Religious Rivalries And The Struggle For Success In Caesarea Maritima:

Religious Rivalries and the Struggle for Success in Caesarea Maritima Terence L. Donaldson, 2000-05-11 We know how the story of the Roman Empire ended with the triumph of Christianity and the eventual Christianization of the Roman Mediterranean But how would religious life have appeared to an observer at a time when the conversion of the emperor was only a Christian pipe dream And how would it have appeared in one particular city rather than in the Roman Empire as a whole This volume takes a detailed look at the religious dimension of life in one particular Roman city Caesarea Maritima on the Mediterranean coast of Judea Caesarea was marked by a complex religious identity from the outset Over time other religious groups including Christianity Mithraism and Samaritanism found a home in the city where they jostled with each other and with those already present for position influence and the means of survival Written by a team of seasoned scholars and promising newcomers this book brings a new perspective to the study of religion in antiquity Along with the deliberate goal to understand religion as an urban phenomenon Religious Rivalries and the Struggle for Success in Caesarea Maritima studies religious groups as part of the dynamic process of social interaction spanning a spectrum from coexistence through competition and rivalry to open conflict The cumulative result is a fresh and fascinating look at one of antiquity's most interesting cities of particular interest to scholars and advanced students in Biblical Studies Classical Studies and Archaeology Religious Conflict from Early Christianity to the Rise of Islam Wendy Mayer, Bronwen Neil, 2013-08-29 Conflict has been an inescapable facet of religion from its very beginnings This volume offers insight into the mechanisms at play in the centuries from the Jesus movement's first attempts to define itself over and against Judaism to the beginnings of Islam Profiling research by scholars of the Centre for Early Christian Studies at Australian Catholic University the essays document inter and intra religious conflict from a variety of angles Topics relevant to the early centuries range from religious conflict between different parts of the Christian canon types of conflict the origins of conflict strategies for winning for conflict resolution and the emergence of a language of conflict For the fourth to seventh centuries case studies from Asia Minor Syria Constantinople Gaul Arabia and Egypt are presented The volume closes with examinations of the Christian and Jewish response to Islam and of Islam's response to Christianity Given the political and religious tensions in the world today this volume is well positioned to find relevance and meaning in societies still grappling with the monotheistic religions of Judaism Christianity and Islam Philo of Alexandria and the Construction of Jewishness in Early Christian Writings Jennifer Otto, 2018 This study investigates portrayals of the first century philosopher and exegete Philo of Alexandria in the writings of Clement of Alexandria Origen and Eusebius Synagogues in the Hellenistic and Roman Periods Lutz Doering, Andrew R. Krause, Hermut Löhr, 2020-12-14 The study of ancient Judaism has enjoyed a steep rise in interest and publications in recent decades although the focus has often been on the ideas and beliefs represented in ancient Jewish texts rather than on the daily lives and the material culture of Jews Judaeans and their communities The nascent institution of the synagogue formed an increasingly important venue for communal gathering and daily or weekly practice This collection of essays brings together a broad spectrum of new archaeological and textual data with various emergent theories and interpretative methods in order to address the need to understand the place of the synagogue in the daily and weekly procedures community frameworks and theological structures in which Judaeans Galileans and Jewish people in the Diaspora lived and gathered The interdisciplinary studies will be of great significance for anyone studying ancient Jewish belief practice and community formation The Roman Army and the Expansion of the Gospel Alexander Kyrychenko, 2014-01-31 Although Roman centurions appear at crucial stages in the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles the significance of the centurion's office for the development of Luke's story has not been adequately researched To fill in that void this study engages the relevant Greco Roman and Jewish sources that reflect on the image of the Roman military and applies the findings to the analysis of the role of the Roman centurion in the narrative of Luke Acts It argues that contemporary evidence reveals a common perception of the Roman centurion as a principal representative of the Roman imperial power and that Luke Acts employs centurions in the role of prototypical Gentile believers in anticipation of the Christian mission to the Empire Chapter 1 outlines the current state of the question Chapter 2 surveys the background data including the place of the centurion in the Roman military organization the role of the Roman army as the basis of the ruling power the army's function in the life of the civilian community Luke's military terminology and the Roman military regiments in Luke Acts Chapter 3 reviews Greco Roman writings including Polybius Julius Caesar Sallust Livy Velleius Paterculus Tacitus Appian Cornelius Nepos Plutarch Suetonius Plautus Cicero Virgil Horace Petronius Quintilian Epictetus Juvenal Fronto Apuleius as well as non literary evidence Chapter 4 engages the Jewish witnesses including 1 Maccabees the Dead Sea Scrolls Jewish pseudepigrapha Philo Josephus Talmudic sources and non literary sources Chapter 5 examines the relevant accounts of Luke Acts focusing on Luke 7 1 10 and Acts 10 1 11 18 The Conclusion reviews the findings of the study and summarizes the results

Synagogues in the Works of Flavius Josephus Andrew R. Krause, 2017-02-13 In Synagogues in the Works of Flavius Josephus Andrew Krause analyses the place of the synagogue within the cultural and spatial rhetoric of Flavius Josephus Engaging with both rhetorical critical methods and critical spatial theories Krause argues that in his later writings Josephus portrays the Jewish institutions as an important aspect of the post Temple pan diasporic Judaism that he creates Specifically Josephus consistently treats the synagogue as a supra local rallying point for the Jews throughout the world in which the

Jewish customs and Law may be practiced and disseminated following the loss of the Temple and the Land Conversely in his earliest extant work Bellum judaicum Josephus portrays synagogues as local temples in order to condemn the Jewish insurgents who violated them Eusebius the Evangelist Jeremiah Coogan,2022-11-11 In Eusebius the Evangelist Jeremiah Coogan analyzes Eusebius of Caesarea's fourth century reconfiguration of the Gospels as a window into broader questions of technology and textuality in the ancient Mediterranean Eusebius editorial intervention involving tables sectioning and tables of contents intertwines inextricably with a broader late ancient transformation in reading To illuminate Eusebius innovative use of textual technologies the study juxta poses diverse ancient disciplines including chronography astronomy geography medicine philosophy and textual criticism with a wide range of early Christian sources attending particularly to neglected evidence from material texts and technical literature These varied phenomena reveal how Eusebius fourfold Gospel worked in the hands of readers The four Gospels of the New Testament Matthew Mark Luke John share language narratives and ideas yet they also differ in structure and detail The sophisticated system through which Eusebius organized this intricate web of textual relationships is known as the Eusebian apparatus Eusebius creative juxtapositions of Gospel material had an enduring impact on Gospel reading Not only did Eusebius continue earlier trajectories of Gospel writing but his apparatus continued to generate new possibilities in the hands of readers For more than a millennium in more than a dozen languages and in thousands of manuscripts Eusebius fourth century invention transformed readers' encounters with Gospel text on the page By employing emerging textual technologies Eusebius created new possibilities of reading rewriting the fourfold Gospel in a significant and durable way Palestine in Late Antiquity Hagith Sivan,2008-02-14 An original study of Palestine in late antiquity a time when the fortunes of the east and the west were intimately linked Thousands of westerners flocked to what became a Christian holy land while Jerusalem grew from a sleepy Roman town into an international centre of Christianity and ultimately into a centre of Islamic worship Paul and Matthew Among Jews and Gentiles Ronald Charles,2020-12-10 Terence L Donaldson's scholarship in the field of New Testament studies is vital as he has pressed scholars to pay closer attention to the complex relations between early Christ followers who were mostly non Jews and the Jewish matrix from which the narrative of the Christian proclamation comes from This volume allows prominent New Testament scholars to engage Donaldson's contributions both to sharpen some of his conclusions and to honour him for his work These essays are located at the intersections of three bodies of literature Matthew Paul and Second Temple Jewish Literature and themes and questions that have been central to Donaldson's work Christian Judaism and the Parting of the Ways Gentiles in Judaism and early Christianity Anti Judaism in early Christianity With contributions ranging from remapping Paul within Jewish ideologies and Paul among friends and enemies to socio cultural readings of Matthew and construction of Christian Identity through stereotypes of the Scribes and Pharisees this book provides a multi scholar tribute to Donaldson's accomplishments Philip: Apostle and Evangelist Christopher R. Matthews,2002-07-01 This study investigates the history of the traditions that coalesced around the name Philip in the New Testament and other early Christian literature. It proposes that all of this material ultimately owes its genesis to one historical and literary figure: Philip the apostle. This proposition is explored through a wide-ranging examination of the evidence: Luke's redactional employment of traditional materials about Philip the apostle in Acts 8:4-25 and 8:26-40; the evidence of the canonical Gospels; the second-century perspective on Philip as an apostolic authority figure invoked to legitimate various Christian practices; Philip's apostolic authority in gnostic documents for the transmission of the revelatory teaching of Jesus; and the Acts of Philip as a witness to the formation of Christian culture in the earliest centuries. While historical issues are considered where possible, the focus is on the life of the traditions and their reception. Early Christianity in Contexts William Tabbernee, 2014-11-18. This major work draws on current archaeological and textual research to trace the spread of Christianity in the first millennium. William Tabbernee, an internationally renowned scholar of the history of Christianity, has assembled a team of expert historians to survey the diverse forms of early Christianity as it spread across centuries, cultures, and continents. Organized according to geographical areas of the late antique world, this book examines what various regions looked like before and after the introduction of Christianity. How and when was Christianity or a new form or expression of it introduced into the region? How were Christian life and thought shaped by the particularities of the local setting? And how did Christianity in turn influence or reshape the local culture? The book's careful attention to local realities adds depth and concreteness to students' understanding of early Christianity, while its broad sweep introduces them to first-millennium precursors of today's variegated globalized religion. Numerous photographs, sidebars, and maps are included. Ancient Fiction Jo-Ann A. Brant, Charles W. Hedrick, Chris Shea, 2005. The essays in this volume examine the relationship between ancient fiction in the Greco-Roman world and early Jewish and Christian narratives. They consider how those narratives imitated or exploited conventions of fiction to produce forms of literature that expressed new ideas or shaped community identity within the shifting social and political climates of their own societies. Major authors and texts surveyed include Chariton, Shakespeare, Homer, Vergil, Plato, Matthew, Mark, Luke, Daniel, 3 Maccabees, the Testament of Abraham, rabbinic midrash, the Apocryphal Acts, Ezekiel, the Tragedian, and the Sophist Aelian. This diverse collection reveals and examines prevalent issues and syntheses in the making: the pervasive use and subversive power of imitation; the distinction between fiction and history; and the use of history in the expression of identity.

Flavius Josephus Flavius Josèphe, 2008. Volume 1b in Brill's Josephus Project contains Book 2 of Josephus' Judean War, translation and commentary. This book deals with a period of enormous consequence: from King Herod's death (4 BCE) to the first phase of the war against Rome (66 CE). It covers the succession struggle, the governments of Herod's sons, Judea's incorporation as a Roman province, some notable governors including Pilate, Kings Agrippa I and II, the Judean philosophical schools, featuring the Essenes, various rebel movements, and the Sicarii; tensions between Judeans and their neighbors; events leading up to the revolt; the failed intervention of the Syrian legate Cestius Gallus; and preparations for war in Judea and

Galilee The commentary aims at a balance between historical and literary issues The Myth of a Gentile Galilee Mark A. Chancey, 2002-05-23 The Myth of a Gentile Galilee is the most thorough synthesis to date of archaeological and literary evidence relating to the population of Galilee in the first century CE The book demonstrates that contrary to the perceptions of many New Testament scholars the overwhelming majority of first century Galileans were Jews Utilizing the gospels the writings of Josephus and published archaeological excavation reports Mark A Chancey traces the historical development of the region's population and examines in detail specific cities and villages finding ample indications of Jewish inhabitants and virtually none for gentiles He argues that any New Testament scholarship that attempts to contextualize the Historical Jesus or the Jesus movement in Galilee must acknowledge and pay due attention to the region's predominantly Jewish milieu This accessible book will be of interest to New Testament scholars as well as scholars of Judaica Syro Palestinian archaeology and the Roman Near East The Samaritans Reinhard Pummer, 2016 Most people associate the term Samaritan exclusively with the New Testament stories about the Good Samaritan and the Samaritan woman at Jacob's well Very few are aware that a small community of about 750 Samaritans still lives today in Palestine and Israel they view themselves as the true Israelites having resided in their birthplace for thousands of years and preserving unchanged the revelation given to Moses in the Torah Reinhard Pummer one of the world's foremost experts on Samaritanism offers in this book a comprehensive introduction to the people identified as Samaritans in both biblical and nonbiblical sources Besides analyzing the literary epigraphic and archaeological sources he examines the Samaritans' history their geographical distribution their version of the Pentateuch their rituals and customs and their situation today
