inconsistencies and misinformation rampant within the pop gospel circles It argues for a prosperity that cannot be attained out there through giving or what have you but should be a condition within every believer As explained in this book the current prosperity gospel is simply materialistic consumerism Christened Tries to use God as a means to an end V success Tries tying God on to formulas V faith and other biblical principles Elevates Miracles above the Jesus who releases them Misinterprets the Bible V form texting mixed with catchy phrases Mixes law and grace as a means of unlocking blessings Presents a false God and Christ Tramples down Christ's redemption by twisting its meaning Does not encourage growth in grace Promotes wrong concepts of faith Encourages giving out of necessity if you have a need plant a seed Plays by the rules of secular media and cannot effectively communicate the true gospel The author hopes the reader will clearly see such falsehood for what they are

Commentary on Matthew Saint Hilary (Bishop of Poitiers), 2012 When the writing of Latin biblical commentaries was still in its infancy a young bishop from Poitiers in Gaul penned a passage by passage exposition on the Gospel of Matthew It is the first of its kind to have survived almost completely intact Published now for the first time in English translation Hilary's commentary offers a close look at Latin theology and exegesis before the Nicene Creed was considered the sole standard of orthodoxy Likely the earliest of Hilary's writings this commentary has none of the polemic against the Arians that figured so prominently in most of his later works Nonetheless there exists in this text an oft stated concern with those who interpreted the Incarnation as grounds for construing Christ as only a man rather than professing Christ as God and man Other noteworthy features of the commentary include Hilary's interest in the relation between Law and Gospel and his articulation of a Pauline based view of justification by faith In his view the importance of the Law before the Gospel was indisputable and necessary For Jews it was considered the way of redemption With the advent of Christ it became an eschatological guide directing all future believers into the grace that comes by faith Hilary's emphasis on God's righteousness conferred on a helpless race represents a far more pronounced application of Paul's thought than in any previous Latin writer ABOUT THE
