Rebellion Auf Der Grenze:

God Or Goddess? Manfred Hauke, 1995 Hauke provides a tour de force study of the history and basic characteristics of modern feminism Hauke presents an objective detailed study of the facts of feminist theology around the world using their own words and writings He looks at the distinctiveness of feminist theology what its image of man is as a fundamental point of departure its basis from the experience of women as formal principle its views of the image of God Christ Mary the Church liturgy ecology and eschatology After carefully describing what the feminist position is Hauke gives a critique from the point of view of the Catholic tradition The purpose of the present work is to provide not a kind of encyclopedia on feminist theology but an introduction and representative survey of central themes that will enable one to form a personal opinion Addressed here are not just specialists in theology but all women and men who desire to inform themselves further about the powerful historical current that is feminist theology Manfred Hauke Reformed Churches in South Africa and the Struggle for

Empowering Memory and Movement Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza, 2014 Empowering Memory and Movement Elisabeth Schssler Fiorenza completes a three volume look across her influential work and career In Transforming Vision 2011 she drew from a career of pioneering scholarship to offer the contours of a critical feminist hermeneutic The chapters in Changing Horizons 2013 sketched a theory of liberation Now the consequences for a liberating praxis are evident in interviews and essays that look back over personal and movement history look around at challenges and potentialities and look ahead to an emancipatory future the critical engagement with scripture always at the center Religion on the Move! Afe Adogame, Shobana Shankar, 2012-11-21 In Religions on the Move Afe Adogame and Shobana Shankar present essays on religious expansion beyond Christian missions focusing on activities of migrants from Africa Asia and Latin America spreading their faiths in Europe North America and within the South “Der” Freimütige, 1871 Recherche Théologique Des Femmes en Europe Méridionale Valeria Ferrari Schiefer, 2005 This volume with its emphasis on Southern Europe is devoted now for the second time to theological research by women in a particular region of Europe Women doing research in France Italy Spain and Greece provide evidence of and reflection on the history of women s theological studies in their countries and present the results of their studies These reveal an impressive spectrum of theological research which sometimes has been and must be conducted in difficult structural contexts and under very different economic conditions This makes the vitality of the research presented all the more convincing in the different contexts of the individual countries it demonstrates specific and very varied emphases in academic theory and method Precisely because of their complex and diverse points of departure the articles evidence a fundamental interdisciplinary approach and a creative way of seeing things which is concerned to ensure a fundamental openness for debate and dialogue This volume thus provides an insight into the fascinating diversity and complexity of theological research in Europe Feminist Theology in Different
