important contributions to European culture and learning of the time from the introduction of a new calendar to monastic reform. Among them were celebrated personalities such as St Columbanus, John Scottus Eriugena and Sedulius Scottus who were in the vanguard of a constant stream of arrivals from Ireland to continental Europe collectively known as peregrini. The continental response to this Irish diaspora ranged from admiration to open hostility especially when peregrini were deemed to challenge prevalent cultural or spiritual conventions. This volume brings together leading historians, archaeologists and palaeographers who provide for the first time a comprehensive assessment of the phenomenon of Irish peregrini in their continental context and the manner in which it is framed by modern scholarship as well as the popular imagination. The Junqing Wu, 2017-01-23. In Mandarins and Heretics Wu Junqing explores the denunciation and persecution of lay religious groups in late imperial 14th to 20th century China. These groups varied greatly in their organisation and teaching yet in official state records they are routinely portrayed as belonging to the same esoteric tradition, stigmatised under generic labels such as White Lotus and evil teaching and accused of black magic, sedition and messianic agitation. Wu Junqing convincingly demonstrates that this heresy construct was not a reflection of historical reality but a product of the Chinese historiographical tradition with its uncritical reliance on official sources. The imperial heresy construct remains influential in modern China where it contributes to shaping policy towards unlicensed religious groups.

Ecumenical Community Hamza M. Zafer, 2020-11-23. In Ecumenical Community Hamza M. Zafer explores the language and politics of community formation in the Qur'an. The Proto-Muslims imagined that their pietistic community, the ummah, transcended but did not efface prior social differences based in class, clan and custom. In highlighting the inclusive orientation of the Qur'an's ummah building program, Zafer provides new insights into the development of early Islam and the period preceding the Arab conquests. Evergreen, 1848. The
