Rene Guenon Some Observations:

Ren Gu non 1886 1951 was the founder of the Traditionalist School Along with Ananda K Coomaraswamy and Frithjof Schuon he reintroduced traditional metaphysics and esoterism into the Western world after a lapse of centuries and was perhaps the first to present the doctrines of the Vedanta Taoism and Sufism not as Eurocentric orientalist or occult fantasists had done but strictly in their own terms To the mathematical precision of Gu non s metaphysics cosmology and esoteric history Frithjof Schuon 1907 1998 added a poetic or musical element inspired by his close relationship to the Divine Feminine He also presented the spiritual path as a concrete praxis involving the spiritual virtues and stations of wisdom that was not so prominent in Gu non s writings On the other hand Gu non s prophetic eschatology especially in The Reign of Quantity and the Signs of the Times as well as his analysis of the counter tradition gives him an unexpectedly contemporary edge that is perhaps less prominent in Schuon s more aesthetic approach Ren Gu non and Frithjof Schuon illuminate each other both through their unanimity and the specific points where they differ Each is almost the only means of taking the other s measure Questions of who was greater who more traditional are finally less interesting than the tremendous vision of human reality and spiritual truth that emerges from their shared role as renewers of traditional metaphysics and religious understanding Schuon as the younger man was in a position to compose an evaluation of his early intellectual master and in view of his long and illustrious career as an author after Gu non s death Schuon s central essay Ren Gu non Some Observations is also his profoundly appreciative as well as pointedly critical declaration of independence though simultaneously a declaration of collegiality from the man who more than anyone else in the modern world opened to him a fundamental view of principal reality
