Recent Jewish Progress in Palestine Henrietta Szold, 1915 Factors in Modern Jewish History Abram Leon Sachar, 1927

The Jewish World In Modern Times Abraham J Edelheit, Hershel Edelheit, 2019-09-10 The momentous events of modern Jewish history have led to a proliferation of books and articles on Jewish life over the last 350 years Placing modern Jewish history into both universal and local contexts this selected annotated bibliography organizes and categorizes the best of this vast array of written material The authors have included all English language books of major importance on world Jewry and on individual Jewish communities plus books most readily available to researchers and readers and a select number of pamphlets and articles The resulting bibliography is also a guide to recent Jewish historiography and research methods

The Politics and Public Culture of American Jews Arthur A. Goren, 1999 These strikingly lucid and accessible essays ranging over nearly a century of Jewish communal life examine the ways in which immigrant Jews grappled with issues of group survival in an open and accepting American society Ten case studies focus on Jewish strategies for maintaining a collective identity while participating fully in American society and public life Readers will find that these essays provide a fresh provocative and compelling look at the fundamental question facing American Jewry at the end of the 20th century as at its start how to assure Jewish survival in the benign conditions of American freedom Publications of the American Jewish Historical Society, 1928 The Young Judaeon, 1928 The Zionist Review, 1919 Zionism and the Jewish Future Harry Sacher, 1916 Publications of the American Jewish Historical Society American Jewish Historical Society, 1928 Annual Convention - Central Conference of American Rabbis Central Conference of American Rabbis, 1919 Year Book of the Central Conference of American Rabbis Central Conference of American Rabbis, 1919 Containing the proceedings of the convention Year Book of the Central Conference of American Rabbis, 1919

Hadassah and the Zionist Project Erica B. Simmons, 2006 Founded to give women a frontline role in the Zionist struggle for statehood Hadassah the Women's Zionist Organization of America first sent public health nurses to Palestine in 1913 Despite clashing with other Zionist organizations as it fought to keep control of its own projects Hadassah grew to be the largest single American Zionist organization in the interwar period Using original historical documents Simmons examines Hadassah's roots in the American Progressive movement and assesses some of the American field tested projects which Hadassah exported to Palestine including visiting nurses school lunches and playgrounds Hadassah chose each project carefully with a view to developing an egalitarian democratic Jewish state Simmons also traces Hadassah's involvement in the Youth Aliyah child rescue movement which saved thousands of youngsters from Nazi occupied Europe as well as from the beleaguered Jewish communities of the Middle East and North Africa In the first decades of statehood Youth Aliyah education tried to make Israelis out of young refugees from all over the world Simmons offers a fresh perspective on Hadassah's place in history and shows for the first time how American Jewish women played a leading role in achieving Zionist goals and shaping the Jewish state The book is distinguished by its historical approach rooted in the analysis of original archival material including publicity brochures newsletters and correspondence as well as the contemporary Zionist and mainstream American press It is intended for students scholars and anyone interested in American Jewish history Israeli history women's studies Jewish women the history of voluntarism philanthropy public health social welfare or child welfare Progressivism the history of Zionism and the development of the State of Israel Diaspora Israel relations Jewish organizations ethnic studies emergence of the welfare state The Maccabæan ,1914 Summoned to Jerusalem Joan Dash,2003-08-04 February 1943 a crowded railway station in Haifa Palestine Crowds of people wait for a train to pull in Through a winter of anguish the Jews of Palestine have longed for this train It arrives and from the open windows hundreds of little hands wave blue and white flags The train is packed with Jewish children who have been traveling war ravaged Europe since the fall of Poland in 1939 Palestine is their journey's end In front of the crowd is an official delegation headed by an old woman not quite five feet tall She is Henrietta Szold and these children the final contingent of ten thousand children were saved from the Nazis and brought to Palestine because of her One could not have predicted from the beginnings of her comfortable dependent life as the oldest daughter of a Baltimore rabbi the extraordinary accomplishments of Henrietta Szold Even as she reached middle age she was the dutiful studious partner of her father's scholarly researches although she had behind her impressive accomplishments such as the establishment of a pioneering night school for Russian Jewish immigrants But each time she ventured she retreated It took two grave emotional crises to bring her into her own the death of her father and the more astonishing public emotional collapse that ensued after her intense love for a scholar thirteen years her junior ended when he took a young German bride Out of the ashes of this second bereavement emerged the Henrietta Szold who was to imprint her formidable accomplishments on American Jewry and the land of Palestine That barren land the needs of its population and the courage of its pioneers shaped the course of her future while back home in New York the small study group she had established and which was called Hadassah grew into the women's arm of the American Zionist movement Zionism was full of factionalism and the history of Palestine was bloody and divisive It was Henrietta Szold's initiative and drive that established its health care system shaped education and began the social services that prevail today In the 1930s a new mission emerged the rescue from the Nazis of thousands of Jewish children who would otherwise have been lost This Youth Aliyah was her last triumph She was eighty three when her indomitable body wearied at last and she lies buried on the Mount of Olives in the land she played so large a part in shaping The Maccabæan ,1919
