Recent Theories Of Narrative Hb:

Recent Theories of Narrative Wallace Martin, 1986 The Marketing of Edgar Allan Poe Jonathan Hartmann, 2008-02-19 The circulation and marketing of Edgar Allan Poe's prose are explored in this book through close readings of Poe's fictive journalistic and critical writings and an examination of his involvement in the transatlantic literary marketplace and his development of a literary brand

Luke's Christology of Divine Identity Nina Henrichs-Tarasenkova, 2015-11-19 Henrichs Tarasenkova argues against a long tradition of scholars about how best to represent Luke's Christology When read against the backdrop of ancient ways of constructing personal identity key texts in the Lukan narrative demonstrate that Luke indirectly characterizes Jesus as the one God of Israel together with YHWH Henrichs Tarasenkova employs a narrative approach that takes into consideration recent studies of narrative and history and enables her to construct characters of YHWH and Jesus within the Lukan narrative She employs Richard Bauckham's concept of divine identity that she evaluates against her study of how one might speak of personal identity in the Greco Roman world She engages in close reading of key texts to demonstrate how Luke speaks of YHWH as God in order to demonstrate that Luke Acts upholds a traditional Jewish view that only the God of Israel is the one living God and to eliminate false expectations for how Luke should speak of Jesus as God This analysis establishes how Luke binds Jesus identity to the divine identity of YHWH and concludes that the Lukan narrative in fact does portray Jesus as God when it shows that Jesus shares YHWH's divine identity

An Update on Adult Development Theory: New Ways of Thinking About the Life Course M. Carolyn Clark, Rosemary S. Caffarella, 2011-10-13 Our approach to adult learners and the learning process is shaped by our knowledge of how adults change and develop across the life span This issue of New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education reviews the latest work in adult developmental theory in the biological psychological sociocultural and integrated domains and explores the implications of this work for adult education Chapters examine how gender race and sexual orientation affect our sense of self explore spiritual development and theories of aging and offer a way of understanding development in terms of how people use narrative to organize and make meaning of their experiences This is the 84th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Adult and Continuing Development

Peterson,2013-06-29 To know where we are going as scholars educators and practitioners in the field of marriage and family life we first need to know where we have been A perusal of early texts on marriage and family life provides some thought provoking insights into the accuracy of the saying what goes around comes around It is interesting to note who has been considered to be in a position to provide information on marriage and family life Included in the eclectic collection of texts we reviewed were ministers whose focus was on spirituality doctors who emphasized medical aspects of child and adult health and public health professionals and home economists concerned with fighting disease who emphasized cleanliness order fighting germs and eliminating rodents and insects There are also philosophers who drew from ancient texts when discussing family life and a count who assembled a group of German intellectual elites to address various topics An insightful essay of this type is by Marta Karlweis 1926 in which she notes There is no other fetish that society holds to so firmly as the conception woman with all its usual associations of infantilism and dependence The child requires protection is a minor and consequently a serf but above all it possesses no spiritual existence Neither doctorates or other distinctions nor the right to vote have as yet been able to dispel this sweet idea of the childishness of woman which man cherishes p

Identity and Ethics in the Book of Ruth Peter H. W. Lau,2011 This study demonstrates the importance of including narrative ethics in a construction of Old Testament ethics as a correction for the current state of marginalisation of narrative in this discipline To this end the concept of identity is used as a lens through which to understand and derive ethics Since self conception in ancient Israel is generally held to be predominantly collectivist in orientation social identity theory is used to understand ancient Israelite identity Although collectivist sensitivities are important a social identity approach also incorporates an understanding of individuality This approach highlights the social emphases of a biblical text and consequently assists in understanding a text s original ethical message The book of Ruth is used as a test case employing a social identity approach for understanding the narrative but also to model the approach so that it can be implemented more widely in study of the Old Testament and narrative ethics Each of the protagonists in the book of Ruth is examined in regards to their personal and social self components This study reveals that the narrative functions to shape or reinforce the identity of an ancient Israelite implied reader Since behavioural norms are an aspect of identity narrative also influences behaviour A social identity approach can also highlight the social processes within a society The social processes taking place in the two most commonly proposed provenances for the book of Ruth are discussed the Monarchic and Persian Periods It is found that the social emphases of the book of Ruth most closely correspond to the social undercurrents of the Persian Period On this basis a composition for the book of Ruth in the Restoration period is proposed American Publishers' Circular and Literary

Gazette ,1864 The Legislative Themes of Centralization Jeffrey G. Audirsch,2014-08-12 The centralization of the cult mandate in Deuteronomy has captivated scholars for over two centuries Related to this mandate are five legislative themes abrogation of idolatry tithing the Israelite festival calendar judiciary officials and the priesthood Collectively these themes are interwoven into the Deuteronomic social political and religious infrastructure Interpreted through an exilic lens this study examines the themes through the relevant literary strata in the Enneateuch In doing so the themes are identified as playing an instrumental role in the demise of the divided monarchy It is through the demise of the divided monarchy that the book of Deuteronomy especially the centralization mandate takes on a new meaning a utopian desire Thus the rhetorical strategy of centralization once contrived to unify and purify the cult actually leads to failure and serves as motivation for reform during the exilic period

Urbicide in Palestine Nurhan Abujidi, 2014-02-24 Exploring the way urbicide is used to un re make Palestine as well as how it is employed as a tool of spatial dispossession and control this book examines contemporary political violence and destruction in the context of colonial projects in Palestine The broader framework of the book is colonial and post urban destruction urbanism with a working hypothesis that there are links gaps and blind spots in the understanding of urbicide discourse Drawing on several examples from the Palestinian history of destruction and transformations such as Jenin Refugee Camp Hebron Old Town and Nablus Old Town a methodological framework to identify urbicidal episodes is also generated Advancing knowledge on one historical moment of the urban condition the moment of its destruction and enhancing the understanding of the Palestinian Israeli conflict from urbanistic architectonic and Urbicide Spacio cide perspectives through the use of case studies this book will be essential reading for scholars and researchers with an interest in Urban Geography and Middle East Politics more broadly

Judgment and Salvation Dustin G. Burlet, 2022-11-03 This book contends the text of the Noachian deluge narrative categorically underscores all God did to preserve life in spite of the disaster Despite the picture of devastation that the narrative depicts the prominent emphasis of the text is on deliverance and redemption i e salvation not judgment The focus of the Genesis flood is acutely bent towards God s salvific rather than punitive purposes The arc of salvation within the flood narrative can be broken down into two main ideas Firstly God s intention for creation is not thwarted and secondly God commits himself to his intentions of creation God s intention for creation can be stated thus the establishment of order via covenant showing the sanctity of human life and the upholding of all life This involves in particular humanity as his image bearers including the lex talionis life for life principle
