in Contemporary British Fiction The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction, 1945-2010 David James,2015-10-06

The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction since 1945 provides insight into the critical traditions shaping the literary landscape of modern Britain The Cambridge Introduction to Postmodern Fiction Bran Nicol,2009-10-08 Postmodern fiction presents a challenge to the reader instead of enjoying it passively the reader has to work to understand its meanings to think about what fiction is and to question their own responses Yet this very challenge makes postmodern writing so much fun to read and rewarding to study Unlike most introductions to postmodernism and fiction this book places the emphasis on literature rather than theory It introduces the most prominent British and American novelists associated with postmodernism from the pioneers Beckett Borges and Burroughs to important post war writers such as Pynchon Carter Atwood Morrison Gibson Auster DeLillo and Ellis Designed for students and clearly written this Introduction explains the preoccupations styles and techniques that unite postmodern authors Their work is characterized by a self reflexive acknowledgement of its status as fiction and by the various ways in which it challenges readers to question common sense and commonplace assumptions about literature Marginality in the Contemporary British Novel Nicola Allen,2011-10-27 The Marginal as a concept has become an integral part of the British novel as it stands at the turn of the century Both popular and literary fiction since the mid 1970s has seen an increasing emphasis on the marginal subject This study offers readings of a wide range of contemporary British novels that represent characters or communities at the margin of society Nicola Allen analyses three conceptual categories representing the marginal subject in the contemporary British novel the character of the misfit or outsider the emergence of the grotesque and the rediscovery of previously marginalized narratives such as myth and fantasy This innovative and original monograph focuses on the contention that the contemporary novel of marginality conveys a belief in the socially transformative powers of narrative and suggests that narrative has played a central role in bringing marginal politics and marginal issues to the fore in contemporary Britain The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason,2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabulations that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book

The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates

Contemporary Fiction Jago Morrison, 2003 A much needed introduction to the field of contemporary fiction studies Introduces key areas of debate and offers in depth discussions of the most significant texts An ideal guide for those studying contemporary fiction for the first time

The Contemporary British Novel Philip Tew, 2007-06-26 Second edition of this guide for students studying contemporary British writing written by one of the key academics in the field of modern fiction studies

Modernism/Postmodernism Peter Brooker, 2014-09-25 The concepts of Modernism and Postmodernism constitute the single most dominant issue of twentieth century literature and culture and are the cause of much debate In this influential volume Peter Brooker presents some of the key viewpoints from a variety of major critics and sets these additionally alongside challenging arguments from Third World Black and Feminist perspectives His excellent Introduction and detailed headnotes for each section and essay provide an indispensable guide to interpreting the many different opinions and prove to be valuable contributions in their own right

The Historical Novel, Transnationalism, and the Postmodern Era Susan Brantly, 2017-02-17 This volume explores the genre of the historical novel and the variety of ways in which writers choose to represent the past How does an author s nationality or gender impact their artistic choices To what extent can historical novels appeal to a transnational audience This study demonstrates how histories can communicate across national borders often by invoking or deconstructing the very notion of nationhood Furthermore it traces how the concerns of the postmodern era such as postmodern critiques of historiography colonialism identity and the Enlightenment have impacted the genre of the historical novel and shows this impact has not been uniform throughout Western culture Not all historical novels written during the postmodern era are postmodern The historical novel as a genre occupies a problematic yet significant space in Cold War literary currents torn between claims of authenticity and the impossibility of accessing the past Historical novels from England America Germany and France are compared and contrasted with historical novels from Sweden testing a variety of theoretical perspectives in the process This pitting of a center against a periphery serves to highlight traits that historical novels from the West have in common but also how they differ The historical novel is not just a local regional phenomenon but has become during the postmodern era a transnational tool for exploring how we should think of nations and nationalism and what a society should or should not look like

Representation and the Twentieth-century Novel Paul D. Morris, 2005 Fiction after the Fatwa Madelena Gonzalez, 2021-11-22 Fiction after the Fatwa Salman Rushdie and the Charm of Catastrophe proposes for the first time an examination of what Rushdie has achieved as a writer since the fourteenth of February 1989 the date of the fatwa This study argues that his constant questioning of fictional form and the language used to articulate it have opened up new opportunities and further possibilities for writing in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Through close readings and intensive textual analysis arranged chronologically Fiction after the Fatwa provides a thought provoking reflection on the writer s achievements over the last thirteen years Aimed principally at academics and students but also of interest to the general reader it engages with the specific nature of the post fatwa fiction as it moves from the fairy tale world of Haroun and the Sea of Stories to the heartbreaking post realism of Fury Uncertain Mirrors Jesús Benito Sánchez, Ana María Manzananas Calvo, Begoña Simal González, 2009 Uncertain Mirrors realigns magical realism within a changing critical landscape from Aristotelian mimesis to Adorno s concept of negative dialectics In between the volume traverses a vast theoretical arena from postmodernism and postcolonialism to Levinasian philosophy and eco criticism The volume opens and closes with dialectical instability as it recasts the mutability of the term mimesis as both a world reflecting and a world creating mechanism Magical realism the authors contend offers another stance of the possible it also situates the reader at a hybrid aesthetic matrix inextricably linked to postcolonial theory postmodernism Bakhtinian theory and quantum physics As Uncertain Mirrors explores magical realist texts partake of modernist exhaustion as much as of postmodernist replenishment yet they stem from a different location of culture and direction of culture they offer complex aesthetic artifacts that in their recreation of alternative geographic and semiotic spaces dislocate hegemonic texts and ideologies Their unrealistic excess effects a breach in the totalized unity represented by 19th century realism and plays the dissonant chord of the particular and the non identical Beginning Postmodernism Tim Woods, 1999-08-20 Postmodernism has become the buzzword of contemporary society Yet it remains baffling in its variety of definitions contexts and associations Beginning Postmodernism aims to offer clear accessible and step by step introductions to postmodernism across a wide range of subjects It encourages readers to explore how the debates about postmodernism have emerged from basic philosophical and cultural ideas With its emphasis firmly on postmodernism in practice the book contains exercises and questions designed to help readers understand and reflect upon a variety of positions in the following areas of contemporary culture philosophy and cultural theory architecture and concepts of space visual art sculpture and the design arts popular culture and music film video and television culture and the social sciences A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literary Theory Raman Selden, 1993-06-08 Unsurpassed as a text for upper division and beginning graduate students Raman Selden s classic text is the liveliest most readable and most reliable guide to contemporary literary theory Includes applications of theory cross referenced to Selden s companion volume Practicing Theory and Reading Literature Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason,2016-12-12 The main aim of the book has been to include writers movements forms of writing and textual strategies critical ideas and texts that are significant in relation to postmodernist literature In addition important scholars journals and cultural processes have been included where these are felt to be relevant to an understanding of postmodernist writing This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the postmodernist literature and theater Visual Devices in Contemporary Prose Fiction Simon Barton,2016-01-26 This book acknowledges that the reader of a novel looks at and sees the page before they begin to read any text placed upon it Thus any disruptions to how a traditional page should look can have a large impact on the reading process The book critically engages with the visual appearance of graphically innovative contemporary prose fiction
