Everything I Ever Needed to Know about Economics I Learned from Online Dating Paul Oyer, 2014-01-07 Conquering the dating market from an economist's point of view After more than twenty years economist Paul Oyer found himself back on the dating scene but what a difference a few years made Dating was now dominated by sites like Match.com eHarmony and OkCupid But Oyer had a secret weapon economics It turns out that dating sites are no different than the markets Oyer had spent a lifetime studying Monster.com eBay and other sites where individuals come together to find a match gave Oyer startling insight into the modern dating scene The arcane language of economics search signaling adverse selection cheap talk statistical discrimination thick markets and network externalities provides a useful guide to finding a mate Using the ideas that are central to how markets and economics and dating work Oyer shows how you can apply these ideas to take advantage of the economics in everyday life all around you all the time For all online daters and for anyone else swimming in the vast sea of the information economy this book uses Oyer's own experiences and those of millions of others to help you navigate the key economic concepts that drive the modern age

Searching for Dignity John Claassens, Leslie Swartz, Len Hansen, 2013-08-01 This publication fills a unique gap in the theological and religious engagement with the issue of human disability in South Africa Combining the contributions of scholars practitioners and people living with disabilities it stands out for the way in which it promotes an interdisciplinary debate on disability and human dignity from a theological point of departure and interest The end result is a collective effort with a critical approach to the role of religion and the Christian faith tradition in particular in the social and life worlds of people living with disabilities A forceful argument is thus constructed about ways in which religion and the Christian faith tradition should change their own discourses practices and ideological presuppositions regarding the issue of human disability Cobus van Wyngaard Department of Philosophy Practical and Systematic Theology University of South Africa
