Money For Maria Borrowed Time:

Farewell to Matyora Valentin Rasputin, 1995 A fine example of Village Prose from the post Stalin era Farewell to Matyora decries the loss of the Russian peasant culture to the impersonal soulless march of progress It is the final summer of the peasant village of Matyora A dam will be completed in the fall destroying the village Although their departure is inevitable the characters over when and even whether they should leave A haunting story with a heartfelt theme Farewell to Matyora is a passionate plea for humanity and an eloquent cry for a return to an organic life Live and Remember Valentin

Rasputin, 1992 From Back Cover Live and Remember is one of the most important works of Russian literature of the post Stalin pre glasnost era First published in Russian in 1974 it was immediately hailed by Soviet critics as a superb if atypical example of war literature and a moving depiction of the degradation and ultimate damnation of a frontline deserter although it did provoke controversy for its sympathetic portrayal of the deserter's wife But the novel has also attracted the attention of both Western and Soviet critics for its masterly psychological portrait of two characters caught in a hopeless situation The novel tells the story of a Siberian peasant who makes a tragic miscalculation by deserting in the last year of the war and the loyal wife who embraces his fate as her own Rasputin examines the doomed relationship of these characters sharply evoking the ties that bind individuals to their land their community their family More than commentary on the nature of Soviet power or on the conduct of the war Live and Remember is simultaneously a timeless tale with universal appeal and a very Russian story Reference Guide to Russian Literature Neil Cornwell, 2013-12-02 First Published in 1998 This volume will surely be regarded as the standard guide to Russian literature for some considerable time to come It is therefore confidently recommended for addition to reference libraries be they academic or public Business Management for Hairdressers and Therapists Susan Cressy, 2003 This volume covers good business practices and management to help the reader run a successful salon It covers safe working fair employment practice and making the most of services offered Social Wellbeing Leif Windrider, AI, 2025-03-14 Social Wellbeing explores the profound impact of our relationships on emotional health presenting a framework for building stronger social connections and improving communication skills It highlights how essential elements like connection communication and navigation contribute to a more balanced and fulfilling life Did you know that strong relationships can act as buffers against stress increasing overall resilience The book emphasizes that social skills are not innate but learnable offering ways to actively cultivate and maintain healthy relationships for enhanced wellbeing The book approaches the topic through the three pillars of social wellbeing connection communication and navigation It begins by introducing these core concepts drawing from psychology sociology and communication studies Later chapters offer practical strategies for improving communication skills and handling conflict The book argues that understanding family dynamics managing conflict in romantic partnerships and building positive workplace relationships are all key to social wellbeing Destiny's Bequests Robert A. Kerr, Robert A. Kerr Sr, 2003-10 In this novel genes will out The seminal event is passionate lovemaking after a heated argument Destiny steps in and a chain of circumstances begins with a beloved wife's death in giving birth to twins One twin stolen and left as a foundling is picked up by a young Italian matron in a church Illegally adopted he grows up among sisters the adored son of an extended family headed by a war hero with mob connections The other twin lives with his bereft father who blames himself and the twins for the death of his wife Expelled from school and a runaway he is taken in by his uncle and grows up on a working ranch in Wyoming with his two cousins his fiercely loving aunt and an old man who once saved the life of Gov Franklin Roosevelt This heartwarming story of family and friendship courage and tenderness and the hard and sometimes bitter struggle for truth twists in intricate paths toward a resolution that gives new meaning to the phrase separated at birth and puts a smile on Destiny's face Spirit of the

Totem Irena Maryniak,1995 The book presents an original interdisciplinary analysis of religious and mythological perspectives in fiction published in the Soviet Union between the mid 1960s and the mid 1980s In doing so it points to ways in which anthropological theory can be used as a framework for literary criticism It also shows how in the two decades before perestroika religion and mythology served as alternative models for the intellectual and political reorientation of Soviet society Selected works are explored with reference to a formative debate in anthropological studies on the nature and development of religion based on Edward B Tylor's theory of animism and Emile Durkheim's theory of totemism It is shown how the animist totemist dichotomy highlighted by the controversy is reflected in Russian religious thought before 1917 and particularly in the literature of the Soviet era Within the framework of this debate a selection of novels is discussed in the light of a range of mythological and religious systems Attention is drawn to the connection between Valentin Rasputin's religious vision and traditional Siberian beliefs particularly those of the Buryat The Georgian novel Data Tutashkia by Chabua Amiredzhibi is analysed with reference to Zoroastrian thought Daniil Granin's Kartina The Picture serves as an example of a work where in accordance with Tylor's theory notions of art and beauty take on an animist quality It is argued that early fiction by Chingiz Aitmatov reveals a tension between animist perceptions and the totemic understanding of religion and mirrors aspects of pre Islamic Central Asian religious tradition The writing of Vladimir Tendriakov offers an example of a vision divided between an awareness of Christian dilemmas and loyalty to Marxist Leninist sociological models The study also shows how Durkheim's theory of religion as an expression of a group's awareness of its identity can be related to ideas put forward by Russian nationalist writers Iurii Bondarev Sergei Alekseev and Vasilii Belov It suggests that examples of fiction by Petr Proskurin and later works by Chingiz Aitmatov and Vladimir Tendriakov indicate revived interest in the God building theory of Maksim Gor'kii and Anatolii Lunacharskii In conclusion the book argues that subtextual religious and mythological narratives in Soviet fiction published in the years between the fall of Khrushchev and the Millennium of Christianity in Russia provided a model for new literary discourse under perestroika and for subsequent political transformations Russian studies as well as professionals dealing with Russia Introduction to the Economics of Financial Markets James Bradfield, 2007-02-08 There are many textbooks for business students that provide a systematic introductory development of the economics of financial markets However there are as yet no introductory textbooks aimed at more easily daunted undergraduate liberal arts students Introduction to the Economics of Financial Markets fills this gap by providing an extremely accessible introductory exposition of how economists analyze both how and how well financial markets organize the intertemporal allocation of scarce resources The central theme is that the function of a system of financial markets is to enable consumers investors and managers of firms to effect mutually beneficial intertemporal exchanges James Bradfield uses the standard concept of economic efficiency Pareto Optimality to assess the efficacy of the financial markets He presents an intuitive and introductory understanding of the primary theoretical and empirical models that economists use to analyze financial markets and then uses these models to discuss implications for public policy Students who use this text will acquire an understanding of the economics of financial markets that will enable them to read with some sophistication articles in the public press about financial markets and about public policy toward those markets The book is addressed to undergraduate students in the liberal arts but will also be useful for undergraduate and beginning graduate students in programs of business administration who want an understanding of how economists assess financial markets against the criteria of allocative and informational efficiency The Russian Question Wayne Allensworth, 1998 Who are we is a question that has haunted Russians for centuries The crisis of identity that underlies Russia's efforts to answer that question and the country's attempts to grapple with modernity_the invention of an alien civilization_is explored in this timely book Russia's response to the universal challenge posed by modernization's erosion of community has been to fall back on that most enduring bond of human association_the kinship tie_as Allensworth here defines as nationalism The author draws on rare Russian sources to explore the various ways nationalists have responded to modernization and to chart a likely course for Russia's future development From National Bolshevism to Christian nationalism from Zhirinovskiy to Solzhenitsyn this study ties the ideas and ideologies of nationalism to the question that produced them and cements their connection to the crisis of modernity Learning how to Request in an Instructed Language Learning Context Eva Alcón Soler, 2008 Interlanguage Pragmatics ILP is a field of growing interest Focussing on the speech act of requesting the volume provides information about opportunities for pragmatic learning and how pragmatics can be integrated into instructional foreign language learning contexts In addition the research reported here provides methodological insights for those interested in investigating ILP from a second language acquisition perspective The reader will also encounter some research issues worth examining in relation to pragmatic language learning Topics include the use of assessment instruments in measuring learners perception and production of different pragmatic issues the long term effects of instruction and the effectiveness of different teaching approaches The Last Years of Soviet Russian Literature Deming Brown, 1993 A comprehensive survey of developments in Russian literature over the last fifteen years of the Soviet regime Our Unswerving Loyalty David W. Lovell, Kevin Windle, 2008-08-01 The story of the Communist Party of Australia has been told in various ways Until now however archival collections that have borne on this story have been relatively inaccessible to the ordinary interested reader This book begins to redress that deficiency by bringing together 85 key documents from the Russian State Archives of Social and Political History RGASPI selected from a collection of thousands of documents concerning the relations between the Communist International and the Communist Party of Australia The selection focuses on the relationship between the CPA and the Comintern because the activities of the CPA are essentially incomprehensible without understanding the international communist context within which the CPA operated That context was dominated by the newly created Soviet state and its decision to authorize and utilize a network of communist parties throughout the world Valentin Rasputin Николай Николаевич Котенко, 1988 The Image of Women in Contemporary Soviet Fiction trans, 1989-11-13 The stories in this collection portray Soviet women of different ages and educational backgrounds at home and at work in cities and villages Their themes reflect the social changes in Soviet life in the past 20 years and are aimed to stimulate inquiry into social and feminist issues The Greatest Historical Romances of All Time Charlotte Brontë, Anne Brontë, Emily Brontë, Henry James, Samuel Richardson, Jane Austen, Guy de Maupassant, Thomas Hardy, Bernardin de Saint-Pierre, Edith Wharton, Maria Edgeworth, Henry Fielding, Anthony Trollope, Alexandre Dumas, Mary Wollstonecraft, Louis Hémon, Nathaniel Hawthorne, William Makepeace Thackeray, Grace Livingston Hill, Gilbert Parker, Fanny Fern, Georg Ebers, Fanny Burney, Georgette Heyer, Mary Hays, Robert Williams Buchanan, Mary Angela Dickens, A.
