

A photograph of a memorial plaque. The plaque is a light-colored, rectangular stone or concrete slab with a slightly textured surface. It is set against a dark, possibly black, background. To the left of the plaque, there is a red ribbon tied in a bow. In the foreground, there is a wreath made of white and blue flowers. The text on the plaque is in white, capital letters, and is arranged in two paragraphs. The first paragraph is larger and more prominent, while the second paragraph is smaller and positioned below the first. The text is a solemn reminder of the sacrifices made by military personnel and the importance of preserving freedoms.
