST. Since 1987 to the present, Everett and Evelyn have served as non-resident faculty at APTS. They have been Bible school educational consultants for the Asia Pacific Education Office (APEO) since 1988. Evelyn serves as the secretary for the Teacher Development Southern Asia Bible College, Bangalore, India. Evangel Theological Seminary, Kiev, Ukraine. God's calling upon their lives has connected them with many church leaders and students. They walk in the Spirit, step out in faith, and live their lives for the glory and honor of God. Students are very important to Everett and Evelyn. A few years ago, they could have made the decision to retire from teaching, training, and equipping students. But no, they kept going. And they continue to go around the world preparing students as laborers for the ripened harvest fields around the world. They continue to build strong relationships with their students, and students love, respect, and honor Everett and Evelyn. From the foreword by Weldyn B. Houger. The Art of Preaching Old Testament Poetry Steven D. Mathewson, 2024-11-05. Preachers often struggle with preaching Old Testament poetry. They are uncertain how to preach the highly emotive poems in Psalms, the one-liners in Proverbs, the tedious conversations in Job, the esoteric observations about life in Ecclesiastes, and the confusing love poems in the Song of Songs. Here, leading pastor-theologian Steven Mathewson instructs and inspires preachers to preach some of the most challenging and some of the richest material in the Old Testament. This companion to his successful The Art of Preaching Old Testament Narrative guides readers through preaching the oft-neglected Old Testament poetic books. Mathewson introduces foundational issues and offers basic methodology and preaching strategies that are faithful to the text and sensitive to its listeners. Highlighting Mathewson's skill at bringing the riches of the Old Testament to bear on the life of the church, this book makes scholarship on the poetic books accessible for pastors and pastors in training. It also includes sample sermons. Hebrews R. Hollis Gause, 2022-01-17. This commentary, written from a distinctively Pentecostal perspective, is primarily for pastors, lay persons, and Bible students. It is based upon the best scholarship written in popular language and communicates the meaning of the text with minimal technical distractions. The authors offer a running exposition on the text and extended comments on matters of special significance for Pentecostals. They acknowledge and interact with alternative interpretations of individual passages. This commentary also provides periodic opportunities for reflection upon and personal response to the biblical text.

Forgotten Songs Ray Van Neste, C. Richard Wells, 2012-10-01 Many in the church have forgotten the Psalms. They may still be read but the rich history of using them as the backbone of Christian worship from the earliest days of the church until the 19th century is unknown. For some the thought of praying or singing the Psalms alone or with others is entirely foreign. In this we are out of step with our forebears in the faith; we are an oddity in the history of the church and duly suffer for it. Drawn by the rich spiritual depth produced in so many who have invested themselves in the Psalms, Forgotten Songs seeks to reclaim the content in various areas of worship. This book first examines biblical and historical foundations for the use of the Psalms in worship. The Old Testament and New Testament are revisited, noting the nature and purpose of the Psalms and how they were used. Examples of the Psalms being employed by the Church Fathers and throughout the Reformation are also explored. The second section of the book examines specific ways of using the Psalms in our worship today. These aren't abstract ideas or suggestions but are examples from the personal and corporate lives of individuals who have been significantly impacted by the Psalms. From group singing of the Psalms to praying Psalms publicly and privately to pastoral care and the place of lament, Forgotten Songs will help others remember to actively use the Psalms in their own worship lives individually and corporately. Contributors include such academicians and authors as Craig A. Blaising, Douglas Bond, Randall Bush, Jack Collins, Chad Davis, J. Michael Garrett, James H. Grant Jr., James Richard Joiner, Ray Ortlund, Leland Ryken, Calvin Seerveld, Justin Wainscott, and John D. Witvliet, along with editors Ray Van Neste and C. Richard Wells.

The Land Cries Out Salim J. Munayer, Lisa Loden, 2011-10-21 Our theology does not exist in a vacuum but must relate to the world we inhabit and must influence our moral and ethical actions. This is especially true when discussing theology of the land in the context of a violent territorial conflict. The Holy Land has seen so much bloodshed that the earth itself is crying out to God. The chapters presented in this book form a unique collection of voices speaking from different perspectives on the issue of the theology of the land. These voices include Messianic Jewish and Palestinian Christian theologians and scholars who live in the Holy Land as well as others from around the world. The various chapters reflect a wide spectrum of opinion and reveal how much disagreement still exists among followers of Christ. However, the dialogue generated by having these opposing voices side by side speaking to each other rather than past each other is encouraging. This book is both challenging and inspirational and contributes in an innovative way to this important discussion.

Praying the Psalms of Jesus James W. Sire, 2009-09-20 At key moments in his life on earth Jesus Christ the very Son of God turned to the Psalms for words to express his deepest thoughts and emotions It is not hard to imagine Jesus his mind and heart saturated with the words and thoughts of the Psalms as they were prayed aloud in the Temple going off early in the morning to pray How much must he have mouthed the words of the Psalms and given them a fulfillment They became his answering speech to his heavenly Father In these pages you will discover how the psalms that relate closely to the mission of Jesus can also become our answering speech We will begin our journey into the mind of Christ by immersing ourselves in several psalms which Jesus himself refers to and fulfills And then in the second half of the book we will immerse ourselves in psalms that Jesus would have meditated on during his time on earth focusing on the heart and mind of Jesus as he prayed the psalms Structural analysis of each psalm will help us grow our ability to read the Psalms The guided personal prayer liturgy with each chapter will help us go deeper in the experience of praying the Psalms Through these psalms we will discover more of the human life of our Lord and Savior And in the process we will discover more of who we are as we come before our holy God Also included a group discussion and prayer experience to accompany each chapter

God the Trinity Malcolm B. Yarnell, 2016-04-15 Is the Trinity biblical Is it necessary to affirm God as three persons in one being Despite a renewed interest in the Trinity in recent years many Christians including most evangelicals either relegate the Son of God to creaturely status or repudiate the personhood of the Holy Spirit In addition numerous scholars affirm that the doctrine of the Trinity is not clearly revealed in Scripture Is the Trinity merely a philosophical construction or is it essential to orthodox Christianity Drawing on hermeneutics and biblical and historical theology Malcolm Yarnell crafts a careful and clear response to these issues through exegesis of pivotal texts from both testaments He meticulously examines the foundational Hebrew confession known as the Shema Matthew's great commission the divine relations in the Gospel of John Paul's Corinthian benediction the opening hymn of Ephesians and the throne room vision of the Apocalypse Also considered are the relationships of language to revelation and history to metaphysics along with recent appeals to recover patristic exegesis and the Christian imagination He also challenges the reader to discern the implications of the Trinity for personal salvation as well as corporate worship

The Compassionate, but Punishing God Nathan C. Lane, 2010-03-08 Lane provides a canonical analysis of the credo of Exodus 34:6-7 and its major parallels in the Hebrew Bible He argues that the credo was an important theological expression for the ancient Israelites and that the final form of the Tanak is marked by the use of the credo These uses in the final form of the canon give evidence of the theological tension over the presence of the foreigners in the postexilic community And this tension is marked by the use of the credo in texts that emphasize YHWH's covenantal relationship with ancient Israel Torah movement toward the nations Prophets and YHWH as king over the whole earth
