Monitoring Equal Opportunities For Women And Men:

, The Monitor M. A. Daly,1914 Gender Equality at Work Reporting Gender Pay Gaps in OECD Countries
Guidance for Pay Transparency Implementation, Monitoring and Reform OECD,2023-06-13 Pay transparency policies are gaining momentum throughout the OECD Over half of OECD countries require private sector firms to report their gender pay gap statistics regularly to stakeholders like employees employee representatives the government and or the public Gender pay gap reporting equal pay audits and other pay transparency policies help advance gender equality at the workplace Gender, Culture and Organizational Change Catherine Itzen,Janet Newman,2003-09-02 An engaging contribution to the increasing body of knowledge about gender and organizations Gender Culture and Organizational Change examines gender based inequality in organizations and considers how sexual and social relations between women and men based on sexuality power and control determine the cultures structures and practices of organization and the experiences of men and women working in them Gender Culture and Organizational Change represents a decade of experience of managing change and implementing theory in public sector organizations during a period of major social political and economic transition and analyses the progress that has been made It expands to make wider connections with women and trade unions in Europe and management development for women in the developing countries of Africa and Asia It will be valuable reading for students in social policy gender studies and sociology and for professionals with an interest in understanding the dynamics of the workplace Immigration and Asylum Law and Policy of the European Union Kay Hailbronner,2024-01-22 The harmonization of the different European legal systems has reached the field of asylum and immigration policy The Maastricht Treaty has established the legal basis for a common migration policy Numerous resolutions recommendations joint positions and actions were adopted by the EU Council based on the third pillar in the Maastricht Treaty Within the first pillar the European Community has enacted regulations on visa policy based on Art 100c EC Treaty Additionally several agreements with third countries on immigration issues were set into force Immigration and Asylum Law and Policy of the European Union comprehensively describes the present state of the harmonization process concerning migration policy in the European Union Particular emphasis is laid on the legal status of third country nationals with regard to entry and residence Furthermore the gaps within EU regulations are evaluated in an attempt to search for a homogenous European migration policy Indicators to monitor and evaluate the sustainability of bioeconomy Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2019-11-06 FAO has been working for many years on non food biomass products including sustainable bioenergy and biotechnology and it received a mandate to coordinate international work on food first sustainable bioeconomy by 62 Ministers present at the Global Forum for Food and Agriculture GFFA 2015 Moreover FAO has received support from the Government of Germany to develop guidelines on sustainable bioeconomy development Phase 1 2016 Phase 2 2017 mid 2020 This involves work on the bioeconomy monitoring including the selection and use of indicators The ultimate aim of FAO's work on sustainability indicators is to provide technical assistance to countries and stakeholders in developing and monitoring sustainable bioeconomy more particularly on identifying suitable indicators in line with the Sustainable Bioeconomy Aspirational Principles and related Criteria agreed upon in 2016 by the International Sustainable Bioeconomy Working Group created in the context of FAO's project on Sustainable Bioeconomy Guidelines These indicators shall help both policy makers and producers/manufacturers in monitoring and evaluating the sustainability of their bioeconomy strategies and interventions In order to cover all the relevant aspects and issues for a sustainable bioeconomy our approach identifies impact categories from the sustainable bioeconomy principles and criteria The monitoring approach suggested is balanced since it considers the three sustainability dimensions social economic and environmental at the same time it proposes to use a limited set of core indicators to keep the monitoring feasible and cost effective The suggested methodology starts with a review of existing monitoring approaches to identify already available indicators from which the authors

EU Employment Law Jeff Kenner, 2002-12-23 This book traces the evolution of European Union employment law and social policy from its essentially economic origins in the Treaty of Rome through to the emerging themes post Amsterdam co ordination of national employment policies modernisation of social laws and combating discrimination Each stage of development of Community employment law and social policy is analysed in depth to give a sense of perspective to this fast changing field As the European Union seeks to meet the challenges of globalisation the need to develop social policy as a productive factor has come to the fore The author explains how the social economic and employment imperatives of European integration have always been intertwined and how the emergence of Community employment law from its hitherto twilight existence is best understood through an examination of consistent strands of policy development

African Indigenous Knowledges in a Postcolonial World Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, Ngozi Nwogwugwu, Gift Ntiwunka, 2020-11-29 This book argues that ancient and modern African indigenous knowledges remain key to Africa's role in global capital technological and knowledge development and to addressing her marginality and postcoloniality The contributors engage the unresolved problematics of the historical and contemporary linkages between African knowledges and the African academy and between African and global knowledges The book relies on historical and comparative political analysis to explore the global context for the application of indigenous knowledges for tackling postcolonial challenges of knowledge production conflict and migration and women's rights on the continent in transcontinental African contexts Asserting the enduring potency of African indigenous knowledges for the transformation of policy the African academy and the study of Africa in the global academy this book will be of interest to scholars of African Studies postcolonial studies and decolonisation and global affairs

Compliance in the Enlarged European Union Gerda Falkner, Oliver Treib, 2016-12-05 This book offers a rigorous empirical and theoretical analysis of an important dimension of European integration the implementation of EU legislation and its effect in the wake of the accession of ten new member states to the EU in 2004 The authors concentrate on the key field of social policy which is of vital interest for the viability of the welfare state and the future of labour law standards in Europe Following on from a previous prize winning study Complying with Europe EU Harmonization and Soft Law in the Member States this new volume looks at how EU social legislation works in practice particularly in Central and Eastern European countries The authors offer in depth empirical case studies of three of the most significant pieces of EU social legislation the Working Time Directive the Equal Treatment Directive and the Employment Equality Directive Their analysis makes it possible for the authors to make useful generalizations for the policy field as a whole On the road to the EU Éva Földvári, 2006 Beyond the Market David Hine, Hussein

Kassim, 2005-08-04 Considers the extent to which the EU has impacted on the formation and content of social and environmental policy in the member states focusing on the four larger members Germany France Italy and the UK

Handbook of Research on Gender and Economic Life Deborah M. Figart, Tonia L. Warnecke, 2013-01-01 The excellent list of themes and chapters in this volume reflects the maturity reached by feminist economics in its different dimensions Based on the notion of social provisioning for all as the basic objective of economics they represent a challenge to conventional economic thought and they show the importance of understanding theory institutions empirical work and policy from a gender perspective The global perspective provided through themes and authors is a very useful contribution to the literature Lourdes Bener a Cornell University US Standard economics has a narrow and distorted vision of what the economy is and how it works Gender scholars are on the forefront of developing better more encompassing models of human provisioning for well being This volume presents a wonderful sampling of these new theoretical and empirical developments Paula England New York University US This is an impressive collection that delves deeply and broadly into the myriad ways that gender shapes and alters economic lives and illuminates complex facets of the economic and social provisioning process across the globe The chapters by an exciting variety of researchers policy analysts and practitioners from numerous fields present a consistent and persuasive vision of economic well being as critical to the flourishing of all people Myra H Strober Stanford University US In the aftermath of global economic downturn it has never been more important to understand how gender relates to economic life and well being This interdisciplinary collection of original research details key areas of intersection provides a comprehensive overview of the current state of research and proposes avenues for further investigation The Handbook illuminates complex facets of the economic and social provisioning process across the globe The contributors academics policy analysts and practitioners from wide ranging areas of expertise discuss the methodological approaches to and analytical tools for conducting research on the gender dimension of economic life They also provide analyses of major issues facing both developed and developing countries Topics explored include civil society discrimination informal work working time central bank policy health education food security poverty migration environmental activism and the financial crisis Economists sociologists and political scientists will find this book to be an invaluable research tool as will
