Muslims in Modern Turkey Sena Karasipahi, 2008-12-18 Modern Turkey is the site of a powerful Islamic revival with a strong intellectual elite dedicated to the overthrow of secular modernism Why have modern Muslim intellectuals turned against the ideals of Kemalism on which the modern Turkish nation state is founded What does this reveal about the future of Turkey And how are Islamic intellectuals in Turkey affected by developments in the Middle East Muslims in Modern Turkey is the first book to analyse this phenomenon tracing the evolution of Muslim intellectual thought from the 1980s to the present day It focuses on six leading Muslim thinkers Ali Bula Rasim zden ren smet zel lhan Kutluer Ersin Nazif G rdo an and Abdurrahman Dilipak who belong to a single school and share a novel understanding of Islam They act as public intellectuals who aim to reform and enlighten society by educating them and raising their awareness of Islamic values arguing not for the compatibility of Islam and European values but the fundamental superiority of Islam over secular democracy Sena Karasipahi places the Turkish experience in its broader international context and shows how Turkish Islamic intellectuals are affected by the earlier Muslim intellectuals and revivalists in the Arab world and in Turkey This important study makes connections with the Islamic revival process throughout the contemporary Middle East as well as with comparable movements in Turkey s own past making this a crucial contribution to an understanding of contemporary Islamic political thinking

Religious Liberty in Western and Islamic Law Kristine Kalanges,2012-04-04 In Religious Liberty in Western and Islamic Law Toward a World Legal Tradition Kristine Kalanges argues that differences between Western and Islamic legal formulations of religious freedom are attributable in substantial part to variations in their respective religious and intellectual histories Kalanges suggests that while divergence between the two bodies of law challenges the characterization of religious liberty as a universal human right the dilemma of religious freedom the difficult choice between the universality of religious liberty rights and peaceful co existence of diverse legal cultures may yet be transformed through the cultivation of a world legal tradition This argument is advanced through comparative analysis of human rights instruments from the Western and Muslim worlds with attention to the legal political processes by which religious and philosophical ideas have been institutionalized

The Conflict Within Islam Israr Hasan,2011-12 This is not a book of history it does not claim to cover every aspect of Islam religion It confines itself to the search for the true mission of Islam and how that mission has been hijacked in the struggle of faith and power This is the story of contest between religion and politics where politics was made a sacrament and religion abused In describing this aspect the historical part naturally cannot be ignored This is not a book of religion either Since religion and politics overlap each other in this study theology and jurisprudence have their interplay also The conflict within Islam for the soul of Islam continues Will the struggle be resolved in the present and the foreseeable future Or will it make life more difficult for the faithful This book attempts to find the answers

Freedom of Religion, Apostasy and Islam Abdullah Saeed,2017-03-02 Debate on freedom of religion as a human right takes place not only in the Western world but also in Muslim communities throughout the world For Muslims concerned for this freedom one of the major difficulties is the punishment for apostasy death for those who desert Islam This book argues that the law of apostasy and its punishment by death in Islamic law is untenable in the modern period Apostasy conflicts with a variety of foundation texts of Islam and with the current ethos of human rights in particular the freedom to choose one's religion Demonstrating the early development of the law of apostasy as largely a religio political tool the authors show the diversity of opinion among early Muslims on the punishment highlighting the substantial ambiguities about what constitutes apostasy the problematic nature of some of the key textual evidence on which the punishment of apostasy is based and the neglect of a vast amount of clear Qur'anic texts in favour of freedom of religion in the construction of the law of apostasy Examining the significant challenges the punishment of apostasy faces in the modern period inside and outside Muslim communities exploring in particular how apostasy and its punishment is dealt with in a multi religious Muslim majority country Malaysia and the challenges and difficulties it faces there the authors discuss arguments by prominent Muslims today for an absolute freedom of religion and for discarding the punishment of apostasy

Revolution and its Discontents Eskandar Sadeghi-Boroujerdi, 2019-02-21 With a focus on the political elite Sadeghi Boroujerdi analysis the intellectual and political trajectory of post revolutionary Iranian reformism

Islam after Liberalism Faisal Devji, Zaheer Kazmi, 2017-12-01 Leading scholars discuss how Islam and liberalism have been entwined historically and politically and how Muslims have thought about this longstanding relationship

The Puzzle of Non-Western Democracy Richard Youngs, 2015-09-08 Western democracy is being questioned around the world At the same time Western aid groups are quick to say that they are not trying to impose a particular style of democracy on others and that they are open to supporting local alternative forms of democracy This book examines what it is about Western democracy that non Westerners are reacting negatively to and whether the critics often are equating a dislike for certain Western social or economic features with an aversion to of Western political systems It also explores the current state of debate about alternative forms of democratic practice in different regions Asia Africa the Middle East and Latin America and then puts forward ideas about how Western actors engaged in democracy support can do a better job of incorporating new thinking about alternative democratic forms into their efforts

Islam in Retrospect Maher S. Mahmassani, 2014-07-27 RENEWING OUR UNDERSTANDING OF ISLAM IN TODAY'S WORLD Islam in many of its current guises no longer resembles its original Message In a world of intractable conflicts plagued by political Islam and Islamophobia and where other forms of fundamentalism within the major religious creeds are on the rise as well this book serves as a reminder It aims to recover and reaffirm Islam's underlying and guiding principles Setting out to distinguish the divine from the human in order to elucidate the pristine nature of the divine Message Mahmassani reasserts Islam's universal secular and progressive character In Part One of this comprehensive and meticulously researched volume the author places the Message of Islam within its historic geographic and cultural contexts Focusing on the primacy of the Holy Qur'an among the sources of Islam he examines the controversies which have surrounded the Prophetic Tradition Sunna and Hadith as a source of Islam demonstrating the full scope of Islam's universality In Part Two he goes on to clarify Islam's secular nature by reconsidering inherited beliefs about the relationship between Islam and the state and Islam and Sharia a law revealing Islam's inherent humanism This leads in Part Three to reflections on the progressive nature of Islam and on the importance of the role of the mind in understanding and taking full benefit of religion as an engine of progress In particular the author focuses on human rights including issues of human dignity freedom of faith and gender equality Islam in Retrospect Recovering the Message is a rich contribution to continuing efforts to reform perceptions of Islam Scholars and students in the fields of Islamic studies religion and the humanities teachers policy makers and general readers will find this carefully constructed sourcebook invaluable for its fresh outlook and approach to understanding Islam and Muslim Scriptures in the light of today's world As Mahmassani affirms Islam as a divine message has been and continuously remains perfect AMERICAN JOURNAL OF ISLAMIC SOCIAL SCIENCES 24:1 Bican Üahin,Asyraf Wajdi Dusuki and Nurdianawati Irwani Abdullah,Abdul Kabir Hussain Solihu,Saim Kayadibi,Samer Abboud,Mohammad Fadel,Timothy P. Daniels,K. Luisa Gandolfo,Jeffrey C. Burke,Robert Launay,Sean L. Yom,Martin Nguyen,Behnam Sadeki,Jawad Qureshi,Mohammed Faghfoory and Mahdi Tourage,Ian Storey and Greg Barton,Layla Sein,2007-11-05 The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS is a double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal that publishes a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world anthropology economics history philosophy and meta physics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Submissions are subject to a blind peer review process Contemporary Perspectives on Revelation and Qu'ranic Hermeneutics Ali Akbar,2019-11-27 A number of innovative hermeneutical approaches emerged in Muslim exegetical discourse in the second half of the 20th century Among these developments is a trend of systematic reform theology that emphasises a humanistic approach whereby revelation is understood to be dependent not only upon its initiator God but also upon its recipient Prophet Muhammad who takes an active role in the process Ali Akbar examines the works of four noted scholars of Islam Fazlur Rahman Pakistan Abdolkarim Soroush Iran Muhammad Mujtahed Shabestari Iran and Nasr Hamid Abu Zayd Egypt His study shows that the consequences of taking a humanistic approach to understanding revelation are not confined to the realm of speculation about God human relations but also to interpreting Qur'anic socio political precepts And the four scholars emerge as a distinctive group of Muslim thinkers who open up a new horizon in contemporary Islamic discourse

Religious Rights Lorenzo Zucca,2017-05-15 The central focus of this collection of essays is the role and place of freedom of religion in the protection and promotion of world order The volume offers competing models of world order from a global perspective and highlights the lack of consensus and considerable variety of practice and belief around the globe as to the definition of religious freedom and where and whether freedom of religion is regarded as the first freedom in the world The leading theories of freedom of religion are discussed and provide an understanding of freedom of religion beyond the nation state The liberal view at the global level is also examined and observations are included regarding the need to rethink

secularism in the light of present circumstances and within the global context

Dynamics of Islam in the Modern World Saeed Zarrabi-Zadeh, Armina Omerika, Thomas K. Gugler, Michael E. Asbury, 2022-07-11 Dynamics of Islam in the Modern World scrutinizes and analyzes Islam in context It posits Muslims not as independent and autonomous but as relational and interactive agents of change and continuity who interplay with Islamic ate sources of self and society as well as with resources from other traditions Representing multiple disciplinary approaches the contributors to this volume discuss a broad range of issues such as secularization colonialism globalization radicalism human rights migration hermeneutics mysticism religious normativity and pluralism while paying special attention to three geographical settings of South Asia the Middle East and Euro America

Political Islam in the Age of Democratization K. Bokhari, F. Senzai, 2013-12-18 The continued prominence of Islam in the struggle for democracy in the Muslim world has confounded Western democracy theorists who largely consider secularism a prerequisite for democratic transitions Kamran Bokhari and Farid Senzai offer a comprehensive view of the complex nature of contemporary political Islam and its relationship to democracy

Religious Freedom in Islam Daniel Philpott, 2019-02-01 Since at least the attacks of September 11 2001 one of the most pressing political questions of the age has been whether Islam is hostile to religious freedom Daniel Philpott examines conditions on the ground in forty seven Muslim majority countries today and offers an honest clear eyed answer to this urgent question It is not however a simple answer From a satellite view the Muslim world looks unfree But Philpott shows the truth is much more complex Some one fourth of Muslim majority countries are in fact religiously free Of the other countries about forty percent are governed not by Islamists but by a hostile secularism imported from the West while the other sixty percent are Islamist The picture that emerges is both honest and hopeful Yes most Muslim majority countries are lacking in religious freedom But Philpott argues the Islamic tradition carries within it seeds of freedom and he offers guidance for how to cultivate those seeds in order to expand religious freedom in the Muslim world and the world at large It is an urgent project Religious freedom promotes goods like democracy and the advancement of women that are lacking in the Muslim majority world and reduces ills like civil war terrorism and violence Further religious freedom is simply a matter of justice not an exclusively Western value but rather a universal right rooted in human nature Its realization is critical to the aspirations of religious minorities and dissenters in Muslim countries to Muslims living in non Muslim countries or under secular dictatorships and to relations between the West and the Muslim world In this thoughtful book Philpott seeks to establish a constructive middle ground in a fiery and long lasting debate over Islam

Mapping the Academic Debate Johannes Duschka, Christoph Kleine, Monika Wohlrab-Sahr, Florian Zemmin, 2024-12-16 This volume maps the international academic debate on secularity It places seminal contributions from within Western academia alongside less well known texts from various parts of the world in several cases this is the first time that they have been translated into English The volume demonstrates that the academic debate on secularity was and is a global debate with contributions from many regions The collected texts relate to each other either directly or indirectly by referring to similar arguments whether reinforcing or criticising them and thus create a discourse When speaking of global secularity we therefore do not insinuate a uniform world secularity resulting from the alleged global diffusion of Western norms ideas and concepts It is rather a web of relations that is constituted via various different references These references are not evenly distributed the development in the West is often the point of reference to which positions from other regions relate to which they connect or from which they distance themselves But the references are not completely unidirectional We also present texts from Europe that underline the multidirectionality of the process even early on Thereby the volume offers the reader the material with which to trace these global exchanges and references
