life times writings and reception Critical Essays on Daniel Defoe Roger D. Lund,1997 Critical essays about the works of Daniel Defoe The Longman Anthology of British Literature David Damrosch,Kevin J. H. Dettmar,2006 The Longman Anthology of British Literature: The Middle Ages David Damrosch,2003 The Longman Anthology of British Literature is the most comprehensive and thoughtfully arranged book on the market Approaching literature from a broad cultural perspective the anthology offers a rich selection of fiction drama and poetry by major British authors The second edition of The Longman Anthology of British Literature includes key major additions of important works an expanded illustration program and new translation of Beowulf Fresh and up to date introductions and notes are written by an editorial team whose members are all actively engaged in teaching and in current scholarship and one hundred illustrations show both artistic and cultural developments from the medieval period through the 18th Century Perspectives sections shed light on individual periods but are also positioned to link with surrounding works Companion readings provide additional context for and special insight into key readings For avid readers of British Literature Voices of the Self in Daniel Defoe's Fiction Zaixin Zhang,1993 The alternative Marxist approach to literary criticism in the present study consists of three vocal modes of interpretation the public voice the private voice and the homeless voice of the self The public voice represents the authorial vision shaped by dominant ideology that covers up the objective real while the private voice corresponds to the authorial conscious or unconscious insertion into radical ideology that turns the objective real into the ideological real However the homeless voice of the self may obliterate any ties with history and ideology A representation of the Marxist particular interest of the self the homeless voice echoes in the open space of the text and reaches for the distant real shaped by the reader's interpretive paradigms inside or outside the constraints of the institutional discourse The alternative Marxist approach values both history and theory in literary criticism as the interplay between the two may reinforce and supplement each other in their shared interpretive territory of the private voice of the self in the text although the public voice is more oriented towards history and the homeless voice towards theory The different voices of the self are exemplified in a critical reading of Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe Captain Singleton Moll Flanders and Roxana Such a study profits from both modern critical theory reader response postmodernism and feminist theory etc and historical insights into Defoe's fiction religious hermeneutics theology and medicine and gender issues in the eighteenth century etc Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Truman Capote-Stanley Elkin ,2000 Critical Survey of Long Fiction Frank Northen Magill,1991 World Literature Criticism: Cervantes-García Lorca James P. Draper,1992 Contains articles that provide a selection of criticism of works by thirty nine major writers of the past five centuries covering a range of countries and cultures each with a biographical and critical introduction and a list of principal works Arranged alphabetically from Cervantes to Garcia Lorca Space, the Final Frontier? Ian David Chambers,2006 South Atlantic Review ,1986 The Artificial Savage Roger Bartra,1997 In the Artificial Savage Modern Myths of the Wild Man Roger Bartra seeks out through the history of the myth of the wild man the literary and artistic mutations that allows us to understand its continuing presence through the centuries To account for the persistence of this myth whether in the popular lyrics of the poets of the Reformation or in Spanish Renaissance humanism Bartra combines two major currents of interpretation On the one hand there is the history of ideas on the other a structuralist approach belonging to the anthropology of myth which gives pride of place to the study of cultural textures By using both Bartra develops what he calls an evolutionist perspective capable of constructing a history of myths or perhaps an anthropology of ideas one that helps us to understand the long sequences of events without losing sight of the presence of structures The evolutionist approach goes beyond sequential narration but does not limit itself to the formal examination of mythological structures It focuses our attention on certain periods when transformations occur in the myth and thus sheds light on moments of transition in Western culture The Artificial Savage will prove useful for students and professors in history anthropology literary history and criticism cultural studies sociology biological sciences psychiatry and psychology BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Studies in the Literary Imagination ,1982 In and After the Beginning Kevin Lee Cope,2007 Deadly Plots Kirsten Teresa Saxton,1996
