Reality Of Aid An Independent Review Of International Aid 19971998:

The Reality of Aid 1997-1998 Judith Randel, Tony German, 2013-11-05 NOW IN ITS FIFTH ANNUAL EDITION The Reality of Aid continues to present the most comprehensive and rigorous independent analysis available of the aid and development policies of the world's richest nations and exposes the gaps between rhetoric and reality Part I presents a consideration of current issues in development cooperation in the context of globalisation and the increasing importance of private aid flows Part II gives a full report on the performance of OECD countries and the European Union over the last year and also includes a report on the continuing Lomé negotiations between the EU and Africa Part III gives a Southern perspective with chapters on development and cooperation in Argentina Central and Eastern Europe Ghana Guatemala Haiti India Latin America Uganda and Zimbabwe Part IV reviews trends in aid policy and spending by Northern governments and NGOs with at a glance tables and charts which compare donors performance on issues such as poverty eradication gender emergency relief leadership and public information Throughout information is presented in easily interpreted diagrams and graphs First produced in 1993 The Reality of Aid has established itself as a unique source of independent evaluation and comment on aid policies and development It is indispensable for all in the field whether in the official or voluntary sectors Originally published in 1997

The Reality of Aid Tony German, Judith Randel, 1997 The outlook for aid

Bread Not Bombs Douglas Roche, 1999-12 Housing health and education services are desperately needed for the world's poorest people but instead governments spend billions on war The international community must be mobilized to provide human security and Senator Roche asserts that this is where Canada can play a crucial role International Social Work David Cox, Manohar S. Pawar, 2006 This well written book will undoubtedly help those interested in working in the domain of international social work and social development

SHORTER NOTICES Global poverty widespread conflict and post conflict reconstruction and the large population of displaced persons are just a few of the rising number of global situations that are adversely affecting the well being of millions of people Practitioners from several professions are deeply concerned about these issues and are becoming increasingly active in addressing these matters at the local national and international levels

International Social Work Issues Strategies and Programs draws together the practice wisdom emerging within the broad scope of international social work practice Using an integrated perspectives approach which incorporates global human rights ecological and social development perspectives authors David Cox and Manohar Pawar prepare readers to actively respond to modern global challenges that are critical to the well being of people communities nations and ultimately to all of us

Key Features Provides an integrated perspectives approach to international social work and social development practice to give readers alternative theoretical frameworks not found in other books Focuses on the experience of teaching and practicing international social work rather than reflecting on the field Includes tables chapter summaries learning exercises and questions possible research areas and recommended readings to prompt critical thinking and classroom discussion This book is designed to teach international social work practice to students and practitioners at all levels International Social Work is an ideal text for undergraduate and graduate courses in Social Work and Development Studies as well as an excellent resource for social workers human services professionals and development practitioners The WTO and Global Convergence in Telecommunications and Audio-Visual Services Damien Geradin,David Luff,2004-07 Provides a consolidated legal analysis of the convergence phenomenon between telecommunications services and audiovisual services in the international trade arena Rethinking Development Geographies Marcus Power,2004-08-02 Development as a concept is notoriously imprecise vague and presumptuous Struggles over the meaning of this fiercely contested term have had profound implications on the destinies of people and places across the globe Rethinking Development Geographies offers a stimulating and critical introduction to the study of geography and development In doing so it sets out to explore the spatiality of development thinking and practices The book highlights the geopolitical nature of development and its origins in Empire and the Cold War It also reflects critically on the historical engagement of geographers with the Tropics the Third World and the South The dominant economic and political philosophies that shape the policies and perspectives of major institutions are discussed The interconnections between globalization and development are highlighted through an examination of local national and transnational resistance to various forms of development The text provides an accessible introduction to the complex and confusing world of contemporary global development Informative diagrams cartoons and case studies are used throughout While exploring global geographies of economic and political change Rethinking Development Geographies is also grounded in a concern with people and places the view from below the views of women and the view from the South The Reality of Aid 1998-1999 Judith Randel,Tony German with Deborah Ewing,2013-11-05 NOW IN ITS SIXTH ANNUAL EDITION The Reality of Aid has for the first time analysed the fair share of bilateral aid for basic social services basic education basic health reproductive health nutrition clean water and sanitation that should come from each donor an analysis which shows only two donors meeting their fair share and the G7 nations Canada France Germany Italy Japan UK US falling behind by over US 5 billion This year and next The Reality of Aid focuses on basic education as a right and not a privilege and its role in development cooperation and poverty elimination A key feature of The Reality of Aid 1998 1999 is the ten chapters offering analysis of development cooperation from the perspective of southern NGOs Many of these focus on basic education and raise issues around transparency gender and civil society If policies were programmes and promises were dollars The Reality of Aid could report great progress on the road to eradicating global poverty this year But at a time when donors acknowledge that ending poverty is possible it seems that commitments are being offered instead of resources and real change From the Summary Part I presents a useful Summary highlighting the steps that donors could take now to make progress towards poverty eradication and reviews the trends in development cooperation debt relief measures targeted towards the new millennium and commitment to the goal of ensuring basic education for all Part II gives a full report on the overseas aid performance of OECD country aid donors and the European Union over the last year Part III sets out a Southern perspective on development cooperation Part IV provides at a glance comparisons of donors aid outlook and commitment to development cooperation in the 21st Century poverty eradication gender and public support Part V contains handy reference material Throughout the book information is presented in easily interpreted diagrams and graphs The Reality of Aid has established itself as a unique source of independent evaluation and comment on aid policies and development It is indispensable for all in the field whether in the official or voluntary sectors Indispensable it gives you most of the hard facts you need to know about the major issues New Internationalist The most comprehensive and rigorous independent analysis of the aid and development policies of the world's wealthiest nations Essential reading Charity World The Reality of Aid remains an essential purchase by the libraries of development institutions and an invaluable reference for development practitioners Development Change A reliable watchdog for anyone interested in this important aspect of international relations ORBIT An accessible reference it encompasses many key issues and stimulates further research Commonwealth Comparative Politics Originally published in 1998

Learning from Comparing: new directions in comparative education research Robin Alexander, Marilyn Osborn, David

Phillips, 2000-01-01 Learning from Comparing is a major two volume study which reassesses the contribution of comparative educational research and theory to our understanding of contemporary educational problems and to our capacity to solve them At a time when educational research is under attack on the grounds of bias and irrelevance and under pressure to address only those questions which are acceptable politically as good a definition of bias as any this is a serious attempt to bridge the worlds of research policy and practice The editors have put together a collection in terms of both perspective and nationality which ensures contrasting viewpoints on each topic
