Thompson, 2024 The first collection of Monet's paintings of the Thames exhibited in London since 1904 This beautiful volume accompanies a major exhibition at The Courtauld Gallery that will reunite for the first time in 120 years an extraordinary group of Claude Monet's Impressionist paintings of London The exhibition will realize the artist's unfulfilled ambition of showing the group on the banks of the Thames just a stone's throw away from where many of them were created Monet 1840-1926 is world renowned as the leading figure of French Impressionism but many forget that some of Monet's most remarkable Impressionist paintings were made not in France but in London They depict extraordinary views of the Thames as it had never been seen before full of mysterious light and radiant colors Captured over three stays in the capital between 1899 and 1901 the series depicting Charing Cross Bridge Waterloo Bridge and the Houses of Parliament was unveiled at a landmark exhibition in Paris in 1904 Monet fervently wanted to show them in London the following year but plans fell through To this day they have never been the subject of an exhibition in the UK Monet and London Views of the Thames will realize Monet's unfulfilled ambition of showing this extraordinary group of paintings in London By presenting the paintings Monet himself selected in 1904 it will provide visitors with the unique experience of seeing the show Monet curated and the works he felt best represented his ambitious artistic enterprise brought together for the first time over a century after their inaugural exhibition The accompanying catalog is richly illustrated and includes twenty-one entries and four original essays that shed new light on this famous series      Monet in London Grace Seiberling, 1989-01-01 Catalogue of an exhibition of Monet's series of paintings showing scenes of London      Monet's Minutes André Dombrowski, 2023-01-01 A stunning exploration of the vital links between Claude Monet's Impressionism and the time technologies that helped define modernity in the nineteenth century Monet's Minutes is a revelatory account charting the relationship between the works of Claude Monet 1840-1926 founder of French Impressionism and one of the world's best known painters and the modern experience of time Andr Dombrowski illuminates Monet's celebration of instantaneity in the context of the late nineteenth century time technologies that underwrote it Monet's version of Impressionism demonstrated an acute awareness of the particularly modern pressures of time but until now scholars have not examined the histories and technologies of time and timekeeping that informed Impressionism's major stylistic shifts Arguing that the fascination with instantaneity rejected the dulling cultures of newly routinized and standardized time Monet's Minutes traces the evolution of Monet's art to what were then seismic shifts in the shape of time itself In each chapter Dombrowski focuses on the connections between a set of Monet's works and a specific technology or experience of time while providing the voices of period critics responding to Impressionism Grounded in exceptional research and analyses this book offers new interpretations of key works by Monet
