were a period of economic prosperity political unrest sexual liberation cultural experimentation and profound religious innovation throughout the Western world This social effervescence also affected the study of religion by reshaping the relationships between academic and religious institutions and discourses While the mainstream churches sought to deploy the instruments of the social sciences to understand and manage the changing socioreligious context prominent scholars regarded the bubbly spirituality of the counterculture as the harbinger of a new era some of them actively used their academic knowledge to further this revolution This book discusses the multiple entanglements of religion and science during these turbulent decades through theoretically informed case studies from both sides of the Atlantic The Making of a

Postsecular Society Massimo Rosati,2016-03-03 Drawing on the thought of Durkheim this volume focuses on societal changes at the symbolic level to develop a new conceptualisation of the emergence of postsecular societies Neo Durkheimian categories are applied to the case of Turkey which in recent years has shifted from a strong Republican and Kemalist view of secularism to a more Anglo Saxon perspective Turkish society thus constitutes an interesting case that blurs modernist distinctions between the secular and the religious and which could be described as postsecular Presenting three symbolic case studies the enduring image of the founder of the Republic Atatürk the contested site of Ayasofia and the remembering and commemoration of the murdered journalist Hrant Dink The Making of a Postsecular Society analyses the cultural relationship that the modern Republic has always had with Europe considering the possible implications of the Turkish model of secularism for a specifically European self understanding of modernity Based on a rigorous construction of theoretical categories and on a close scrutiny of the common challenges confronting Europe and its Turkish neighbour long considered other with regard to the accommodation of religious difference this book sheds light on the possibilities for Europe to find new ways of arranging the relationship between the secular and the religious As such it will appeal to scholars of social theory the sociology of religion secularisation and religious difference and social change Freedom of Religion Paul M.

Taylor,2006-01-12 A critique of the treatment of the right to freedom of religion within the UN and Europe first published in 2005 Islam in Dutch Society W. A. R. Shadid,P. Sj. van Koningsveld,1992 This book generally discusses three main topics connected to the situation of Muslims in Dutch society First of all attention is given to the subject of faith and rituals such as the existing mystical orders mosque sermons and the institutionalization of ritual slaughter The second subject deals with Islam and the second generation Muslims in the Netherlands In this context the situation of the so called runaway girls and education in general are discussed Special attention is given to the development and functioning of Islamic schools and to the education in one's own language and culture The last topic deals with Muslim organizations their development and role in the emancipation of these religious groups in Dutch society Furthermore obstacles hindering the establishment of a Muslim council on a national level are thoroughly discussed This book can be of interest to various categories of people such as scholars theologians social scientists lawyers policy makers and those who through their profession are in regular contact with members of the Muslim community in the Netherlands

Religious Education in a Plural, Secularised Society. A Paradigm Shift Leni Franken, Patrick Loobuyck, 2011 Many European societies are characterised by increasing forms of secularisation and religious diversity This results in a paradigm shift with regard to religious education For a long time the main aim of religious education was clearly to educate children in their own religious tradition Today the aims of religious education are much broader contributing to pupils general education Allgemeinbildung and preparing them for participation as a citizen in the future multicultural society As a result the following question arises in many countries how can teaching into religion be transformed into or complemented by learning about and learning from the study of religions This book brings several distinguished authors in the field of religious education together to reflect on this paradigm shift The book is divided into two parts The first part is rather descriptive and gives an informative and up to date overview of the different discussions about religious education in several European countries The second part is a normative reflection on the question of how religious education should be organised in plural secularised societies This book is very important for the discussion about religious education Its comparative approach combined with the interdisciplinary dialogue between the different schools in the field of religious education make this book highly recommendable for everyone who is interested in the state of the art and the future of religious education in Europe Didier Pollefeyt full professor in theology and religious education at the Catholic University of Leuven

An Examination of the New System of Society William Logan Fisher, 1826 Manifesto of the Critical Theory of Society and Religion \(3 Vols.\) Rudolf Siebert, 2010-08-16 The Manifesto develops further the Critical Theory of Religion intrinsic to the Critical Theory of Society of the Frankfurt School into a new paradigm of the Psychology Sociology Philosophy and Theology of Religion Its central theme is the theodicy problem in the context of late capitalist society and its globalization

Social Cohesion in the Western World Georgi Dragolov, Zsófia S. Ignácz, Jan Lorenz, Jan Delhey, Klaus Boehnke, Kai Unzicker, 2016-05-25 Many people in the Western world are concerned that the social fabric of societies is fraying This book constitutes the first of its kind systematic account of social cohesion from theory through methodology to empirical evidence Readers are introduced to the academically developed Social Cohesion Radar of Bertelsmann Stiftung a globally active non governmental organization The Social Cohesion Radar defines and measures cohesion as characterized by three core aspects resilient social relations positive emotional connectedness between people and the community and a pronounced focus on the common good Using high quality academic and institutional data sources the Social Cohesion Radar provides insights into the level and development of social cohesion over a period of almost 25 years internationally among 34 European Union and OECD members and regionally among the 16 federal states of Germany It further provides insights into what influences cohesion and what cohesion is good for One of the key findings is that social cohesion promotes a happier life for everyone
